Personality" Charles W. Fuller, 2010-04-05 In an era when the cult of personality has overtaken the task of preaching Charles W Fuller offers an engaging query into the necessary boundaries between the person of the preacher and the message preached By thoroughly evaluating Phillips Brooks s classic truth through personality definition of preaching Fuller brings to light a substantial error that remains in contemporary homiletics namely the tenuous correlation between Christ s incarnation and Christian preaching Ultimately Fuller asserts a sound evangelical framework for preaching on revelational ontological rhetorical and teleological grounds Preachers who desire to construct pulpit practice upon a robust evangelical foundation will benefit from Fuller s contribution

Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9 11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9 11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9 11 The Critical Review of Theological & Philosophical Literature Stewart Dingwall Fordyce Salmond,1895 Phillips Brooks David B.
