Essays In Theology Of Culture:

Essays in Theology of Culture Robert W. Jenson, 1995 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable This collection of twenty two essays considers a broad range of themes that lie at the intersection of culture and theology the arts language politics and liberal education One theme especially prominent in these pieces is the use of nihilism and its political manifestations as fascism as chief culture diagnostic categories Taken together these compelling pieces offer important insight into where society has been where it is today and where it is headed Scribe of the Kingdom Aidan Nichols, 1994

Theology of Culture Paul Tillich, 1959 Attempts to show the religious dimension in many special spheres of man s cultural activity God and Culture Carl Ferdinand Howard Henry, 1993 This book examines a number of facets of contemporary culture and sets forth what thoughtful Christians have been and should be thinking about each one Contributors and topics include Kevin J Vanhoozer on hermeneutics D A Carson on pluralism Robert J Priest on anthropology Lewis W Spitz on history Loren Wilkinson on the environment and more The Culture of the Incarnation: Essays in Catholic Theology Tracey Rowland, 2017-08-01 In this collection of essays distinguished Australian theologian Tracey Rowland takes up the relationship of Christ and culture broadly understood She contrasts the principles undergirding what St John Paul II called a culture of death with those required for the flourishing of a humanism that flows from the grace of the Incarnation Rowland returns frequently to the theological insights of Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI to whose thought she is deeply indebted Drawing upon the Augustinian and Thomist traditions of political theology she offers a trenchant theological critique of liberalism in all its forms with attention to our modern attraction to false utopias and accommodationist impulses The nine essays in this volume engage such perennial topics as the place of natural law the theological status of the world and the nature of true humanism along with timely topics such as the retrieval of the sources of Catholic resistance to Communism and what is now commonly called cultural Marxism Rowland s inimitable voice keen wit and penetrating insight into the distinctiveness of Catholic truth make this book a landmark volume as the Church today revisits anew its relationship to the world Religion and Culture Timothy P. Fallon, SJ, Philip Boo Riley, 1987-01-23 While the framework of this book is Lonergan the essays stand as original and constructive works in a number of fields and topics The theme of the relation of religion to culture is addressed from four orientations philosophy theology human science and economics The contributors include Stephen Toulmin Frederick Crowe S J Sebastian Moore Walter Conn and William Johnston S J Topics covered include process thought historical mindedness mysticism religious truth and language nuclear war and economic transformation Lonergan s monumental Insight 1957 and Method in Theology 1972 are substantial and powerful The key to these and other works is method Lonergan s thought rests on the subject s intelligent and responsible self appropriation grounded in creative and cooperative work from diverse disciplines This volume demonstrates the richness and importance of the methodical collaboration called for by one of our century s greatest minds Joy and Human Flourishing Miroslav Volf, Justin E. Crisp, 2015-11-01 Joy is crucial to human life and central to God's relationship to the world yet it is remarkably absent from contemporary theology and increasingly from our own lives This collection remedies this situation by considering the import of joy on human flourishing These essays written by experts in systematic and pastoral theology Christian ethics and biblical studies demonstrate the promise of joy to throw open new theological possibilities and cast fresh light on all dimensions of human life With contributions from Jurgen Moltmann N T Wright Marianne Meyers Thompson Mary Clark Moschella Charles Mathewes and Miroslav Volf this volume puts joy at the heart of Christian faith and life exploring joy's biblical dogmatic ecclesiological and ethical dimensions in concert with close attention to the shifting tides of culture Convinced of the need to offer to the world a compelling Christian vision of the good life the authors treat the connections between joy and themes of creation theodicy politics suffering pastoral practice eschatology and more driven by the conviction that vital relationship with the living God is integral to our fullest flourishing as human creatures

Theology of Culture Paul Tillich, 1959 Attempts to show the religious dimension in many special spheres of man's cultural activity Religion and Culture Walter Leibrecht, 1959 Contributors Walter Leibrecht Erich Fromm Karl Jaspers Reinhold Niebuhr Karl Barth Nels F S Ferr Stanley Hopper Erich Przywara Gustave Weigel Heinrich Bornkamm Georges Florovsky Charles Hartshorne Karl Heim Karl Loewith Gabriel Marcel James Luther Adams Rudolf Bultmann Paul L Lehmann Kurt Leese Wilhelm Pauck Emil Brunner Yoshinori Takeuchi John C Bennett Helmut Thielicke Charles Malik Mass Society and Its Culture, and Three Essays concerning Etienne Gilson on Bergson, Christian Philosophy, and Art Étienne Gilson, Henri Gouhier, 2023-01-24 A medievalist and defender of the notion of Christian philosophy Etienne Gilson had a lifelong interest in the philosophy of art He questioned whether what is reproduced as art in contemporary society is art at all This is not a simple issue A cheap version of a novel is still a novel A picture of a statue is not a statue nor indeed is a photograph of a painting a painting Recorded music has particular complications The organizer of an industrial assembly line is neither an artist nor an artisan Yet thanks to such mass production a much broader population has knowledge of artworks than would otherwise be possible Religions must minister to mass societies and provide appropriate liturgies But in the process there is a danger of misrepresenting complex religious teachings At the end of his own life Henri Gouhier Gilson's first doctoral student prepared three essays on Gilson The first on Bergson gives a sense of Gilson's formation in early twentieth century French philosophy The second reconstructs the development of the notion of Christian philosophy and the heated controversy it provoked Finally Gouhier presents Gilson's general philosophy of art and gives a helpful framework to Gilson's comments on art in a mass society Scribe of the Kingdom Aidan Nichols OP, 1994-01-02 A powerful statement of the intelligent conservatism which Nichols sees as the very teaching of Jesus Christ Theology, History, and Culture Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1998-02-17 This text brings together the best of the unpublished works of one of the outstanding American religious thinkers of the 20th century These selected letters sermons and essays show the breadth of H Richard

