Essays from a Daughter to Her Father Marika-Adrian-Pek, 2001-04-01 The Daughter's Way Tanis

MacDonald, 2012-09-01 The Daughter's Way investigates negotiations of female subjectivity in twentieth century Canadian women's elegies with a special emphasis on the father's death as a literary and political watershed. The book examines the work of Dorothy Livesay, P. K. Page, Jay Macpherson, Margaret Atwood, Kristjana Gunnars, Lola Lemire Tostevin, Anne Carson and Erin Mour as elegiac daughteronomies, literary artifacts of mourning that grow from the poet's investigation into the function and limitations of elegiac convention. Some poets treat the father as a metaphor for socio-political power while others explore more personal iterations of loss, but all the poets in The Daughter's Way seek to redefine daughterly duty in a contemporary context by challenging elegiac tradition through questions of genre and gender. Beginning with psychoanalytical theories of filiation, inheritance and mourning as they are complicated by feminist challenges to theories of kinship and citizenship, The Daughter's Way debates the efficacy of the literary work of mourning in twentieth century Canadian poetry. By investigating the way a daughter's filial piety performs and sometimes reconfigures such work and situating melancholia as a creative force in women's elegies, the book considers how elegies inquire into the rhetoric of mourning as it is complicated by father-daughter kinship.

Father-Daughter Relationships Linda Nielsen, 2019-06-04 In this fully revised new edition Father-Daughter Relationships: Contemporary Research and Issues summarises and analyses the most relevant research regarding father-daughter relationships, aiming to break down the persistent misconceptions regarding fatherhood and father-daughter relationships and encourage the reader to take a more objective and analytical approach. The research is brought to life with compelling personal stories from fathers and daughters, including well-known celebrities and politicians. Boxed quizzes and questionnaires show students how the research can be applied to their own lives, while others highlight the relationships between real-life fathers and daughters. Nielsen discusses the father-daughter relationship within a diverse range of family structures, including divorced and separated parents, gay parents, adopted children and children of sperm donors. Covering a wide range of topics, including the father's impact on his daughter's cognitive, academic, social and physical wellbeing, ethnic minorities and incarcerated or abusive fathers, Father-Daughter Relationships: Contemporary Research and Issues gives a panoramic view of the most recent research and statistics. This book is essential reading for upper-level undergraduate and for graduate students as well as for practitioners working with families, such as social workers, mental health professionals and family counsellors. It is especially relevant for courses in psychology, sociology, women's studies and counselling. Linda Nielsen is a Professor of Adolescent and Educational Psychology at Wake Forest University. A member of the faculty for 35 years, she is a nationally recognized expert on father-daughter relationships.

The Father-Daughter Plot Rebecca L. Copeland, Esperanza Ramirez-Christensen, 2001-07-31 This provocative collection of essays is a comprehensive study of the father-daughter dynamic in Japanese female literary experience Its contributors examine the ways in which women have been placed politically ideologically and symbolically as daughters in a culture that venerates the father They weigh the impact that this daughterly position has had on both the performance and production of women s writing from the classical period to the present Conjoining the classical and the modern with a unified theme reveals an important continuum in female authorship a historical approach often ignored by scholars The essays devoted to the literature of the classical period discuss canonical texts in a new light offering important feminist readings that challenge existing scholarship while those dedicated to modern writers introduce readers to little known texts with translations and readings that are engaging and original Contributors Tomoko Aoyama Sonja Arntzen Janice Brown Rebecca L Copeland Midori McKeon Eileen Mikals Adachi Joshua S Mostow Sharalyn Orbaugh Esperanza Ramirez Christensen Edith Sarra Atsuko Sasaki Ann Sherif

Table Scraps and Other Essays Juyanne James,2019-12-18

Table Scraps and Other Essays is for all intents and purposes memoir writing At the heart of the twenty two true stories is an African American female who as a child along with her siblings must learn the value of hard work as hired hands James s young spirit is often at odds with her growing family especially with a father figure who ignores his duties as husband and provider She has a strong loving mother who insists on keeping the family together James learns to trust and depend on the guardians of her small Louisiana community teachers who are eventually forced to move away from the area when the local schools are integrated Many years later James returns home figuratively and literally on occasion from the apartment where she lives in New Orleans and reconnects with a father who seeks forgiveness for his earlier betrayal He spends each day attempting to make up for the ill treatment of his wife and children In these essays James shares her love of nature both as a means of escape from her troubled family and as inspiration for her writing

The Essays of Elia Charles Lamb,1892

Fathering in India Rajalakshmi Sriram,2018-12-30 This book covers the underexplored subject of fathering in India It delves into the shared aspirations of men in India to nurture their children in sensitively attuned ways within the culturally prescriptive context that governs men s roles as providers and caregivers This work is based on over two decades of intensive research in India on how different groups construct and experience fatherhood and fathering under changing circumstances It unmask the heterogeneity that exists within fathering in India through conversations with fathers across diverse contexts in privileged economic situations and those in difficult home and family circumstances having children with disability single parent fathers and fathers in the military A separate section discusses fathering daughters and shared parenting Images and role models in fathering are brought alive through analysis of Hindi films the media children s literature and classical literature The conceptual analysis moves beyond the power and control dimensions commonly used to describe Indian men and fathers to highlight their resilience adaptability positive involvement and developmental trajectories This volume is for scholars researchers and practitioners in developmental psychology human development and family science sociology early childhood education and psychiatry pediatrics community medicine and allied fields

Reading/Speaking/Writing the Mother Text; Essays on Caribbean Women's Writing Cristina Herrera, Paula Sanmartín, 2015-08-01 While scholarship on Caribbean women s literature has grown into an established discipline there are not many studies explicitly connected to the maternal subject matter and among them only a few book length texts have focalized motherhood and maternity in writings by Caribbean women Reading Speaking Writing the Mother Text Essays on Caribbean Women s Writing encourages a crucial dialogue surrounding the state of motherhood scholarship within the Caribbean literary landscape to call for attention on a theme that although highly visible remains understudied by academics While this collection presents a similar comparative and diasporic approach to other book length studies on Caribbean women s writing it deals with the complexity of including a wider geographical linguistic ethnic and generic diversity while exposing the myriad ways in which Caribbean women authors shape and construct their texts to theorize motherhood mothering maternity and mother daughter relationships An Essay on the Art of Ingeniously Tormenting Jane Collier, 2003-08-12 Perhaps the first extended non fiction prose satire written by an English woman Jane Collier s An Essay on the Art of Ingeniously Tormenting 1753 is a wickedly satirical send up of eighteenth century advice manuals and educational tracts It takes the form of a mock advice manual in which the speaker instructs her readers in the arts of tormenting offering advice on how to torment servants humble companions and spouses and on how to bring one s children up to be a torment to others The work s satirical style which focuses on the different kinds of power that individuals exercise over one another follows in the footsteps of Jonathan Swift and paves the way for Jane Austen This Broadview edition uses the first edition the only edition published during the author s lifetime The appendices include excerpts from texts that influenced the essay by Sarah Fielding Jonathan Swift Francis Coventry excerpts from later texts that were influenced by it by Maria Edgeworth Frances Burney Jane Austen and relevant writings on education and conduct by John Locke George Savile Dr John Gregory
