discourse in neoliberal Mexico Adapting Gender offers a cogent introduction to Mexico's film industry the history of women's filmmaking in Mexico a new approach to adaptation as a potential feminist strategy and a cultural history of generational changes in Mexico Ilana Dann Luna examines how adapted films have the potential to subvert not only the intentions of the source text but how they can also interrupt the hegemony of gender stereotypes in a broader socio-political context Luna follows the industrial shifts that began with Salinas de Gortari's presidency which made the long 1990s the precise moment in which subversive filmmakers particularly women were able to participate more fully in the industry and portrayed the lived experiences of women and non-gender conforming men The analysis focuses on Busi Cortés's El secreto de Romelia 1988 an adaptation of Rosario Castellanos's short novel El viudo Román 1964 Sabina Berman and Isabelle Tardón's Entre Pancho Villa y una mujer desnuda 1996 an adaptation of Berman's own play Entre Villa y una mujer desnuda 1992 Guita Schyfter's Novia que te vea 1993 an adaptation of Rosa Nissén's eponymous novel 1992 and Jaime Humberto Hermosillo's De noche vienes Esmeralda 1997 an adaptation of Elena Poniatowska's short story De noche vienes 1979 These adapted texts established a significant alternative to monolithic notions of national gendered identity while critiquing updating and even queering notions of feminism in the Mexican context Adapting Gender demonstrates Luna's considerable skills as a scholar She deftly carries out a careful analysis of the literary and cinematic texts putting them in the context of the evolving publishing and film industries Written in a lively and engaging style this is a unique synthesis of the evolution of feminism and the roles women have had indeed at times been limited to in Mexico and what this has meant for their creative output Niamh Thornton author of Revolution and Rebellion in Mexican Film

Contemporary Chicana Literature: (Re)Writing the Maternal Script Cristina Herrera, 2014-03-28 Despite the growing literary scholarship on Chicana writers few if any studies have exhaustively explored themes of motherhood maternity and mother daughter relationships in their novels When discussions of motherhood and mother daughter relationships do occur in literary scholarship they tend to mostly be a backdrop to a larger conversation on themes such as identity space and sexuality for example Mother daughter relationships have been ignored in much literary criticism but this book reveals that maternal relationships are crucial to the study of Chicana literature more precisely examining maternal relationships provides insight to Chicana writers rejection of intersecting power structures that otherwise silence Chicanas and women of color This book advances the field of Chicana literary scholarship through a discussion of Chicana writers efforts to re write the script of maternity outside of existing discourses that situate Chicana mothers as silent and passive and the subsequent mother daughter relationship as a source of tension and angst Chicana writers are actively engaged in the process of re writing motherhood that resists the image of the static disempowered Chicana mother on the other hand these same writers engage in broad representations of Chicana mother daughter relationships that are not merely a source of conflict but also a means in which both mothers and daughters may achieve subjectivity While some of the texts studied do present often conflicted relationships between mothers and their daughters the novels do not comfortably accept this script as the rule rather the writers included in this study are highly invested in re writing Chicana motherhood as a source of empowerment even as their works present strained maternal relationships Chicana writers have challenged the pervasiveness of the problematic virgin whore binary which has been the motif on which Chicana womanhood motherhood has been defined and they resist the construction of maternity on such narrow terms Many of the novels included in this study actively foreground a conscious resistance to the limiting binaries of motherhood symbolized in the virgin whore split The writers critically call for a rethinking of motherhood beyond this scope as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of maternal relationships This book is an important contribution to the fields of Chicana Latina and American literary scholarship Cuban Studies

Criticism Frederick Luis Aldama,2009-09-15 Magical realism has become almost synonymous with Latin American fiction but this way of representing the layered and often contradictory reality of the topsy turvy late capitalist globalizing world finds equally vivid expression in U S multiethnic and British postcolonial literature and film Writers and filmmakers such as Oscar Zeta Acosta Ana Castillo Julie Dash Hanif Kureishi and Salman Rushdie have made brilliant use of magical realism to articulate the trauma of dislocation and the legacies of colonialism that people of color experience in the postcolonial multiethnic world This book seeks to redeem and refine the theory of magical realism in U S multiethnic and British postcolonial literature and film Frederick Aldama engages in theoretically sophisticated readings of Ana Castillo s So Far from God Oscar Zeta Acosta s Autobiography of a Brown Buffalo Salman Rushdie s Midnight s Children Shame The Satanic Verses and The Moor s Last Sigh Julie Dash s Daughters of the Dust and Stephen Frears and Hanif Kureishi s Sammy and Rosie Get Laid Coining the term magicorealism to characterize these works Aldama not only creates a postethnic critical methodology for enlarging the contact zone between the genres of novel film and autobiography but also shatters the interpretive lens that traditionally confuses the transcription of the real world where truth and falsity apply with narrative modes governed by other criteria Deathscapes James D. Sidaway,2016-05-13 Death is at once a universal and everyday but also an extraordinary experience in the lives of those affected Death and bereavement are thereby intensified at and frequently contained within certain sites and regulated spaces such as the hospital the cemetery and the mortuary However death also affects and unfolds in many other spaces the home public spaces and places of worship sites of accident tragedy and violence Such spaces or Deathscapes are intensely private and personal places while often simultaneously being shared collective sites of experience and remembrance each place mediated through the intersections of emotion body belief culture society and the state Bringing together geographers sociologists anthropologists cultural studies academics and historians among others this book focuses on the relationships between space place and death bereavement in western societies Addressing three broad themes the place of death the place of final disposition and spaces of remembrance and representation the chapters reflect a variety of scales ranging from the mapping of bereavement on the individual or in private domestic space through to sites of accident battle burial cremation and remembrance in public space The book also examines social and cultural changes in death and bereavement practices including personalisation and secularisation Other social trends are addressed by chapters on green and garden burial negotiating emotion in public private space remembrance of violence and disaster and virtual space A meshing of material and more than representational approaches consider the nature culture economy and politics of Deathscapes what are in effect some of the most significant places in citizen Latino as This volume also foregrounds the narratives of unauthorized migrants themselves showing how their stories are emerging into the public sphere Immigration and citizenship are multifaceted issues and the voices are myriad They challenge common interpretations of illegal immigration explore inevitable traumas and ethical dilemmas protest their own silencing in immigration debates and even capitalize on the topic for the commercial market Yet these texts all seek to affect political discourse by advancing the possibility of empathy across lines of ethnicity and citizenship status As border enforcement strategies escalate along with political rhetoric detentions and deaths these counternarratives are more significant than ever before and their perspectives cannot be ignored What we are witnessing argues Caminero Santangelo is a mass mobilization of stories This growing body of literature is critical to understanding not only the Latino a immigrant experience but also alternative visions of nation and belonging
