The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07
More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries. Publications of Turku University Library, 1948 Books in English on Finland Hilka Aaltonen, 1964 Catalogue H. The first part presents the private papers connected to the composer and his principal librettist Eugène Scribe both archival and printed with working papers and correspondence as found in Berlin, Paris and some of the famous libraries of the world. The body of Part 2 draws together all the known resources on Meyerbeer's life and historical reputation from full scale biographies and entries in reference books through critical discussions to website resources to records of symposia. The third part provides material about his background with its unique mixture of Jewish and Prussian elements, the powerful role of the city of Berlin in his life and work. The fourth part lists bibliographic material for Meyerbeer's music looking at his operas grouped as German, Italian and French with each individual entry providing a record of the scores available both modern and historical, the various arrangements made from the operas during the heyday of their popularity, reviews of modern performances, discography and bibliography of studies and publications pertinent to the wider cultural and historical contexts of the works. The next two sections constitute an extended record of material pertinent to the contemporaries of Meyerbeer. In the fifth section are select bibliographies of composers, authors, artists, performers, politicians, those who played some part in the composer's life or anyone of significance in his wider contemporary circumstances. This is continued in the sixth part where the cultural and aesthetic elements of the composer's milieu or life in the theatre during seventy years of the nineteenth century are listed. The seventh part adds a bibliography of social and historical background where the incidental issues of Judaism in nineteenth century Europe and the wider political, historical and geographical circumstances of Meyerbeer's life his relentless travelling and closely recorded experiences in Germany France Italy Belgium England and Austria The eighth section provides a thematic key to this extensive material Part 9 provides an extended tripartite series of lists of the published scores arrangements and some special studies of Meyerbeer over the period 1820 to 2005 in alphabetical chronological and thematic ordering The last two sections furnish the modern equivalent of this record of Meyerbeer and his compositions showing in Part 11 the list of performances of his operas since the Second World War and in Part 12 listing the recordings of the operas both commercial and private for the same period The thirteenth and last section is iconographical pictures that represent an interesting survey of the popular response to Meyerbeer in the 19th century
