A person's identity is shaped by many different aspects. Family, culture, friends, personal interests and surrounding environments are all factors that tend to help shape a person's identity. Some factors may have more of an influence than others and some may not have any influence at all. As a person grows up in a family, they are influenced by many aspects of their life. Family and culture may influence a person's sense of responsibilities, ethics and morals, tastes in music, humor and sports, and many other aspects of life. Friends and surrounding environments may influence a person's taste in clothing, music, speech, and social activities. Personal interests are what truly set individuals apart. An individual is not a puppet...shows more content...

Society has had a limited impact on my lifestyle, mostly because I despise trends. The largest trends I despise are rap and hip-hop and the clothing, attitudes, and type of speech that that type of 'music' is breeding. I chose to steer away from that crowd, but it may also be because I live my life off of adrenaline. My high on life is the energy I have when I get my blood pumping, my heart pounding, and my adrenaline raging. Most aspects of my individuality reflect that very well. I love hard, aggressive music, and also guns, but my passion in life is extreme sports, whether it be on a dirt bike, a bmx bike, a snowmobile, or a snowboard. I have a strong set of morals and ethics that I have partly adopted from my parents, but some are also partly my own. My morals mostly consist of karma (being kind, caring, helpful, truthful, and considerate to others), not littering (especially in nature), respecting nature, keeping a clean and welcoming home, success that is measured with happiness and not possessions, and having strong family ties. I feel that I am very strongly rounded individual who is going to go far in life. Many people would agree with that, although some people just think that I am an absolutely crazy person who has a death wish and will not go anywhere but to the hospital or the morgue. Educational experiences also tend to influence a person's identity. I have not had too many educational

Essays On The Modern Identity:

Essays on the Modern Identity William Dean Brewer, Carole J. Lambert, 2000 Essays on the Modern Identity selectively represents the developing understanding of the modern self from the time of Jean Jacques Rousseau 1712 1778 to the present This volume contextualizes the late twentieth century crisis of the self by exploring the relationships between modern and postmodern conceptions of the human identity Featuring exemplary analyses of selected texts paintings and prints this collection of essays is offered as a contribution to the ongoing necessarily interdisciplinary discussion of the place of modern identity in a postmodern world Tadeusz Różewicz and Modern Identity in Poland since the Second World War Wojciech Browarny, 2019-04-10 As Andrzej Mencwel observed as a result of fundamental historical changes the need arises for restructuring of the whole present memory and tradition system Rodzinna Europa po raz pierwszy Changes of such significance took place in Poland during the Second World War and several following decades Collective experience of that time was made up of apart from political antagonisms social and cultural phenomena such as change of elites reinterpretation of their grand narratives or symbolic world the ultimate inclusion of the masses into the national project based on the post gentry tradition and national history the intensive development of urban lifestyle and the expansion of popular culture industrialization and the process of forming a single nationality state that diverted from the politics of domination over eastern neighbors and instead focused on developing the so called Polish Western and Northern Lands Tadeusz R ewicz s work referred to these experiences on both the intellectual and biographical level Comparing Juliusz Mieroszewski s political journalism with Tadeusz R ewicz s works Andrzej Mencwel stressed its unique relationship of the author of Niepokoj According to him both writers were writing as though they had truly experienced the end of the world Przedwio nie czy potop Studium postaw polskich w XX wieku In the afterword to the German anthology of R ewicz s works Karl Dedecius mentioned Stunde Null hour zero as the founding experience of his writing It was this experience that induced him to undertake the challenge of attempting a new collective and national as well as individual self identification searching for a radically new way of thinking and writing about man and verifying the essential components of his identity Andrzej Walicki called this urge the catastrophism after a catastrophe explaining that once the catastrophe took place a catastrophist acknowledging its inevitability must think about a new beginning about determining his own place in a new world Zniwolony umys po latach Hanna Gosk specifies that it gave rise to situations when the necessity of discovering one s place in new geographical social axiological and world view related environment urged self identification Bohater swoich czas w Posta literacka w powojennej prozie polskiej o tematyce wsp czesnej It must be stressed that the need for re establishing the sense of identity resulting from a major crisis was by no means limited to the postwar artistic and political elites On the contrary due to social changes and democratization of the access to national culture it concerned more than ever in the past the everyman who did not belong to one class solely the intelligentsia bourgeoisie peasantry or proletariat but most often represented multiple social rooting Tadeusz R ewicz alongside with writers such as Tadeusz Borowski Marek H asko or Miron Bia oszewski made the Polish everyman Tadeusz Drewnowski the central figure of his work This study discusses the modern identity of an individual in Poland in two variants a cultured man with traditions and an ordinary transitional temporal or new man By adopting the narrativist approach identity can be described through its articulations in culture for example in literary texts Analyzing methods of modern identification and self awareness throughout this book I try to prove that prose works of the author of mier w starych dekoracjach present an extensive interesting and diverse material in the matter When necessary I refer also to his dramatic works and poetry especially to some longer poems published after 1989 The author s most important prose works have so far been written in the first 30 year period starting from his debut volume of partisan novellas notes and humorous sketches Echa le ne mimeographed in 1944 While focusing on this period I also analyze later works published in collections Nasz starszy brat and Matka odchodzi published in the last decade of the 20th century although written at an earlier date R ewicz s prose works analyzed here were published predominantly in the threevolume edition of Utwory zebrane in 2003 2004 in the reportage collection entitled Kartki z W gier 1953 as well as in the collection of newspapers features letters and notes written in the 60s and 70s in most cases entitled Marginesy 2010 I also make use of the earlier editions of his works containing prose works not included in Utwory zebrane for example from the volume Opad y li cie z drzew as well as of some narratives published in journals and anthologies Conversations with the writer published in Wbrew sobie Rozmowy z Tadeuszem R ewiczem 2011 and his letters to Jerzy and Zofia Nowosielscy included in Korespondencja comprise an auxiliary material What specifically draws my attention in Tadeusz R ewicz s prose I read his works in the context of identity narratives manifest in culture and historical biographical stories The questions then arise about their formative influence on an individual what within them presents a reference for the self seeking identification When and how does individual experience take on an intersubjective meaning Under what circumstances is it expressed in the public sphere Have new identification patterns emerged in the Polish modernity and if so then what fields and phenomena of the 20th century culture or history have taken on such model significance How and where were boundaries drawn between what is individual in an identity of a person speaking and thinking in Polish on the one hand and on the other what is collective What has been considered native in this identity and what alien for exam ple Western bourgeois communist German Jewish non normative in terms of religion or sexuality and in what way has cultural otherness been constructed at that time Trying to answer these questions I refer to categories of cultural anthropology such as symbolic universe collective memory autobiographical identity body and space in culture as well as to notions from the social sciences interpersonal relationship public discourse and communicative community To put it simply using these categories I try to describe the most important narrative forms and topics of R ewicz s prose that allow the writer to address and express in a liter ary form identity problems faced by an individual and the community I also attempt to analyze the very proces

