The Essence of Provence Pierre Magnan, 2003 With hundreds of stores and thousands of employers worldwide l Occitane today ranks as one of the world's most successful companies encapsulating a bit of paradise and especially in this day of corporate scandals proving that honesty and decency can pay This then is the rags to riches story of Olivier Baussan and l Occitane BOOK JACKET The Essence of Provence Pierre Magnan, 2012-08 In this slim tribute to the founder of the company that sells products with fragrances distilled from aromatic plants such as rosemary lavender honeysuckle sage and thyme Magnan The Murdered House tells the story of Olivier Baussan who turned his passion for Provence and its sweet smelling herbs into a highly successful business I Occitane While he was a young member of the back to the land movement Baussan found an old still began distilling herbal essences and in the 1970s started a business that grew into the world renowned company that sells a wide variety of herbal soaps shampoos colognes and bath products The guintessential entrepreneur he took his business to Africa where he used the jatropha bush in the Cape Verde Islands to make soap and the karita tree in Burkina Faso to make creams and lotions In 1992 Baussan sold the business though he retained the title of managing director and Magnan leaves the story of the company there in order to follow its founder into new ventures a proposal to l Occitane that Braille be included on its labels and a project for a school where blind children can learn a International Marketing in Practice Véronique Boulocher-Passet, 2025-06-26 vocation in the perfume industry International Marketing in Practice features select case studies relating to businesses from various markets and countries facing the challenges and decisions involved when undertaking international marketing Across its four sections the book examines how companies can overcome the challenges of connecting with potential customers in a foreign country through strategic choices around which markets to enter identifying appropriate modes of entry successfully adapting their marketing mix for these markets and leveraging a country of origin strategy The book showcases 11 unique and international case studies grounded in the experiences of real companies of varying sizes operating in a range of industries Each case features a case synopsis learning objectives a concise narrative along with stimulating discussion questions for individual cases as well as each section These compact case studies will enable students to apply concepts to situations in other organizations thus strengthening their understanding and supporting learning This exciting new text is designed as recommended reading on undergraduate and postgraduate International Marketing and International Business courses For instructors who teach with the cases there are accompanying teaching notes available online Authenticity James H. Gilmore, B. Joseph Pine, 2007 The authors list the five factors that most directly influence customer perceptions the operational essence of the enterprise the nature of its offerings the effects of the organization s heritage its sense of purpose and its demonstrable body of values Beauty Imagined Geoffrey Jones, 2010-02-25 The global beauty business permeates our lives influencing how we perceive ourselves and what it is to be beautiful The brands and firms which have shaped this industry such as Avon Coty Est e Lauder L Or al and Shiseido have imagined beauty for us This book provides the first authoritative history of the global beauty industry from its emergence in the nineteenth century to the present day exploring how today s global giants grew It shows how successive generations of entrepreneurs built brands which shaped perceptions of beauty and the business organizations needed to market them They democratized access to beauty products once the privilege of elites but they also defined the gender and ethnic borders of beauty and its association with a handful of cities notably Paris and later New York The result was a homogenization of beauty ideals throughout the world Today globalization is changing the beauty industry again its impact can be seen in a range of competing strategies Global brands have swept into China Russia and India but at the same time these brands are having to respond to a far greater diversity of cultures and lifestyles as new markets are opened up worldwide In the twenty first century beauty is again being re imagined anew
