Essays on the Lord's Supper. By Oscar Cullmann and F. J. Leenhardt. Translated by J. G. Davies Oscar Cullmann, 1958

Essays on the Lord's Supper Oscar Cullmann, F. J. Leenhardt, 2004-05 In these two essays two distinguished Reformed scholars accept the challenge of understanding and explaining the central meaning of the Lord's Supper How did primitive Christianity understand this event What relationship was Christ attempting to establish with mankind Did He wish to establish a link other than the one of preaching His Word What is the relationship of Word and Sacrament These and other vital issues for the churches of the Reformation tradition are addressed In the first essay Oscar Cullmann proposes to investigate the true meaning of the Lord's Supper with which primitive Christianity invested the cultic act of the sacred meal as it was practised in the communities of the first century He examines the Breaking of Bread and the Resurrection Appearances and draws a connection between the Lord's Supper and the Death of Christ and successfully combines the two in his conclusion The second essay by F J Leenhardt provides an answer to the question What relationship did Christ wish to establish with man Or more precisely since Christ wished His disciples to proclaim His Gospel He established a link which is the preaching of His Word He that hears you hears me The question is therefore whether or not He wished to establish by another means than the spoken Word a further relationship with man Both essays present new and original insights into the central meaning of the Lord's Supper

The Lost Supper Matthew Colvin, 2019-07-27 What did Jesus intend when he spoke the words This is my body The Lost Supper argues that Jesus words and actions at the Last Supper presupposed an already existing Passover ritual in which the messiah was represented by a piece of bread Jesus was not instituting new symbolism but using an existing symbol to speak about himself Drawing on both second temple and early

Rabbinic sources Matthew Colvin places Jesus words in the Upper Room within the context of historically attested Jewish thought about Passover The result is a new perspective on the Eucharist a credible first century Jewish way of thinking about the Last Supper and Lord s Supper and a sacramentology that is also at work in the letters of the apostle Paul Such a perspective gives us the historical standpoint to correct Christian assumptions past and present about how the Eucharist works and how we ought to celebrate it

From Legalism to Freedom Dallas R. Burdette,2008-08 In 1517 Martin Luther took a stand for justification by faith alone in the finished work of Christ upon Calvary As a result of his position he suffered persecution for adhering to the Scriptures alone and not to traditions This book traces my spiritual journey from legalism to freedom in Christ In sixteen chapters I map out my heritage within the Churches of Christ and the motivations that eventually led me out of bondage to liberty One of the lengthiest chapters in this book is Where the Scriptures Speak One objective of this chapter is to help individuals to understand that one may speak where the Bible speaks and not necessarily speak as the Bible speaks Chapters 11 12 and 13 represent the very heart of my escape from authoritarianism to my dependence upon God s righteousness a righteousness from God through faith in Jesus Chapter 14 focuses on preaching in the early church Without an understanding of the Gospel that the apostles proclaimed Christians will never learn the spirit of toleration for differences within the Christian community Chapters 8 15 and 16 give attention to the Last Supper The communion should be a constant reminder of the Cross and true unity among God s children Chapter 1 2 and 3 outline my original journey of faith Dallas Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God s people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary

The Catholic Passion David Scott,2005 In The Catholic Passion David Scott biographer of Mother Teresa A Revolution of Love presents the Catholic faith as a spiritually fulfilling intellectually coherent answer to the most important human questions Why are we here What can we know of God How should we live The Catholic Passion is not an argument for the Catholic faith but a journey to the heart of it a richly rewarding reflection on prayer the Bible the sacraments the Church and God made human in Jesus Christ Anyone with a passion for the Catholic faith will be moved by this book as well as anyone who is seeking a faith that burns in the heart as it enlightens the mind

Recapturing an Enchanted World John D. Rempel,2020-01-28 While the Free Churches rightly sought to cleanse the church of the abuses of sacramentalism in that process they also set aside some of the church s historic practices and theology In response to this liturgically thin space Mennonite theologian and minister John D Rempel considers the role of the sacraments and ritual within the Free Church tradition helping us perceive the sacramental nature of our faith and worship
