Kasztner's Train Anna Porter,2009-05-26 The heroic story of the Hungarian Oscar Schindler who saved thousands of Hungarian Jews from certain death at the hands of the Nazis only to be accused of collaboration and assassinated in Israel twelve years after WWII ended Oscar Schindler's and Raoul Wallenberg's efforts to save people from Nazi extinction are legendary Rezso Kasztner by contrast is practically unknown even though he may have been the greatest rescuer of Jews during World War II He was also the most controversial and that along with the relative lack of focus on events in Hungary toward the end of the war has no doubt led to his anonymity Now with the publication of Anna Porter's remarkable chronicle Kasztner's achievements are in full view Based on interviews with those who were on the train and with family members of those denied a place on it as well as documents and correspondence not previously published Anna Porter tells the dramatic full story of one of the heroes of the twentieth century

The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg,Buckley Barry Barrett,1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance

The Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop,Michael Dickerman,2017-09-15 This four volume set provides reference entries primary documents and personal accounts from individuals who lived through the Holocaust that allow readers to better understand the cultural political and economic motivations that spurred the Final Solution The Holocaust that occurred during World War II remains one of the deadliest genocides in human history with an estimated two thirds of the 9 million Jews in Europe at the time being killed as a result of the policies of Adolf Hitler and Nazi Germany The Holocaust An Encyclopedia and Document Collection provides students with an all encompassing resource for learning about this tragic event a four book collection that provides detailed information as well as multidisciplinary perspectives that will serve as a gateway to meaningful discussion and further research The first two volumes present reference entries on significant individuals of the Holocaust both victims and perpetrators anti Semitic ideology and annihilationist policies advocated by the Nazi regime giving readers insight into the social political cultural military and economic aspects of the Holocaust while enabling them to better understand the Final Solution in Europe during World War II and its lasting legacy. The third volume of the set presents memoirs and personal narratives that describe in their own words the experiences of survivors and resisters who lived through the chaos and horror of the Final Solution. The last volume consists of primary documents including government decrees and military orders, propaganda in the form of newspapers and pamphlets, war crime trial transcripts and other items that provide a direct look at the causes and consequences of the Holocaust under the Nazi regime. By examining these primary sources, users can have a deeper understanding of the ideas and policies used by perpetrators to justify their actions in the annihilation of the Jews of Europe. The set not only provides an invaluable and comprehensive research tool on the Holocaust but also offers historical perspective and examination of the origins of the discontent and cultural resentment that resulted in the Holocaust, subject matter that remains highly relevant to key problems facing human society in the 21st century and beyond. Bastions and Barbed Wire Tony Pollard, Iain

Banks, 2009-04-15 Various papers on the archaeology of conflict including battlefield archaeology. The main focus of the volume is confinement as expressed by a wide variety of contexts. Most obviously these include Nazi concentration camps which are in need of credible archaeological attention; the editorial points out the dangers of the misappropriation of archaeological and scientific techniques by Holocaust deniers. Other forms of confinement are examined in papers focussing on the archaeology of island defences and siege sites with the sieges of Leith from 1650 and of Fort William from 1646 both recently being subject to archaeological investigation. Other contributions include a study of shell holes and field defences from the battle of the Bulge 1944. I Escaped from Auschwitz Rudolf Vrba, 2020-04-21 The Stunning and Emotional Autobiography of an Auschwitz Survivor April 7 1944 This date marks the successful escape of two Slovak prisoners from one of the most heavily guarded and notorious concentration camps of Nazi Germany. The escapees Rudolf Vrba and Alfred Wetzler fled over one hundred miles to be the first to give the graphic and detailed descriptions of the atrocities of Auschwitz. Originally published in the early 1960s I Escaped from Auschwitz is the striking autobiography of none other than Rudolf Vrba himself. Vrba details his life leading up to, during and after his escape from his 21 month internment in Auschwitz. Vrba and Wetzler manage to evade Nazi authorities looking for them and make contact with the Jewish council in Zilina, Slovakia, informing them about the truth of the unknown destination of Jewish deportees all across Europe. This first hand report alerted Western authorities such as Pope Pius XII, Winston Churchill and Franklin D. Roosevelt to the reality of Nazi annihilation camps, information that until then had only been recognized as nasty rumors. I Escaped from Auschwitz is a close up look at the horror faced by the Jewish people in Auschwitz and across Europe during World War II. This newly edited translation of Vrba's memoir will leave readers reeling at the terrors faced by those during the Holocaust. Despite the profound emotions brought about by this narrative, readers will also find an astounding story of heroism and courage in the face of seemingly hopeless circumstances. Resisting the Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop, 2016-06-06 This book enables readers to learn about upstanders partisans and survivors from first hand perspectives that reveal the many forms of resistance some bold and defiant some subtle to the Nazis during the Holocaust What did those who resisted the Nazis during the 1930s through 1945 known now as the Righteous do when confronted with the Holocaust How did those who resorted to physical acts of resistance to fight the Nazis in the ghettos the concentration camps and the forests summon the courage to form underground groups and organize their efforts This book presents a comprehensive examination of more than 150 remarkable people who said no to the Nazis when confronted by the Holocaust of the Jews They range from people who undertook armed resistance to individuals who risked and sometimes lost their lives in trying to rescue Jews or spirit them away to safety In many cases the very act of survival in the face of extreme circumstances was a form of resistance This important book explores the many facets of resistance to the Holocaust that took place less than 100 years ago providing valuable insights to any reader seeking evidence of how individuals can remain committed to the maintenance of humanitarian traditions in the darkest of times

