El mundo hispanohablante contemporáneo Clara Mojica-Díaz, Lourdes Sánchez-López, 2015-10-05 El mundo hispanohablante contemporáneo historia política sociedades y culturas is a comprehensive and innovative book for advanced students of Spanish Offering a constructivist approach to the study of the civilizations cultures and histories of the contemporary Spanish speaking world the book focuses on learning as an active process that enables learners to develop high level critical thinking skills through the exposure research examination and discussion of a variety of authentic films songs and literary texts Divided into twelve chapters each chapter begins with an introduction to the general topic followed by various activities that lead students to critically analyse a range of authentic materials. Learners are able to practice higher level critical thinking and linguistic skills through a wealth of tasks and exercises which culminate in a capstone section that requires the application of the concepts learned and sources utilized throughout the lesson. El mundo hispanohablante contemporáneo: historia política, sociedades y culturas offers great flexibility and adaptability to suit advanced courses in Hispanic culture and civilization. Each chapter is methodologically designed with a balanced mix of activities for individual and teamwork. Additional resources are available online for both instructors and students. These include an instructor's guide with answer key, a grammar supplement and links to the authentic materials referenced within the book.

Emigrant Dreams, Immigrant Borders Raquel Vega-Durán, 2016-09-30

Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders: Migrants Transnational Encounters and Identity in Spain offers a new approach to the cultural history of contemporary Spain, examining the ways in which Spain's own self-conceptions are changing and multiplying in response to migrants from Latin America and Africa. In the last twenty-five years, Spain has gone from being a country of net emigration to one in which immigrants make up nearly 12 percent of the population. This rapid growth has made migrants increasingly visible in both mass media and in Spanish visual and literary culture. This book examines the origins of media discourses on immigration and takes the analysis of contemporary Spanish culture as its primary framework while also drawing insights from sociology and history. Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders introduces readers to a wide range of recent films, journals, novels, photography, paintings, and music to reconsider contemporary Spain through its varied encounters with migrants. It follows the stages of the migrant's own journey, beginning outside Spanish territory, continuing across the border, either at the barbed wire fences of Ceuta and Melilla or the waters of the Atlantic or the Strait of Gibraltar, and then considers what happens to migrants after they arrive and settle in Spain. Each chapter analyzes one of these stages in order to illustrate the complexity of contemporary Spanish identity. This examination of Spanish culture shows how Spain is evolving into a new space of imagination, one that can no longer be defined without the migrant, a space in which there is no unified identity but rather a new self-understanding is being born. Vega-Durán both places Spain in a larger European context and draws attention to some of the features that from a comparative perspective make the Spanish case interesting and often unique. She argues that Spain cannot be understood today outside the Transatlantic and Mediterranean spaces, both real and imaginary, where Spaniards and migrants meet. Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders offers a timely study of present-day Spain and makes an original contribution to the vibrant debates about multiculturalism and nation formation that are taking place.

Colonialist Gazes and Counternarratives of Blackness Ana León-Távora, Rosalía Cornejo-Parriego, 2024-06-24

Building on the growing field of Afropean Studies, this interdisciplinary and intermedial collection of essays proposes a dialogue on Afro-Spanishness that is not exclusively tied to immigration and that understands Blackness as a non essentialist heterogeneous and diasporic concept Studying a variety of twentieth and twenty first century cultural products some essays explore the resilience of the colonialist paradigms and the circulation of racial ideologies and colonial memories that promote national narratives of whitening Others focus on Black self representation and examine how Afro Spanish authors artists and activists destabilize colonial gazes and constructions of national identity propose decolonial views of Spain and Europe s literature and history articulate Afro Diasporic knowledges and envision Afro descentance as an empowering tool

Jews and Muslims in Contemporary Spain

Martina L. Weisz, 2019-05-20 The book analyzes the place of religious difference in late modernity through a study of the role played by Jews and Muslims in the construction of contemporary Spanish national identity The focus is on the transition from an exclusive homogeneous sense of collective Self toward a more pluralistic open and tolerant one in an European context This process is approached from different dimensions At the national level it follows the changes in nationalist historiography the education system and the public debates on national identity At the international level it tackles the problem from the perspective of Spanish foreign policy towards Israel and the Arab Muslim states in a changing global context From the social communicational point of view the emphasis is on the construction of the Self Other dichotomy with Jewish and Muslim others as reflected in the three leading Spanish newspapers

Revisiting Centres and Peripheries in Iberian Studies

Mark Gant, 2019-08-05 Like its predecessor and companion volume New Journeys in Iberian Studies this volume gathers fresh and emerging research in a range of sub fields of Iberian studies from an international range of established academics and early career researchers The book provides rich evidence of the breadth and depth of new research being carried out in the dynamic field of Iberian studies at present As the title suggests a strong thread running through the collection is concerned with investigating the multiple spaces of tension between the centre and periphery that comprise the Iberian cultural system Topically the current situation in Catalonia naturally comes to the fore in a number of chapters and from a range of perspectives However in the revisiting of a range of cultural products and historical processes undertaken by the contributors it can be seen that transoceanic postcolonial relations are not neglected and concerns with history memory and fiction also weave their way through their work
