La fin du paganisme: La poésie latine chrétienne. La société païenne à la fin du IVe siècle. Les dernières luttes Gaston Boissier, 1903      La fin du paganisme: La poésie latine chrétienne. La société païenne à la fin du IVe siècle. Les dernières luttes Gaston Boissier, 1909      The French Critical Reception of African-American Literature, 1995-10-24 The first real reviewing of African American literature in France began in 1844 when audiences welcomed the romantic dramas of Victor Séjour With the passing of time African American works have become increasingly known in France where they are now translated almost as soon as they come out in the United States This bibliography charts the French critical response to African American literature from the 19th century to 1970 The bulk of the items selected were published between 1900 and 1970 and all were printed in French The selection has been limited to responses to the works of creative writers along with some important and influential autobiographical writings Entries are arranged in chronological sections and then alphabetically within each section Annotations summarize the critical views expressed in the work cited As a whole the bibliography is a valuable guide to changing French critical attitudes toward African American literature and is an index to the growing popularity of African American literature in France      La fin du paganisme: La poésie latine chrétienne. La société païenne à la fin du IVe siècle. Les dernières luttes Gaston Boissier, 1891      The Black Columbiad Werner Sollors, Maria Diedrich, 1994 After a long and painful transatlantic passage African captives reached a continent they hadn t even known existed where they were treated in ways that broke every law of civilization as they understood it This was the discovery of America for a good number of our ancestors one quite different from the paradise Columbus heralded but no less instrumental in shaping the country s history What finding the New World meant to those who never sought it and how they made the hostile unfamiliar continent their own is the subject of this volume the first truly international collection of essays on African American literature and culture Distinguished scholars critics and writers from around the world gather here to examine a great variety of moments that have defined the African American experience What were the values images and vocabulary that accompanied African explorers on their terrifying Columbiad and what new forms did they develop to re invent America from a black perspective How did an extremely heterogeneous group of African pioneers remake themselves as African Americans The authors search out answers in such diverse areas as slavery the transatlantic tradition urbanization rape and lynching gender Paris periodicals festive moments a Berlin ethnologist Afrocentrism Mark Twain Spain Casablanca orality the 1960s Black Jewish relations television images comedy and magic William Wells Brown Frank Webb W E B Du Bois Alain Locke Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Etheridge Knight Ishmael Reed Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor and Charles Johnson are among the many writers they discuss in detail The result a landmark text in African American studies reveals within a broader context than ever before the great and often unpredictable variety of complex cultural forces that have been at work in black America
