✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

This study examines the historical developments in medieval London, the ceremonies practiced then and the roles these ceremonies played in overall the social setting.

British monarchy was ever so splendid displaying itself in all its finery in the middle centuries. Many of these displays occurred in the pageantries, processions and rituals it held. In these, the different social networks and strata were evident.

As a result the ceremonies stimulated growth of local crafts industries, such as the metalwork industry for production of armors and weapons; stone sculpture
