Financial Innovation and Resilience Lilia Costabile, Larry Neal, 2018-09-28 As Ignazio Visco Governor of the Bank of Italy says in his Foreword all economic policy makers today need to re examine our history to help them confront the challenges of today This edited volume focuses specifically on the theme of financial innovation and how financial resiliency was achieved in Naples To highlight both the achievements of the public banks of Naples and their lessons for financial resiliency the book focuses on financial crises and how they were overcome in Naples in contrast to other European financial systems The first section focuses on the development of the public banks unique to Naples The second section compares those with other banking systems and how they responded to the same shock in 1622 caused by the full mobilization of European belligerents to finance their efforts in the Thirty Years War The next section compares lessons learned in the rest of Europe over the next century and a half The final section comes back to original start of the narrative arc to suggest ways that today s policymakers and thinkers could use the historical experience of the public banks of Naples to deal better with the ongoing problems stemming from the financial crisis of 2007-08 Institutions and Investments Jun Fu, 2010-06-08 As China continues to be heralded as a rising economic power the need for an understanding of its institutional effects such as investment related policies regulations and laws on foreign direct investment increases as well Institutions and Investments employs interdisciplinary perspectives from economics business law and political science to shed light on the interaction between institutional changes and investment patterns and to form a clear picture of investment behavior as China's legal and regulatory infrastructure has developed over the reform years Organized into three main parts the book first discusses the evolution and nature of China's FDI regulatory framework Part 2 examines the various modes and variant patterns of FDI in China in the reform years Part 3's central task is to demonstrate a systematic link between institutional changes in China's FDI regulatory framework and the changing patterns of FDI In conclusion Jun Fu finds that China has made substantial progress from a command economy to a market system but that it still has a long way to go before it truly attains a transparent and rule based system This book adds new dimensions to the scholarship on China as a growing economic power and will be of particular interest to international economists political scientists and business scholars studying China Jun Fu is Associate Professor in the School of Economics and Management Tsinghua University Floating Exchange Rates at Fifty MAURICE OBSTFELD, Douglas A. Irwin, 2024-04-15 Fifty years ago in March 1973 the major industrial economies abandoned fixed exchange rates conclusively ending the post World War II Bretton Woods arrangements Proponents believed their action would strengthen countries ability to reconcile domestic macroeconomic policies with the balance of payments But opponents feared it would initiate a new era of instability and financial shocks Since 1973 much of the world has moved away from fixed exchange rates to a variety of regimes based on considerable exchange rate flexibility But international trade conflicts and unstable capital flows along with a rise in financial crises around the world have nonetheless accompanied the global shift away from exchange rate pegs How has the international monetary system performed over the past half century What have we learned from the experience of more flexible exchange rates What has been the impact on macroeconomic and financial stability in the years since This book derives from papers delivered at a conference that brought together leading economists and policymakers to debate and discuss these questions as well as to assess the evolution of the international monetary system the dominance of the US dollar and the role of exchange rate regimes in shaping the world economy

Quantifying the Impact of Technical Barriers to Trade Keith E. Maskus, John Wilson, 2025-10-01 This book provides an up to date discussion of economic issues involved in analyzing regulations of product quality and performance in international trade Among the issues addressed in this collection are restrictions on genetically modified foods and pesticide use and compatibility standards for computers While such regulations may serve important goals they may also interfere with international trade flow by raising the costs of compliance This is of special concern to developing countries which have found it difficult to meet the increasingly exacting regulations imposed by the United States and Europe Keith E Maskus and John S Wilson gather prominent international trade specialists to ask whether the impacts of such regulations may be quantified systematically in order to inform the international policy debate The essays included here cover all fronts of the debate over regulatory issues and trade conflicts The discussion ranges from a review of how trade conflicts emerge and how they are managed by the international trading system to a technical analysis of the potential impact of European restraints on trade in genetically modified products to an examination of methods for estimating the costs of compliance with environmental regulations Considerable attention is paid to whether the emergence and enforcement of stronger standards among developed economies could result in diminished trade opportunities for developing countries At the same time the possibility that standards could expand market access through resolving consumer information problems is analyzed This book will appeal to international economists international relations specialists and individuals concerned about appropriate regulation of safety and health issues in the global economy Keith E Maskus is Professor of Economics University of Colorado Boulder John S Wilson is Lead Economist Development Economics Research Group The World Bank

