Escape From Church:

Escape from Church, Inc. E. Glenn Wagner, 2011-05-03 A call for pastors to return to their biblical calling as shepherds. Escape from Church Inc calls pastor leaders away from the business executive model of doing church and back to the model of a caring shepherd who tends his sheep. Wagner offers a practical and biblically sound view of how pastors can become all God intended them to be and guides them into new vision, new values and a new way of pastoring that begins not with doing but with seeing and being.

Escape from church, inc. : the return of the pastor-shepherd E. Glenn ; Halliday Wagner (Steve), 1999. A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action Jonathan L. Best, 2019-02-26. A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action is a unique work that seeks to explore where we find meaning within ritual and actions within the church. Bridging hermeneutics, philosophy and postmodern thought, this work seeks to explore how to do theology with the community through conversation. Beginning with the mindset that meaning is already present within ritual action rather than outside it, Best engages the practice of foot washing among the Original Free Will Baptist denomination of eastern North Carolina. Foot washing suggests a new future for theology, a future that models love, service and acceptance. Incorporating insights gained from conversing with philosophy, theology and the Original Free Will Baptists, foot washing points toward a future relational practical theology. A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action is a captivating work that draws from both philosophers and theologians to show that we can learn much by listening to the voices of religious practitioners.

De pace regis et regni, etc Ferdinando PULTON, 1623. The Public Church Martin E. Marty, 2012-09-01. This is the first book to discern and spell out the fascinating coalescence of churches in America today. Drawing on mainline Protestantism, the newer evangelicalism and Roman Catholicism, this new community or community of communities may be called a public church because it is particularly sensitive to the public order and to the interplay of its members as citizens and church people. In a world of increasing interreligious tensions and in an America growing weary of pluralism and freedom, the public church both fills a void and counters trends at home and abroad. Grounded in an historical understanding of the Christian churches in America, The Public Church draws on biblical, theological and political motifs to offer a model for self-understanding and mission in the years ahead. It discusses the nature of the public church, its relation to the individual traditions from which it springs, its continuing reliance on the local congregation, its relation to the New Christian Right and the political balance between left and right that must be maintained if the public church is to grow even.

Sanctuary Practices in International Perspectives Randy K. Lippert, Sean Rehaag, 2013 Sanctuary Practices in International Perspectives examines the diverse complex and mutating practice of providing sanctuary to asylum seekers The ancient tradition of church sanctuary underwent a revival in the late 1970s Immigrants living without legal status and their supporters first in the United Kingdom and then in the US Canada and elsewhere in Europe have resorted to sanctuary practices to avoid and resist arrest and deportation by state authorities Sanctuary appeared amidst a dramatic rise in asylum seekers arriving in Western countries and a simultaneous escalation in national and international efforts to discourage and control their arrival and presence through myriad means including deportation This collection of papers by prominent US European Canadian and Japanese scholars is the first to place contemporary sanctuary practices in international theoretical and historical perspective Moving beyond isolated case studies of sanctuary activities and movements it reveals sanctuary as a far more complex varied theoretically rich and institutionally adaptable set of practices Communist Persecution of Churches in Red China and Northern Korea United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities, 1959 Five Protestant leaders from Formosa Hong Kong and Southern Korea describe the persecution and horrible atrocities visited on Christians in Communist China and Northern Korea by the Communist governments Their testimony reveals that these governments are engaged in an intense campaign to wipe out all vestiges of Christianity in areas under their control