through which R ewicz devel ops his own unique identity narratives as well as the evolution of narra tive conventions of his literary work Reading R ewicz s works in this manner and organizing chapters of this book from the ones presenting public identity displayed publicly and codified in ideology or aesthetic to the ones presenting private identity I put an especial emphasis on some issues related to cultural studies and social communication Ac cording to the reconstruction model I assume that even private experi ences shape one s identity through culture and language In R ewicz s narratives I describe and compare both more collective and more indi vidual premises for constructing identity The criterion for differentiating between these premises is determined by the narrativist approach adopt ed in this book An individual s identity even autobiographical one is created and expressed within the existing culture and public sphere and for this reason I am interested in history of ideas in social relationships symbols and role models changes of customs and everyday life which left a distinct impression on literary political or historical narratives Reading these narratives I make use of the following authors Jan Assmann Jean Baudrillard Zygmunt Bauman Ernst Cassirer Michel Foucault Marc Fumaroli Hans Georg Gadamer Jerzy Jedlicki Anthony Giddens Iz abela Kowalczyk Philippe Lejeune Maurice Merleau Ponty Stanis aw Ossowski Ewa Rewers Paul Ricoeur Richard Rorty El bieta Rybicka Richard Shusterman Georg Simmel Jerzy Szacki Magdalena roda Charles Taylor Nikodem Bo cza Tomaszewski Christian Vandendorpe Anna Wieczorkiewicz I rely on their reconstruction of social historical background of modern identity presented by these authors as well as on language used by them The book structure results from the overlapping or even conflict of two research objectives My task is to analyze the most important prem ises and forms of identity in R ewicz s prose and I describe them in separate chapters as problems of culture literature and history of ideas as well as models and social projects It is my wish that all these perspectives make up a coherent identity narrative of man of the second half of the 20th century a biographical case study The study covers the pro cess of political empowerment of an individual his her participation in democratized mass culture his her attitude towards collective memory towards Polish and European cultural community experiencing of body sexuality and everyday existence emotional and social relationship with space and finally an autobiographical identity which I reconstruct as a transitional and provisional whole One of the most significant issues covered in the book is the western orientation of Polish collective identity in the 20th century related to the modernization of Central Europe and the postwar division of the continent by the Iron Curtain which created in Poland a phantom idea of the West as well as to the shifted borders of the Polish state to the territories by the Odra river and the Baltic Sea to polonization of former German lands and finally to historical and polit ical discourse legitimizing this transfer of territories Tadeusz R ewicz as a travelling writer and journalist has relentlessly problematized the relationship between Europe and its Polish idea as a resident in Gliwice and Wroc aw not only has he described since the trip down the Odra river on a fishing boat from Ko le to Szczecin in 1947 symbolic colonization of the post German Nadodrze but also artistically diagnosed the birth of the new individual and social identity of the inhabitants of this border area with its clashing narratives of history biography and national literature alongside the overlapping traces of different cultures and traditions Writing about R ewicz s man in this book I clearly do not mean the writer himself It is obvious that among many convictions and attitudes that the author of Sobowt r manifests there are some of which he is fond and there are others of which he is not I do not disregard his views voiced in non fiction narratives and public speeches yet I am mostly interested in experience world view and self comprehension of his literary persona and literary hero presented or partially derived from an idea of man and of community in his texts Analyzing R ewicz s works I therefore distinguish between his self evident journalistic approach and his humanistic reflection which is a result of a philosophical or literary presentation of identity problems an individual faces I read his prose as an element of a public discourse and at the same time as an indirect formulated in fictional intimate or notebook narratives criticism of social reality and European culture in the 20th century In most cases I leave open questions such as whether or not R ewicz was or is committed to a specific political project whether or not he is a modern man in different meanings of this notion whether or not his personal identity coincides with identity narratives in his books Finding an answer to these questions is not a purpose of this book It is distinctively the problem of Tadeusz R ewicz s intellectual commitment to modern culture literature and history and a problem of the writer s role in creative and critical understanding of them that I find more interesting and important

