Essayistic Spirit Literature Modern Criticism And The Essay:

The Essayistic Spirit, 1995 Textual Practice Alan Sinfield, Lindsay Smith, 1998-04-09 The split between national and popular interests is examined through an analysis of Branagh's multicultural Much Ado a Shakespeare film for the world and analysis of other popular works including Cocteau's Woolf and Neil Jordan's Charles Lamb, Elia and the London Magazine Simon P Hull, 2015-10-06 The inherent metropolitanism of writing for a Romantic era periodical is here explored through the Elia articles that Charles Lamb wrote for the London Magazine Montaigne and the Art of Free-thinking Richard Scholar, 2010 We know a great deal of what Michel de Montaigne 1533-92 Shakespeare's near contemporary and fellow literary mastermind thinks We know because he tells us on page after page of his Essais which have marked literature and thought since the European Renaissance and remain to this day compelling reading It might seem surprising with this wealth of evidence at hand that Montaigne could prove so elusive in his thinking Yet elusive he proves as volatile as he is voluble What we are left wondering does all that thinking amount to How is it to be understood And what value might it have for us Montaigne has too often seen his thinking reduced to the expression of an ism Richard Scholar investigates the nature and detail of Montaigne's evolving attempts to seek out that elusive thing called truth Examining at close quarters passages from across the Essais Scholar provides twenty-first century readers with a companion guide to a text that is rooted in the time and place of its composition and yet continues to speak to the present to haunt its readers to ask them the questions that matter Essay Cinema in the Digital Era James Slaymaker, 2024-11-28 This book explores the impact of digital technology on the essay film in the early 21st century arguing that the cinematic essay has been associated with technological evolution throughout its history The author considers the output of four towering figures in essay filmmaking Harun Farocki Chris Marker Chantal Akerman and Jean Luc Godard and explores the ways in which these directors utilise aesthetic strategies editing techniques and modes of spectatorial address that are rooted in the capabilities of digital technologies Slaymaker conceptualises the cinematic essay as a self-reflexive mode of nonfiction cinema one that foregrounds the filmmaking apparatus and the act of its own making and which thereby launches an inquiry into the ontological nature of the cinematic image the tools which construct it and the wider artistic landscape in which it is embedded The Testimony of Sense Tim Milnes, 2019 This book offers a new account of the relationship between empiricism and the essay in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Exploring topics such as trust testimony virtue and language it offers new perspectives on connections between philosophy and literature empiricism and transcendentalism and Enlightenment and Romanticism The ^AEssay Film Timothy Corrigan, 2011-08-01 The definitive study of a seminal genre of nonfiction cinema The Essay Film examines the form's origins literary precursors and works by its greatest practitioners like Chris Marker Agnès Varda Errol Morris Chantal Akerman Werner Herzog and others The Essay At the Limits Mario Aquilina, 2021-04-08 In the hands of such writers as Rebecca Solnit Claudia Rankine David Shields Zadie Smith and many others the essay has re emerged as a powerful literary form for tackling a fractious 21st century culture The Essay at the Limits brings together leading scholars to explore the theory the poetics and the future of the form The book links the formal innovations and new voices that have emerged in the 21st century essay to the history and theory of the essay In so doing it surveys the essay from its origins to its relation to contemporary cultural forms from the novel to poetry film to music and from political articles to intimate lyrical expressions The book examines work by writers such as Theodor W Adorno Kwame Anthony Appiah Francis Bacon James Baldwin Roland Barthes Maurice Blanchot Ta Nehisi Coates Annie Dillard Brian Dillon Jean Genet William Hazlitt Samuel Johnson Karl Ove Knausgaard Ben Lerner Audre Lorde Oscar Wilde Michel de Montaigne Zadie Smith Rebecca Solnit Wallace Stevens Eliot Weinberger and Virginia Woolf

Transatlantic Literature and Transitivity, 1780-1850 Annika Bautz, Kathryn Gray, 2017-04-28 This book makes an important contribution to transatlantic literary studies and an emerging body of work on identity formation and print culture in the Atlantic world The collection identifies the ways in which historically situated but malleable subjectivities engage with popular and pressing debates about class slavery natural knowledge democracy and religion In addition the book also considers the ways in which material texts and genres including for example the essay the guidebook the travel narrative the periodical the novel and the poem can be scrutinized in relation to historically situated transatlantic transitions transformations and border crossings The volume is underpinned by a thorough examination of historical and conceptual frameworks and prioritizes notions of circulation and exchange as opposed to transfer and continuance in its analysis of authors texts and ideas The collection is concerned with the movement of people texts and ideas in the currents of transatlantic markets and politics taking a fresh look at a range of canonical and popular writers of the period including Austen Poe Crèvecoeur Brockden Brown Sedgwick Hemans Bulwer Lytton Dickens and Melville In different ways the essays gathered together here are concerned with the potentially empowering realities of the transitive circulatory and contingent experiences of transatlantic literary and cultural production as they are manifest in the long nineteenth century

