Carol has been estranged from her brother William and her sister Jackie but knows she must confront them when she is accused of stealing family money. Rachel and Will strive to uncover secrets about the family and the family business. Rachel finds that the victim, Carol's brother-in-law Gerald, was involved in schemes that may hold the key to solving the mystery. However, uncovering the truth about the schemes is not easy. Rachel and Will know some people are lying but who and about what. Finding who had a motive to kill Gerald is hidden in a web of lies. When Carol's niece Allison disappears, Rachel and Will suspect it has something to do with the murder. Allison's father, William, doesn't seem concerned, and Rachel wonders why not. The mystery becomes more complex and the stakes are even higher as Allison's life may be in danger. As they search for clues about who killed Gerald, Rachel and Will hear a story about lost treasure belonging to George Rogers Clark that may be hidden on property owned by Carol's family. They rely on Rachel's friend Charley, an expert in local history, to help them discover whether the story about a lost treasure could be true. And a motive for murder. Although Rachel and Will find out more details about Gerald's life, they are no closer to finding out who killed him. Plenty of people had a motive for killing Gerald, but each new lead comes to a dead end. When Rachel and Will are summoned to the police department, they are warned to stop investigating, but Rachel will not stop as long as her friend Carol is under suspicion. As Rachel and Will continue to seek answers, Rachel is faced with a new danger. A cunning killer had been hiding in plain sight all along. In a dramatic confrontation, Rachel's life is on the line. Her beloved Greyhound Abby may be Rachel's last hope of escaping from the killer.

From the COVID lab leak theory to Hunter Biden's laptop to Jeffrey Epstein, media critic and former CNN producer Steve Krakauer spotlights the problems of a news industry filled with geographically isolated, introspection-free egomaniacal journalists. In Uncovered, America's sharpest media critic, former CNN insider Steve Krakauer reveals exactly what went wrong and why the media went off the rails. The fourth estate is supposed to be a conduit to the people and a check on power. But instead, we have geographically isolated, introspection-free cozy with power egomaniacal journalists thirsty for elite approval. Krakauer dives deep into some of the most egregious examples of the elite censorship collusion racket, like how tech suppression and media fear led to the New York Post Hunter Biden email debacle before the 2020 election. Krakauer takes readers inside CNN after the shock Trump election, inside the New York Times after the Tom Cotton op-ed backlash, inside ESPN after the shift away from sports-only coverage, and more. No one understands these problems and people better than Krakauer. He has spent years getting to know the most influential players in the industry, and this fascinating book is what he's learned. But most importantly, Krakauer equips readers with the crucial tools to sniff out when the press is lying or misleading the people of America in the future, so together we can bypass them altogether. Steve Krakauer's new book Uncovered is vital reading. It's the best and most perceptive deep dive into legacy media bias out there from someone who knows where all the bodies are buried. Ben Shapiro. One of the most insightful critiques that has been published on this topic in years. Glenn Greenwald
