The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Patrick Beldio, 2024-12-15 The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Co Creator of the Integral Yoga analyzes the contributions of the Mother and Mirra Alfassa 1878-1973 to the Integral Yoga that she and Sri Aurobindo and Aurobindo Ghose 1872-1950 co-created for his ashram. Scholars have ignored Mirra for Aurobindo which prevents a full understanding of their spiritual practice. Scholars have also avoided examining work Aurobindo produced after they began their partnership in 1920 until his death in 1950 and privileged the written output in his journal Arya from 1914 to 1921. In this initial fertile period he put forth his innovative teaching about what he called the Supermind, an emergent human faculty that he said would manifest a new humanity and a new earth through Mirra's body. Mirra claimed that after his death in 1956 this manifestation happened as he foretold. Mirra's work in the ashram from his death until hers in 1973 reveals important ways that she both fulfilled and changed Aurobindo's initial vision. These developments are chiefly based on her experiences of mental dissolution while her body gained a new supramental form and consciousness.

The Philosophy of Sri Aurobindo Debidatta Aurobinda Mahapatra, 2020-05-14. Indian philosopher, poet, mystic, and Yogi Sri Aurobindo argued that human society has evolved throughout history and is destined to move towards better organization of life. Applying his ideas to problems confronting the world today, this collection presents an in-depth exploration of Aurobindo's evolutionary philosophy and Integral Yoga. Written by an international team of scholars and practitioners, each chapter takes a theoretical aspect of Sri Aurobindo's philosophy, positions it alongside policy debates on the individual and the state, and explains its practical and educational benefits. Contributors discuss his vision of unity in diversity, shed light on his poetry, and offer a comprehensive view of his concept of ethics as well as his metaphysics of consciousness. They examine his contribution to the Indian response to post-Enlightenment modernity and reveal how his philosophy illuminates some of the fundamental problems of our times, offering possible solutions. By presenting the first sustained discourse between Sri Aurobindo and the contemporary world, this collection addresses the relevance of his philosophy for everyday life and highlights the lasting work of this important 20th-century Indian thinker.

The Integral Philosophy of Aurobindo Brainerd Prince, 2017-01-20. Sri Aurobindo was an Indian nationalist philosopher, yogi, guru, and poet. This book is an enquiry into the integral philosophy of Aurobindo and its contemporary relevance. It offers a reading of Aurobindo's key texts by bringing them into conversation with religious studies and the hermeneutical traditions. The central argument is that Aurobindo's integral philosophy is best understood as a hermeneutical philosophy of religion. Such an understanding of Aurobindo's philosophy offering both substantive and methodological insights for the academic study of religion subdivides into three interrelated aims. The first is to demonstrate that the power of the Aurobindonian vision lies in its self-conception as a traditional hermeneutical enquiry into religion; the second to draw substantive insights from Aurobindo's enquiry to envision a way beyond the impasse within the current religious/secular debate in the academic study of religion; working out of the condition of secularism, the dominant secularists demand the abandonment of the category religion and the dismantling of the academic discipline of religious studies. Aurobindo's integral work on religion arising out of the Vedic tradition critiques the condition of secularity that undergirds

the religious secular debate Finally informed by the hermeneutical tradition and building on the methodological insights from Aurobindo's integral method the book explores a hermeneutical approach for the study of religion which is dialogical in nature This book will be of interest to academics studying Religious Studies Philosophy of Religion Continental Hermeneutics Modern India Modern Hinduism as well as South Asian Studies
