Essays On African History From The Slave Trade To Neocolonialism:

Essays on African History Jean Suret-Canale, 1988 Slavery and Slaving in World History: A Bibliography, 1900-91: v. 1 David Y Miller, 2019-07-23 This bibliography of 20th century literature focuses on slavery and slave trading from ancient times through the 19th century It contains over 10 000 entries with the principal sections organizing works by the political geographical frameworks of the enslavers Culpability of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade Abdul Karim Bangura, 2016-12-07 This book contributes to the debate over the culpability of the Trans Atlantic Slave from various disciplinary perspectives The general thesis that undergirds the book is that by knowing who was predisposed to benefit the most from the trade and why prompting them to initiate it appropriate culpability can be assigned This approach also allowed for a more in depth analysis of the issue from many disciplines making it the first of its kind For the sake of cohesion and coherence some of the major questions addressed by every chapter are quite similar albeit authors were encouraged to fine tune and add to these questions to meet their disciplinary requirements By emphasizing the why in some of the questions a qualitative explanatory case study approach was utilized Both primary and secondary data sources were also used for each chapter to offer a cogent analysis and new information on the topic A Modern Economic History of Africa: The nineteenth century Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 1997 The nineteenth century in Africa was a time of revolution and tumultuous change in virtually all spheres Violent dry spells the staggered abolition of the slave trade mass migrations and an influx of new settlers characterized the century Regional trade links grew stronger and spread further The century also saw the beginnings of the ruthless and bloody quest for foreign dominion The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, Michael D. Giardina, Gaile S. Cannella, 2023-04-07 This new edition of the SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research represents the sixth generation of the ongoing conversation about the discipline practice and conduct of qualitative inquiry As with earlier editions the Sixth Edition is virtually a new volume with 27 of the 34 chapters representing new topics or approaches not seen in the previous edition including intersectionality critical disability research postcolonial and decolonized knowledge diffraction and intra action social media methodologies thematic analysis collaborative inquiry from the borderlands qualitative inquiry and public health science co production and the politics of impact publishing qualitative research and academic survival Authors in the Sixth Edition engage with questions of ontology and epistemology the politics of the research act the changing landscape of higher education and the role qualitative researchers play in contributing to a more just egalitarian society To mark the Handbook's 30 year history we are pleased to offer a bonus PART VI in the eBook versions of the Sixth Edition this additional section brings together and reprints ten of the most famous or game changing contributions from the previous five editions You can bundle the print eBook version with bundle ISBN 978 1 0719 2874 5 From Empires to NGOs in the West African Sahel Gregory Mann, 2015 This book explains the shift from the government of empires to that of NGOs in the region just south of the Sahara It describes the ambitions of newly independent African states their political experiments and the challenges they faced No other book places black American activism Amnesty International and CARE together in the history of African politics Citizen and Subject Mahmood Mamdani, 2018-05 In analyzing the obstacles to democratization in post independence Africa Mahmood Mamdani offers a bold insightful account of colonialism s legacy a bifurcated power that mediated racial domination through tribally organized local authorities reproducing racial identity in citizens and ethnic identity in subjects Many writers have understood colonial rule as either direct French or indirect British with a third variant apartheid as exceptional This benign terminology Mamdani shows masks the fact that these were actually variants of a despotism While direct rule denied rights to subjects on racial grounds indirect rule incorporated them into a customary mode of rule with state appointed Native Authorities defining custom By tapping authoritarian possibilities in culture and by giving culture an authoritarian bent indirect rule decentralized despotism set the pace for Africa the French followed suit by changing from direct to indirect administration while apartheid emerged relatively later Apartheid Mamdani shows was actually the generic form of the colonial state in Africa Through case studies of rural Uganda and urban South Africa resistance movements we learn how these institutional features fragment resistance and how states tend to play off reform in one sector against repression in the other The result is a groundbreaking reassessment of colonial rule in Africa and its enduring aftereffects Reforming a power that institutionally enforces tension between town and country and between ethnicities is the key challenge for anyone interested in democratic reform in Africa Nationalism and African Intellectuals Toyin Falola, 2004 An examination of the attempt by Western educated African intellectuals to create a better Africa through connecting nationalism to knowledge from the anti colonial movement to the present day This book is about how African intellectuals influenced primarily by nationalism have addressed the inter related issues of power identity politics self assertion and autonomy for themselves and their continent from the mid nineteenth century onward Their major goal was to create a better Africa by connecting nationalism to knowledge The results have been mixed from the glorious euphoria of the success of anti colonial movements to the depressing circumstances of the African condition as we enter a new millennium As the intellectual elite is a creation of the Western formal school system the ideas it generated are also connected to the larger world of scholarship This world is in turn shaped by European contacts with Africa from the fifteenth century onward the politics of the Cold War and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union In essence Africa and its elite cannot be fully understood without also considering the West and changing global politics Neither can the academic and media contributions by non Africans be ignored as these also affect the ways that Africans think about themselves and their continent Nationalism and African Intellectuals examines intellectuals ambivalent relationships with the colonial apparatus and subsequent nation state formations the contradictions manifested within pan Africanism and nationalism and the relation of academic institutions and intellectual production to the state during the nationalism period and beyond Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the

Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Wars Of Imperial Conquest Bruce Vandervort, 2015-01-28 First Published in 1998 The aim of this book is to examine the origins and conduct of colonial warfare in Africa in the late nineteenth century as far as possible from the perspectives both of the European invaders and the African resisters and in the process to demonstrate the impact both immediate and long term of these wars upon the societies political structures and military theory and practice of both victors and vanquished Vandervort has written this book with the student and general reader in mind scholarly apparatus has been kept to a minimum The book which follows takes as its point of departure the belief that we have now reached a point in our understanding of the military history of the partition of Africa where it is possible to begin to draw some meaningful general conclusions The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. X Marcus Garvey, 2006-08-23 Africa for the Africans was the name given to the extraordinary movement led by Jamaican Marcus Mosiah Garvey 1887 1940 Volumes I VII of the Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers chronicled the Garvey movement that flourished in the United States during the 1920s Now the long awaited African volumes of this edition demonstrate clearly the central role Africans played in the development of the Garvey phenomenon The African volumes provide the first authoritative account of how Africans transformed Garveyism into an African social movement The most extensive collection of documents ever gathered on the early African nationalism of the interwar period Volume X provides a detailed chronicle of the spread of Garvey's call for African redemption throughout Africa Militarism, Imperialism, and Racial Accommodation Stanford M. Lyman, 1992-01-01 1993 Mid South Sociological Association Book Award Robert E Park has long been recognized as one of the most influential thinkers in early American sociology yet virtually all of his works appearing before 1913 were published in popular magazines and were dismissed as nonsociological muckraking In Militarism Imperialism and Racial Accommodation An Analysis and Interpretation of the Early Writings of Robert E Park Stanford M Lyman examines and reprints many of these little known works including Park's essays on German military organization his exposés of the atrocities committed by Belgium's Leopold II in the Congo State his studies of the black community in Winston Salem North Carolina and of Booker T Washington's agricultural education program at Tuskegee Alabama Lyman shows clearly that Park's essays written outside the academy formulated a far more complex perspective on modern modes of evil than any proposed by his contemporaries thereby influencing sociological debates for decades to come By writing his essays on topical subjects and by publishing them for a public audience Park dramatized his profound belief that the struggle to achieve racial accommodation and to establish a true and lasting democracy is a concern for all The Essential Writings of Robert A. Hill Adam Ewing, 2024-02-13 Bringing together Robert A Hill's most important writings for the first time this collection serves as a testament to Hill's legacy as a pioneering scholar activist archive builder and editor who shaped the study of Garveyism and pan Africanism Philosophy of African American Studies Stephen Ferguson, 2015-09-16 In this ground breaking book

Stephen C Ferguson addresses a seminal question that is too often ignored What should be the philosophical basis for African American studies The volume explores philosophical issues and problems in their relationship to Black studies Ferguson shows that philosophy is not a sterile intellectual pursuit but a critical tool to gathering knowledge about the Black experience Cultural idealism in various forms has become enormously influential as a framework for Black studies Ferguson takes on the task of demonstrating how a Marxist philosophical perspective offers a productive and fruitful way of overcoming the limitations of idealism Focusing on the hugely popular Afrocentric school of thought this book's engaging discussion shows that the foundational arguments of cultural idealism are based on a series of analytical and historical misapprehensions In turn Ferguson argues for the centrality of the Black working class both men and women to Black Studies

Reclaiming the Human Sciences and Humanities Through African Perspectives Helen Lauer, Kofi Anyidoho, 2012 This compilation was inspired by an international symposium held on the Legon campus in September 2003 Hosted by the CODESRIA African Humanities Institute Programme the symposium had the theme Canonical Works and Continuing Innovation in African Arts Humanities

Breaking the Chains Martin A. Klein, 1993 Noting that the modern perception of slavery is so colored by the American experience that people tend not to see other forms eight essays describe the servile institutions in Asia and Africa during the 19th and early 20th centuries Among the examples are the Ottoman Empire Thailand the Gulf of Guinea and Senegal Paper edition unseen 14 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content

The Landscape of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 1998-03-09 In this volume the contributors locate the field providing historical context and background on applied qualitative research the self and the other and the politics and ethics of qualitative inquiry

The French Imperial Nation-State Gary Wilder, 2020-05-08 France experienced a period of crisis following World War I when the relationship between the nation and its colonies became a subject of public debate The French Imperial Nation State focuses on two intersecting movements that redefined imperial politics colonial humanism led by administrative reformers in West Africa and the Paris based Negritude project comprising African and Caribbean elites Gary Wilder develops a sophisticated account of the contradictory character of colonial government and examines the cultural nationalism of Negritude as a multifaceted movement rooted in an alternative black public sphere He argues that interwar France must be understood as an imperial nation state an integrated sociopolitical system that linked a parliamentary republic to an administrative empire An interdisciplinary study of colonial modernity combining French history colonial studies and social theory The French Imperial Nation State will compel readers to revise conventional assumptions about the distinctions between republicanism and racism metropolitan and colonial societies and national and transnational processes Pilgrimage Tourism of Diaspora Africans to Ghana Ann Reed, 2014-08-27 Processes of globalization have led to diasporic groups longing for their homelands One such group includes descendants from African ancestors displaced by the trans Atlantic slave trade who may be uncertain about their families exact origins Traveling home often means visiting African sites associated with the slave trade journeys full of expectations The remembrance of the slave trade and pilgrimages to these heritage sites bear resemblance to other diasporic travels that center on trauma identification and redemption Based on over two years of ethnographic fieldwork with both diaspora Africans and Ghanaians this book explores why and how Ghana has been cast as a pilgrimage destination for people of African descent especially African Americans Grounding her research in Ghana s Central Region where slavery heritage tourism and political ideas promoting incorporation into one African family are prominent Reed also discusses the perspectives of ordinary Ghanaians tourism stakeholders and diasporan repatriates Providing ethnographic insight into the transnational networks of people and ideas entangled in Ghana s pilgrimage tourism this book also contributes to better understanding the broader global phenomenon of diasporic travel to homeland centers Slavery and Slaving in World History Joseph Calder Miller, 1993
