Essay On Morals:

Essays in Religion and Morality William James, 1982 Essays in Religion and Morality brings together a dozen papers of varying length to these two themes so crucial to the life and thought of William James. Reflections on the two subjects permeate first James's presentation of his father's Literary Remains second his writings on human immortality and the relation between reason and faith third his two memorial pieces one on Robert Gould Shaw and the other on Emerson fourth his consideration of the energies and powers of human life and last his writings on the possibilities of peace especially as found in his famous essay The Moral Equivalent of War. These speeches and essays were written over a period of twenty four years. The fact that James did not collect and publish them himself in a single volume does not reflect on their intrinsic worth or on their importance in James's philosophical work since they include some of the best known and most influential of his writings. All the essays throughout their varied subject matter are consistently and characteristically Jamesian in the freshness of their attack on the problems and failings of humankind and in their steady faith in human powers. An Essay on Intuitive Morals Frances Power Cobbe, 1859 The Children of Good Fortune Charles Hanford Henderson, 1905

Essays on the Principles of Morality and Natural Religion Lord Henry Home Kames, 1776 Durkheim W.S.F. Pickering, 2013-10-15 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Essays on Moral Realism Geoffrey Sayre-McCord, 1988 This collection of influential essays illustrates the range depth and importance of moral realism the fundamental issues it raises and the problems it faces Our Destiny; the Influence of Socialism on Morals and Religion; an Essay in Ethics Laurence Gronlund, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1891 edition. Excerpt CHAPTER V LOVE God has divided Man into men that they might help each other. Seneca 30 This is the place where I should especially wish for talents of persuasion for now we have entered into the region of high morality and also here the Established Order opposes our best efforts and is unceasingly active in leading us astray. This fact must not be slurred over at the same time it should be borne in mind that the obstacles are merely superficial due to man's inertia thoughtlessness and ignorance while the noiseless undercurrent of the Universal Order Universal Reason is carrying us irresistibly onward. The agent which the Universal Reason here employs as the social bond is a far mightier one than that considered in the previous chapter. There it was conscience which restrains self here it is the affections which expand self. Conscience does not point to heights of aspiration but takes cognisance only of what falls below a certain line the affections stimulate Affection that wonderful guest within the human bosom the outcome of physical passion that surely is the happiest feat of Evolution. Its first advent like the first appearance of every pleasurable fact of consciousness is involved in mystery. It came we know not whence or why. It appeared as has been said on the theatre of man's consciousness he found it pleasant and was thus encouraged to develop it further. It indeed is a most remarkable and noteworthy fact which we later shall have to dwell upon that our loftiest aspirations have the meanest beginnings and have started from the lowest motives Buckle has insisted that there can be no evolution in morality since moral truths are always the same Do good to others love thy neighbour The Children of Good Fortune Charles Hanford Henderson,2016-05-20 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Darwinism in Morals, and Other Essays Frances Power Cobbe,1872 The Children of Good Fortune C.
