Mangan, Supriya Chaudhuri, 2016-04-08 Sport studies and sports history have witnessed a recent substantial increase in publications However the relationship between literature and sport has been little explored Sport Literature Society looks at a wide variety of case studies ranging from Japan to England from India to Australia and covers sports as diverse as cycling football wrestling and boxing It concentrates on historical perspectives The contributors are all academics of international reputation and include historians of sport and literary scholars Literature may shape our perceptions and reactions to sport as much as sport may inform our reading As mimetic practice as aesthetic object as imaginative release sport is analogous to literature and the other arts at the same time it can become the subject of literary visual or musical elaborations Literature often conceptualises the place and role of sport in culture and society Indeed sport inhabits literature in ways that have not been adequately studied Sport studies have investigated the relationships between sport and society education gender nation and class To look again at these relationships through the prism of literature enables us to change our focus and to assess the centrality of sport in culture This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport
