Milton as Multilingual: Selected Essays, 1982-2004 John K. Hale,2007-01-01 First published by Otago University Press in 2005 The book brings together seventeen essays by John Hale on topics ranging from Milton s verse paraphrase of Psalm 114 in 1624 at the age of 15 to his rearrangement of Paradise Lost along arguably Virgilian lines in 1674 the year of his death Fourteen of the essays were published previously from 1982 2003 in geographically scattered journals some of them not readily accessible Three new essays on the theological treatise De Doctrina Christiana are included and together with an essay of 2003 they apply the subject of multilingualism to that work The essays are grouped into five sections Composing Language Arts Self Understanding Paradise Lost and its Early Reception and De Doctrina Christiana and Language Issues Brief preambles or headings are added to each section and an Afterword follows each chapter This five part structure and the new preambles and Afterwords invest the volume with a rationale shaping it into a book in its own right
