Honor on the Line Robert J. Scott, Myles A. Pocta, 2012-07 It was the fall of 1940 and Americans turned to college football for relief from the turbulent world around them The Depression still had its grip on the nation and across the Atlantic the Battle of Britain raged As war crept closer every day the nation s first peacetime draft called Americans to the defense of the country While the great Tom Harmon of Michigan set new standards on the gridiron on other fields black stars struggled for the right to play At Stanford coaching genius Clark Shaughnessy reinvented the game and in the process engineered the greatest turnaround in the history of college football But the team everybody was talking about was Cornell Fueled by the most powerful offense in the country the Big Red dominated the national rankings until on a snowy field at Dartmouth they eked out a win with a touchdown on the last play of the game or did they When it came to light that the touchdown had been scored on a grievous error by the officials Cornell undefeated and in the race for the national championship faced a wrenching decision The 1940 season was one of the most exciting on record and one that taught America about the values that really matter Esquire ,1937 When Books Went to War Molly Guptill Manning, 2014-12-02 This New York Times bestselling account of books parachuted to soldiers during WWII is a cultural history that does much to explain modern America USA Today When America entered World War II in 1941 we faced an enemy that had banned and burned 100 million books Outraged librarians launched a campaign to send free books to American troops gathering 20 million hardcover donations Two years later the War Department and the publishing industry stepped in with an extraordinary program 120 million specially printed paperbacks designed for troops to carry in their pockets and rucksacks in every theater of war These small lightweight Armed Services Editions were beloved by the troops and are still fondly remembered today Soldiers read them while waiting to land at Normandy in hellish trenches in the midst of battles in the Pacific in field hospitals and on long bombing flights This pioneering project not only listed soldiers spirits but also helped rescue The Great Gatsby from obscurity and made Betty Smith author of A Tree Grows in Brooklyn into a national icon A thoroughly engaging enlightening and often uplifting account I was enthralled and moved Tim O Brien author of The Things They Carried Whether or not you re a book lover you ll be moved Entertainment Weekly Sport and the Shaping of Civic Identity in Chicago Gerald R. Gems, 2020-02-13 This study uses sociological and historical methodologies to analyze the role of sport in the formation of urban identity in Chicago The author traces the transformation of Chicago from a frontier town to a commercial behemoth examining its role as an immigration transportation and entertainment hub The author argues that as a pioneering leader in American sport history Chicago allowed teams and athletes to forge a unique national and global identity This thorough and well researched study makes a major contribution to debates on the social and psychological functions of sport culture

The New American Sport History S. W. Pope,1997 In this collection sixteen scholars explore topics as diverse as the historical debate over black athletic superiority the selling of sport in society the eroticism of athletic activity sexual fears of women athletes and the marketing of the marathon In line with the changing nature of sport history as a field of study the essays focus less on traditional topics and more on themes of class gender race ethnicity and national identity which also define the larger parameters of social and cultural history It is the first anthology to situation sport history within the broader fields of social history and cultural studies Contributors are Melvin L Adelman William J Baker Pamela L Cooper Mark Dyreson Gerald R Gems Elliott J Gorn Allen Guttmann Stephen H Hardy Peter Levine Donald J Mrozek Michael Oriard S W Pope Benjamin G Rader Steven A Riess Nancy L Struna and David K Wiggins Wisconsin Library Bulletin ,1945