New Essays in Comparative Aesthetics Robert

Wilkinson,2009-03-26 Comparative aesthetics is the branch of philosophy which compares the aesthetic concepts and practices of different cultures The way in which the various cultures of the world conceive of the aesthetic dimension of life in general and art in particular is revelatory of profound attitudes and beliefs which themselves make up an important part of the culture in question This anthology consists of entirely new essays by some of the leading internationally recognised scholars in the field The subjects addressed include the influence of Upani adic thought on the classic Indian tradition in aesthetics and the way in which that tradition continues to have relevance to issues discussed today how Buddhist thought in general and Zen in particular shape aesthetic attitudes in Japanese culture how Confucianism affected not only the morality but also the classical aesthetics of China how different ideas of the self and of human nature affect artistic training and practice in different cultures how feminism can draw inspiration from classic non European lines of thought in the area of aesthetics and how different attitudes to nature underpin a whole range of aesthetic beliefs and attitudes in western and eastern thought These ideas reveal both deep differences and deep similarities between east and west No one seeking to understand the cultures discussed in these essays can ignore their aesthetic dimension which often holds the key to understanding the deepest motives which have formed them

Animals and Early Modern Identity PiaF.

Cuneo,2017-07-05 Animals were everywhere in the early modern period and they impacted at least in some way the lives of every kind of early modern person from the humblest peasant to the greatest prince Artists made careers based on depicting them English gentry impoverished themselves spending money on them Humanists exercised their scholarship writing about them Pastors saved souls delivering sermons on them Nobles forged alliances competing with them Foreigners and indigenes negotiated with one another through trading them The nexus between animal human relationships and early modern identity is illuminated in this volume by the latest research of international scholars working on the history of art literature and of sixteenth and seventeenth century Germany France England Spain and South Africa Collectively these essays investigate how animals horses dogs pigs hogs fish cattle sheep birds rhinoceroses even sea monsters and other creatures served people in Europe England the Americas and Africa to defend contest or transcend the boundaries of early modern identities Developments in the methodologies employed by scholars to interrogate the past have opened up an intellectual and discursive space for and a concomitant recognition of the study of animals as a topic that significantly elucidates past and present histories Relevant to a considerable array of disciplines the study of animals also provides a means to surmount traditional disciplinary boundaries through processes of dynamic interchange and cross fertilization

"Biography, Identity and the Modern Interior " Penny Sparke, 2017-07-05 Through a series of case studies from the mid eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first this collection of essays considers the historical insights that ethno auto biographical investigations into the lives of individuals groups and interiors can offer design and architectural historians Established scholars and emerging researchers shed light on the methodological issues that arise from the use of these sources to explore the history of the interior as a site in which everyday life is experienced and performed and the ways in which contemporary architects and interior designers draw on personal and collective histories in their practice Historians and theorists working within a range of disciplinary contexts and historiographical traditions are turning to biography as means of exploring and accounting for social cultural and material change and this volume reflects that turn representing the fields of architectural and design history social history literary history creative writing and design practice Topics include masters and servants in eighteenth century English kitchens the lost interiors of Oscar Wilde s House Beautiful Elsa Schiaparelli s Surrealist spaces Jean Genet outlaws and the interiors of marginality and architect Lina Bo Bardi s Glass House S Paulo Brazil