Catching Up with the Competition Bernard M. Hoekman, Jamel Zarrouk, 2010-05-18 At a time when countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA are joining the World Trade Organization the lack of an economically sound analysis of trade policies in the region is especially notable This volume remedies the situation by bringing together a distinguished group of applied trade economists to provide a broad view of the state of trade in and among the region's nations The contributors provide original empirical analyses on key reform issues and their work reflects deep knowledge of government concerns and policies Part 1 sets the scene by comparing the performance of the MENA region with the rest of the world on a large number variables and indicators Part 2 contains a number of CGE model based analyses of trade policy reform options Part 3 focuses on specific policy areas standards as nontariff barriers and red tape trade facilitation an assessment of the impact of protecting intellectual property using partial equilibrium techniques and a review of the existing Euro Med agreements Part 4 discusses how the region could benefit from WTO membership and from changing the existing regional integration schemes into arrangements that help promote a growth enhancing reform agenda The volume will be essential reading for economists and policymakers working in and with the MENA nations as well as officials at the multilateral and regional institutions Contributors are A Halis Akder Benita Cox Dean De Rosa Hana a Kheir El Din Sherine El Ghoneim Oleh Havrylyshyn Bernard Hoekman Denise Konan Peter Kunzel Will Martin Keith Maskus Mustapha Nabli Thomas Rutherford Elisabet Rutstrom David Tarr Subidey Togan L Alan Winters Alexander Yeats and Jamel Zarrouk Bernard Hoekman is an Economist with the Development Research Group's Trade team of the World Bank Jamel Zarrouk is an Economist with the Arab Monetary Fund

The Role of the Judge in International Trade Regulation Thomas Cottier, Petros

Constantinos Mavroidis, Patrick Blatter, 2009-12-22 The WTO is generally seen as a key actor of globalization and as such has been the point of convergence of popular irritation worldwide Many of the reproaches addressed to the WTO show civil society's concern with what is perceived as a democratic deficit in the way the organization operates The main fear is to see trade rise as the ultimate value prevailing over concerns such as health and environment The Role of the Judge offers insight into how disputes are solved at the WTO level into how the judicial branch interacts with the rest of the organization and into the degree of sensitivity of the system to external input The book sheds light on the judicial system governing the WTO and shows it to be the only truly multilateral system where disputes are solved by third party adjudication The book develops along three lines the first a search for cases submitted to the WTO where the judge exceeded its authority the second a comparison of the WTO with the operations of national judicial systems having different levels of integration specifically the United States federal level and the EC quasi federal level and the third an exploration of directions for the future of dispute settlement in the WTO Reflecting the diversity of its contributors this book addresses questions of economics political science and law bringing an unusual level of multidisciplinary to this topic and context It is designed for both academic readers and practitioners who will find it full of practical insights as well as rich and detailed analysis Thomas Cottier is Professor of European and International Economic Law University of Bern and Managing Director World Trade Institute University of Bern Petros C Mavroidis is Professor of Law University of Neuchâtel He formerly worked in the Legal Affairs Division of the World Trade Organization Patrick Blatter is Mavroidis's scientific collaborator

The Big Problem of Small Change Thomas J. Sargent, François R. Velde, 2003-11-23 This text offers an explanation of how a problem that dogged monetary authorities for hundreds of years was finally solved It amounts to a history of how commodity money money literally worth its weight in gold became fiat money money not literally equal to the value claimed for it

Services in the International Economy Robert Mitchell Stern, 2001 Examines the growing role of services in the world economy

Growth, Trade, and Systemic Leadership Rafael Reuveny, William R. Thompson, 2009-12-21 Proposes an innovative argument for the existence of world governance

Much Ado about Culture Archibald Lloyd Keith Acheson, Christopher John Maule, 2009-10-27 Examines trade disputes between Canada and the United States over the cultural industries and proposes a way to resolve such conflicts