Niebuhr's interests and reveal his concern with integrating theology with practice

A Cultural Theology of Salvation Clive Marsh, 2018 Clive Marsh offers a contemporary Christian understanding of salvation. He shows how salvation is understood and articulated now when redemption language is widely used outside of Christianity and when redemptive experiences are reported in response to the arts, popular culture, media, and through counselling.

Theology, Aesthetics, and Culture Robert MacSwain, Taylor Worley, 2012-09-20 British theologian David Brown has published a series of five books on theology and the arts. This volume is a collection of responses to this body of work and includes essays by prominent philosophers, theologians, biblical and literary scholars. Together they provide a fresh treatment of theology, aesthetics, and culture.

Religion and Popular Culture in America Bruce David Forbes, Jeffrey H. Mahan, 2005-11-17 PRAISE FOR THE FIRST EDITION: A solid introduction to the dialogue between the disciplines of cultural studies and religion. A substantive foundation for subsequent exploration. Sports and Play in Christian Theology Philip Halstead, John Tucker, 2020-11-24 Sport is a major preoccupation of the modern world. It consumes the time and energies of millions of people around the globe. In fact, for many participants, it operates much like a functional equivalent of religion, giving them a way to interpret and understand the world. Sports stadiums are the cathedrals of our time. Sports stars are the saints or demi-gods through whom we access the transcendent. Members of the sports media serve as religious scribes, and sports fans are the worshiping faithful. What is true of sport is also true more generally of play. Nevertheless, and quite remarkably, Christian theologians and religious historians have been surprisingly slow to recognize the spiritual and cultural significance of sport and play or to engage in the study of these concepts. This book attempts to redress that neglect by integrating sport and play with Christian faith and practice. In Sports and Play in Christian Theology, ten Christian scholars and practitioners explore sport and play from theological, biblical, historical, and pastoral perspectives. This rich collection of wide-ranging reflections and focused case studies will help readers locate sport and play within Christian faith and practice.

Developing a New Christology for a Postmodern Culture Donald D. Phillips, 2024-11-05 In an increasingly secular, contemporary, postmodern culture, many people have no understanding of Christianity or the importance and relevance of Jesus Christ. As a result, the Church's traditional liturgical texts, as well as the church-oriented language often used by Christians to explain the Gospel, are not helpful or accessible to those outside the Church. To respond to this challenge, the author uses a semiotic method based on the work of Robert Schreier to engage and describe the nature of contemporary postmodern culture. Using a narrative approach to the Gospels based on the work of the 20th-century historical theologian Hans Frei, the author derives a more modest, open-ended Christology which will converse with its cultural context and continue to be interpreted within contemporary Christian communities. Using social values analysis from a particular contemporary culture, the author then forms biblical statements about the person of Jesus Christ.

that are congruent with those values and uses them to construct a new Eucharistic Prayer The result is a liturgical prayer that is accessible and enables members of that local culture to be embraced by and to embrace the identity of Jesus Christ

Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture ,2010-01-01 Christianity exists in relation to and interacts with its cultural environment in a number of ways In this volume authors from a wide variety of backgrounds explore various facets of the relationship and interaction of Christianity with its cultural environment politics society esthetics religion and spirituality and with itself Divided into three main sections Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture looks at the interaction of Christianity with culture in the first section with other religions and spiritualities in the second and finally with itself in the third The contributions engage in a critical examination of not only the culture in which Christianity finds itself but also in a critical examination of Christianity itself and its interaction with that culture The editors hope that teachers students and readers in general will profit greatly from the critical articles contained in this book Lukan Joy and the Life of Discipleship Julie Newberry,2023-01-02 In this study Julie Newberry advances scholarship on emotions in biblical literature by examining the conditions that is the circumstances dispositions practices and commitments that lead to joy in Luke s narrative Focused primarily on the Gospel the author traces joy s interconnection with the wider life of discipleship using an eclectically interdisciplinary approach that foregrounds literary theological and intertextual analysis Julie Newberry argues that for Luke the conditions that facilitate appropriate joy include both divine action to bring about joy conducive circumstances and human receptivity The latter is bound up with factors such as properly oriented hope trust and the generous use of possessions rendering intelligible Luke s portrayal of joy as mandatory praiseworthy or blameworthy in particular circumstances
