The Canadian Music Journal, 1961 Biography as Theology James Wm. McClendon, 2002-07-30 This minor classic of the narrative theology movement proposes to use biography as a way of doing theology rather than using biography to set forth models of exemplary living to inspire the faithful By looking at the lives of four significant persons Dag Hammarskjold Martin Luther King Jr Clarence Jordan and Charles Ives the author discovers a theology that is adequate to account for the kind of lives these persons lived This unique approach to theology is applicable to any religion but the author has chosen to work within his own Christian tradition in this book The book concludes with suggested methods by which the work of doing theology biographically can be carried further

Arn Henderson, 2017-04-27 Renowned today as one of the most important architects of the twentieth century Bruce Goff 1904-1982 was only twelve years old when a Tulsa architectural firm took him on as an apprentice Throughout his career he defied expectations not only as a designer of innovative buildings but also as a gifted educator and painter This beautifully illustrated volume featuring more than 150 photographs architectural drawings and color plates explores the vast multitude of ideas and themes that influenced Goff's work Tracing what he calls Goff's path of originality Arn Henderson begins by describing two of Goff's earliest and most significant influences the architect Frank Lloyd Wright and the French composer Claude Debussy As Henderson explains Goff embraced from a young age Wright's ideal of organic expression where all elements of a building's design are integrated into a unified whole Although Goff's stylistic dependence on Wright eventually waned the music of Debussy with its qualities of mystery and discipline in freedom was a perpetual source of inspiration Henderson also emphasizes Goff's identification with the American West particularly Oklahoma where he developed most of his ideas and created many of his masterful buildings Goff served as a professor at the University of Oklahoma between 1947 and 1955 becoming the first chair of its School of Architecture The new studio course he introduced was a pivotal development ensuring that his ideas were imparted to the next generation of architects Part biography of a well known architect part analysis of Goff's work this book is also a finely woven tapestry of information and interpretation that encompasses the ideas and experiences that shaped Goff's artistic vision over his lifetime Based on scores of interviews with Goff's associates and former students as well as the author's firsthand study of Goff's extant buildings this volume deepens our appreciation of the great architect's lasting legacy Literature and Music in the Atlantic World, 1767-1867

Catherine Jones, 2014-07-16 This new study looks at the relationship of rhetoric and music in the era's intellectual discourses texts and performance cultures principally in Europe and North America Catherine Jones begins by examining the attitudes to music and its performance by leading figures of the American Enlightenment and Revolution notably Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson She also looks at the attempts of Francis Hopkinson William Billings and others to harness the Orphean power of music so that it should become a progressive force in the creation of a new society She argues that the association of rhetoric and music that reaches back to classical Antiquity acquired new relevance and underwent new theorisation and practical application in the American Enlightenment in light of revolutionary Atlantic conditions Jones goes on to consider changes in the relationship of rhetoric and music in the nationalising milieu of the nineteenth century the connections of literature music and music theory to changing models of subjectivity and Romantic appropriations of Enlightenment visions of the public ethical function of music Genealogies in the Library of Congress Marion J. Kaminkow, 2012-09 Vol 1 905p Vol 2 961p Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Including the Journal of Proceedings ... American Institute of Instruction, 1847 List of members included in each volume beginning with 1891 The Law of the Heart Sam B. Girgus, 2014-07-03 The Law of the Heart is a vigorous challenge to the prevailing concept of the antidemocratic image of the self in the American literary and cultural tradition Sam B Girgus counters this interpretation and attempts to develop a new understanding of democratic individualism and liberal humanism in American literature under the rubric of literary modernism The image of the individual self who retreats inward conforming to a distorted law of the heart emerges from the works of such writers as Cooper and Poe and composer Charles Ives Yet as Girgus shows other American writers relate the idea of the self to reality and culture in a more complex way the self confronts and is reconciled to the paradox of history and reality In Girgus view the tradition of pragmatic humanistic individualism provides a foundation for a future where individual liberty is a major priority He uses literary modernism as a bridge for relating contemporary social conditions to crises of the American self and culture as seen in the works of writers including Emerson Howells Whitman Henry James William James Fitzgerald Bellow and McLuhan Ives Hugh Wiley Hitchcock, 1977 Summa Kitharologica, Vol. 2 Ricardo Iznaola, 2024-10-17 This second volume of Ricardo Iznaola's monumental Summa Kitharologica trilogy is according to its author a playbook for self guided discovery in matters related to the expressive interpretation of music Its 26 short pieces in all keys in versions for solo guitar and guitar duo present the reader with an ample array of musical styles and technical procedures that serve as so many opportunities for exploration of the fascinating and complex growth process that brings the player from basic acquaintance with a score to masterful assimilation of its contents As the distinguished British guitarist and pedagogue Jonathan Leathwood remarks in his Foreword to the book at this point the player is so at one with the score that they can stretch it and occasionally contradict it without ever betraying its essential meaning attaining that desirable imprecision proposed as a marker of ultimate mastery by cellist and pedagogue Pedro de Alcantara as Leathwood reminds us The musical contents are complemented by brief epigraphs preceding each solo miniature ranging from the factual to the poetic whose purpose is to anchor the music in an evocative affect charged context that may hopefully stir the player's imagination as will the excellent recordings by Laura Husbards and the Arabesque Duo Additional commentaries in the Working Notes section in the appendix and in the afterword deal with topics as diverse as mental practice synesthesia musical peak experiences prosody and rhythm theory the hazards of a performing career and the performer's need for and the challenges of introspective self assessment Throughout the book advocates as its core thesis the importance of a questioning stance what if as the path to discovery through changes in points of view a consistently variable perspectivist approach in which comparison and evaluation of multiple alternatives rather than prescriptive pre ordained solutions is taken as the foundation for true understanding Volume 3 of Summa Kitharologica Handbook of Comparative Fingering Analysis completes the set with a comprehensive analytical overview of guitar fingering strategies since the early 19th century Pan Pipes of Sigma Alpha Iota, 1962

Michael Nyman: Collected Writings Dr Pwyll ap Siôn, 2013-12-28 For over three decades Michael Nyman's music has succeeded in reaching beyond the small community of contemporary music aficionados to a much wider range of listeners An important element in unlocking the key to Nyman's success lies in his writings about music which preoccupied him for over a decade from the late 1960s to the early 1980s During this time Nyman produced over 100 articles covering almost every conceivable musical style and genre from the Early Music revival and the West's interest in world music or from John Cage and minimalism to rock and pop Nyman initiated a number of landmark moments in the course of late twentieth century music along the way he was one of the first to critique the distinction between the European avant garde and the American experimental movement he was the first to coin the term minimalism in relation to the music of then largely unknown Steve Reich and Terry Riley and later Philip Glass the first to seriously engage with the music of the English experimental tradition and the importance of Cornelius Cardew and to identify the importance of Art Colleges in nurturing and developing a radical alternative to modernism and one of the first writers to grasp the significance of post minimalists such as Brian Eno and Harold Budd and to realize how these elements could be brought together into a new aesthetic vision for his own creative endeavours which was formulated during the late 1970s and early 80s Much of what transformed and defined Nyman's musical character may be found within the pages of this volume of his writings comprehensively edited and annotated for the first time and including previously unpublished material from Nyman's second interview with Steve Reich

in 1976 There is also much here to engage the minds of those who are interested in pre twentieth century music from Early and Baroque music Handel and Purcell in particular to innovative features in Haydn spatial elements in Berlioz or Bruckner and Mahler s symphonic works Journal of the American Musicological Society American Musicological Society,1964