"Fashion, Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Challenging the notion that fashion and furniture were or are separate enterprises and distinct material aesthetic traditions this collection focuses on three material and conceptual links central to understanding the relationship between interior design and fashion the body fabric and space The volume considers the changing visual material and spatial character methodological challenges posed by and formal political and historiographical significance of a wide range of British European and North American case studies since the eighteenth century The volume s eleven case studies allow the reader to understand connecting notions behind the formation of interiors and fashionable clothing The essays combine a wide range of significant and challenging new examples alongside powerful reversionary analyses of the various periods artists designers and their best and significant objects Fashion Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity is concerned not only with fabric but also with the body and the implications of embodiment in the practices of both design domains which are equally invested in the comfort aesthetic pleasure extension and support of the body in different and yet seemingly identical ways Queer Episodes in Music and Modern Identity Sophie Fuller, Lloyd Whitesell, 2002 Through the hidden or lost Stories of composers scholars patrons performers audiences repertoire venues and specific works this volume explores points of intersection between music and queerness in Europe and the United States from 1870 to 1950 a period during which dramatic changes in musical expression and in the expression of individual sexual identity played similar roles in washing away the certainties of the past BOOK JACKET Black Women, Identity, and Cultural Theory Kevin Everod Quashie, 2004 Ultimately moves beyond these to propose a new cultural aesthetic that aims to center black women and their philosophies Book jacket

A New Identity of Obligation: Metaphors and Paul's Ethical Argument in Romans 6:1-14 Andrés D. Vera, 2025-06-19 In Romans 6 1 14 Paul corrects an erroneous ethical conclusion drawn from the narrative of God's grace in Romans 3 5 This innovative study employs tools from cognitive linguistics to unveil Paul's sophisticated rhetorical strategy for resolving the indicative imperative tension By moving beyond traditional theological frameworks the book shows how Paul presents believers new identity as defined by a new obligation illuminating the metaphorical narrative that undergirds Paul's logic Readers will better understand the importance of conceptual spaces like in sin and in Christ and how Paul conceptualizes the relationship between believers and their old selves who have been crucified

Reclaiming Identity Paula M. L. Moya, Michael R. Hames-García, 2000-12-14 Identity is one of the most hotly debated topics in literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of ten essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world Advocating a postpositivist realist approach to identity the essays examine the ways in which theory politics and activism clash with or complement each other providing an alternative to the widely influential postmodernist understandings of identity Although theoretical in orientation this dynamic collection deals with specific social groups Chicanas/os African Americans gay men and lesbians Asian Americans and others and concrete social issues directly related to race ethnicity sexuality epistemology and political resistance Satya Mohanty's brilliant exegesis of Toni Morrison's Beloved serves as a launching pad for the collection The essays that follow written by prominent and up and coming scholars address a range of topics from the writings of Cherrie Moraga Franz Fanon Joy Kogawa and Michael Nava to the controversy surrounding racial program housing on college campuses and work toward a truly interdisciplinary approach to identity

Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity Josie McSkimming, 2016-10-04 There is an increasing interest in the influence of religious fundamentalism upon people's motivation identity and decision making Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity details the stories of those who have left Christian fundamentalist churches and how they change after they have left It considers how the previous fundamentalist identity is shaped by aspects of church teaching and discipline that are less authoritarian and coercive and more subtle and widely spread throughout the church body That is individuals are understood as not only subject to a form of judgment but also exercise it with everyone seemingly complicit in maintaining the stability of the church organisation This book provocatively illustrates that the reasons for leaving an evangelical Christian church may be less about what happens outside the church in terms of the lures and attractions of the secular world and more about the experience within the community itself     American Covenant Philip Gorski, 2019-06-18

The long battle between exclusionary and inclusive versions of the American story Was America founded as a Christian nation or a secular democracy Neither argues Philip Gorski in American Covenant What the founders envisioned was a prophetic republic that would weave together the ethical vision of the Hebrew prophets and the Western political heritage of civic republicanism In this eye opening book Gorski shows why this civil religious tradition is now in peril and with it the American experiment American Covenant traces the history of prophetic republicanism from the Puritan era to today providing insightful portraits of figures ranging from John Winthrop and W E B Du Bois to Jerry Falwell Ronald Reagan and Barack Obama Featuring a new preface by the author this incisive book demonstrates how half a century of culture war has drowned out the quieter voices of the vital center and demonstrates that if we are to rebuild that center we must recover the civil religious tradition on which the republic was founded