Essays on the Essay Film Nora M. Alter, Timothy Corrigan, 2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and Andr Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien

Virginia Woolf and the Politics of Language Judith Allen, 2012-09-25 Through close readings of Woolf's essays including Montaigne A Room of One's Own Craftsmanship Three Guineas and Thoughts on Peace in an Air Raid Allen shows how Woolf's politics expressed and enacted by her writings are relevant to our curr On Essays Thomas Karshan, Kathryn Murphy, 2020-09-04 Montaigne called it a ramble Chesterton the joke of literature and Hume an ambassador between the worlds of learning and of conversation But what is an essay and how did it emerge as a literary form What are the continuities and contradictions across its history from Montaigne's 1580 Essais through the familiar intimacies of the Romantic essay and up to more recent essayists such as Virginia Woolf James Baldwin and Claudia Rankine Sometimes called the fourth genre the essay has been over shadowed in literary history by fiction poetry and drama and has proved notoriously resistant to definition On Essays reveals in the essay a pattern of paradox at once a pedagogical tool and a refusal of the methodical languages of universities and professions politically engaged but retired and independent erudite and anti pedantic occasional and enduring intimate and oratorical allusive and idiosyncratic Perhaps because it is a form of writing against which literary scholarship has defined itself there has been surprisingly little work on the tradition of the essay Neither a comprehensive history nor a student companion On Essays is a series of seventeen elegantly written essays on authors and aspects in the history of the genre essays which taken together form the most substantial book yet published on the essay in Britain and America Romanticism and Modernity Thomas Pfau, Robert Mitchell, 2014-07-16 Though traditionally defined as a relatively brief time period typically the half century of 1780 1830 the Romantic era constitutes a crucial indeed unique transitional phase in what has come to be called modernity for it was during these fifty years that myriad disciplinary aesthetic economic and political changes long in the making accelerated dramatically Due in part to the increased velocity of change though most of modernity's essential master tropes such as secularization instrumental reason individual rights economic self interest emancipation system institution nation empire utopia and life were also subjected to incisive critical and methodological reflection and revaluation The chapters in this collection argue that Romanticism's marked ambivalence and resistance to decisive conceptualization arises precisely from the fact that Romantic authors simultaneously extended the project of European modernity while offering Romantic concepts as means for a sustained critical reflection on that very process Focusing especially on the topics of form both literary and organic secularization and its political correlates utopia and apocalypse and the question of how one narrates the arrival of modernity this collection collectively emphasizes the importance of understanding modernity through the lens of Romanticism rather than simply understanding Romanticism as part of modernity This book was previously published as a special issue of European Romantic Review 2024 Günter Berghaus, 2024-12-02 The first part of Volume 14 of the Yearbook presents ten essays concerned with Futurism in Italy Russia Ukraine Czechoslovakia Romania and Germany and two focusing on dance and typography Among other things this publication provides analysis of the futurist manifestos from late 1910 and 1911 and Velimir Khlebnikov's futurist essays as well as the networks of Futurism in Odessa In the second part a section on Caricatures and Satires of Futurism in the Contemporary Press examines five humorous images from five countries in which the movement and its leader were lampooned This section is followed by nine reviews of recent exhibitions conferences and publications and an annual bibliography with details of 128 new books on Futurism Futurism from international comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives Transcultural view of international avant gardes The Cambridge Companion to The Essay Kara Wittman,Evan Kindley,2022-11-03 The Cambridge Companion to the Essay considers the history theory and aesthetics of the essay from the moment it's named in the late sixteenth century to the present What is an essay What can the essay do or think or reveal or know that other literary forms cannot What makes a piece of writing essayistic How can essays bring about change Over the course of seventeen chapters by a diverse group of scholars The Companion reads the essay in relation to poetry fiction natural science philosophy critical theory postcolonial and decolonial thinking studies in race and gender queer theory and the history of literary criticism This book studies the essay in its written photographic cinematic and digital forms with a special emphasis on how the essay is being reshaped and reimaged in the twenty first century making it a crucial resource for scholars students and essayists Adaptation and Beyond Eva C. Karpinski,Ewa

Kębłowska-Ławniczak,2023-09-29 This interdisciplinary collection focuses on recent adaptations both experimental and popular that put hybridity transtextuality and transmediality at play It reframes adaptation in terms of the transmedia concept of world building which accurately captures the complexity and multidirectionality of contemporary scattered and ubiquitous practices of adaptation The editors argue that the process of moving stories or their elements across different media platforms and repurposing them for new uses results in the production of hybrid transtextualities The book demonstrates how hybrid textualities augment narrative and literary forms as goals of their world building finding unexpected sites of cross pollination expansion and appropriation in spoken word and dance performance auto biographical comics advertising Chinese Kun opera and popular song lyrics This yoking of hybridity and transmediality yields not only diversified and often commercialized aesthetic forms but also enables the emergence a unique cultural space in between a mezzaterra capable of addressing current political issues and mobilizing broader audiences Encyclopedia of Life Writing