The Auschwitz Protocols Fred R. Bleakley, 2022-04-05 The clock was ticking on the Nazi plan to annihilate the last group of the Hungarian Jewry But after nearly suffocating in an underground bunker Auschwitz prisoners Ceslav Mordowicz and Arnost Rosin escaped and told Jewish leaders what they had seen Their testimony in early June 1944 corroborated earlier hard to believe reports of mass killing in Auschwitz by lethal gas and provided eyewitness accounts of record daily arrivals of Hungarian Jews meeting the same fate It was the spark needed to stir a call for action to pressure Hungary's premier to defy Hitler just hours before more than 200 000 Budapest Jews were to be deported

The Man Who Stopped the Trains to Auschwitz David Kranzler, 2000-10-01 George Mantello First Secretary of the El Salvador Consulate in Geneva from 1942 to 1945 defied strict censorship to launch a press campaign against the daily deportation of 12 000 Hungarian Jews to Auschwitz This is the true story of one man's efforts to bring horrific news of the Nazi genocide to the Swiss public and to the rest of the world Armed with this information prominent Swiss church leaders and theologians condemned the unfolding Holocaust from their pulpits spurring large public demonstrations In 400 articles appearing in 120 newspapers Mantello reached opinion makers throughout the world community International pressure halted the Hungarian deportations and Mantello distributed thousands of Salvadoran citizenship papers to Jews in Nazi occupied territories In addition to Mantello's role Kranzler shows how Swiss theologians such as Karl Barth and Paul Vogt mobilized thousands of Christians against the Germans and against the indifference of the Swiss government and the International Red Cross This fresh look at the intersection of politics and religion also allows for a new assessment of Swiss complicity in the crimes of the Nazi Third Reich

Writing and Rewriting the Reich Deborah Barton, 2022-12-21 Writing and Rewriting the Reich tells the complex story of women journalists as both outsiders and insiders in the German press of the National Socialist and post war years From 1933 onward Nazi press authorities valued female journalists as a means to influence the public through charm and subtlety rather than intimidation or militant language Deborah Barton reveals that despite the deep sexism inherent in the Nazi press some women were able to capitalize on the gaps between gender rhetoric and reality to establish prominent careers in both soft and hard news Based on data collected on over 1 500 women journalists Writing and Rewriting the Reich describes the professional opportunities open to women during the Nazi era their gendered contribution to Nazi press and propaganda goals and the ways in which their Third Reich experiences proved useful in post war divided Germany It draws on a range of sources including editorial proceedings press association membership records personal correspondence newspapers diaries and memoirs It also sheds light on both unknown journalists and famous figures including Margret Boveri Ruth Andreas Friedrich and Ursula von Kardorff Addressing the long term influence of women journalists Writing and Rewriting the Reich illuminates some of the most salient issues in the nature of Nazi propaganda the depiction of wartime violence and historical memory

New Microhistorical Approaches to an Integrated History of the Holocaust Frédéric Bonnesoeur, Hannah Wilson, Christin Zühlke, 2023-11-06 In 1997 Saul Friedlander emphasized the need for an integrated history of the Holocaust His suggestion to connect the policies of the perpetrators the attitudes of surrounding society and the world of the victims provides the inspiration for this volume Following in these footsteps this innovative study approaches Holocaust history through a combination of macro analysis with micro studies Featuring a range of contemporary research from emerging scholars in the field this peer reviewed volume provides detailed engagement with a variety of historical sources such as documents artifacts photos or text passages The contributors investigate particular aspects of sound materiality space and social perceptions to provide a deeper
