GIFTS Gifts of one who loved me Twas high time they came When he ceased to love me Time they stopped for shame 1 It is said that the world is in a state of bankruptcy that the world owes the world more than the world can pay and ought to go into chancery 0 and be sold I do not think this general insolvency which involves in some sort all the population to be the reason of the difficulty experienced 5 at Christmas and New Year and other times in bestowing gifts since it is always so pleasant to be generous though very vexatious to pay debts But the impediment lies in the choosing If at any time it comes into my head that a present is due from me to somebody I am puzzled what 10 to give until the opportunity is gone Flowers and fruits are always fit presents flowers because they are a proud assertion that a ray of beauty outvalues all the utilities of the world These gay natures contrast with the somewhat stern countenance of ordinary nature they are like music 15 heard out of a work house Nature does not cocker us we are children not pets she is not fond everything is dealt to us without fear or favor after severe universal laws Yet these delicate flowers look like the frolic and interference of love and beauty Men use to tU us that 20 i we love flattery even though we are not deceived by it because it shows that we are of importance enough to be courted Something like that pleasure the flowers give us what am I to whom these sweet hints are addressed 6 Fruits are acceptable gifts because they are the flower of commodities and admit of fantastic values being attached to them If a man should send to me to come a hundred miles to visit him and should set before me a basket of fine Collectanea Sir Perceval Maitland Laurence,1899 Essays and Addresses in War Time Viscount James Bryce Bryce,2018-02-14 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Selected Addresses and Essays Richard B.
