Renovamos nuestro propósito y nuestro deseo de conceptualizar las prácticas psicopedagógicas en su relación con la posición profesional que sostiene y se sostiene no solo en teorías experiencias y conocimientos científicos sino también en una ética. Se trata de dar continuidad a la construcción de construir ideas enunciados pensamientos representaciones que abran espacios para la formalización disciplinar de nuestro campo de prácticas. Han pasado diecinueve años desde la publicación de Psicopedagogía a conceptos y problemas 2002 y trece desde la última corrección de ese texto. En este tiempo hemos reformulado saberes y construido nuevos conocimientos a partir de resultados de investigaciones provenientes de nuestro campo así como de otros relacionados con nuestro quehacer. Y fundamentalmente en este tiempo hemos sido atravesados por la experiencia. En este tiempo hemos escuchado a muchos niños y niñas jóvenes hemos intercambiado con padres madres y otros adultos significativos hemos aprendido de nuestro trabajo junto a las escuelas y los docentes hemos sido interpelados por las demandas de las escuelas familias las niñas y los niños pero también hemos aprendido a registrar las que provienen de las políticas públicas de salud y educación y de los medios y redes sociales. Lo que sigue es entonces la presentación de un entramado de esa tradición psicopedagógica que se piensa situada en contexto y con eje en los derechos con las experiencias e investigaciones construidas y apropiadas a lo largo de treinta y cinco años de indagación clínica colectiva. Nos proponemos el ejercicio intelectual de no extrapolar sin más conceptos o procedimientos de teorías que no se plantearon las preguntas y los problemas que nos ocupan a los y las profesionales del campo de la psicopedagogía sino partir de nuestras preguntas poniendo a esos conceptos y procedimientos a trabajar en función de nuestros recortes.
