negotiations of authority which are fundamental to shaping the character of the state While donors and aid agency officials anticipated clashes between the Government of Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement SPLM following the CPA they did not foresee internal divisions that impeded reconstruction in Southern Sudan raising serious questions about the viability of an independent state In Juba local elites interpreted the CPA in line with their economic and political interests using claims to land authority and political power to challenge the SPLM's agenda for urban reconstruction In revealing how local actors strategically interpreted the framework of land rights in Southern Sudan the book offers a basis for understanding the challenges that confront the nascent South Sudan's state builders and their international partners in the future
