Hardie,2017-09-08 The Economics of Land Use brings together the most significant journal essays in key areas of contemporary agricultural food and resource economics and land use policy The editors provide a state of the art overview of the topic and access to the economic literature that has shaped contemporary perspectives on land use analysis and policy Fifty Years of Regional Science Raymond Florax,David A. Plane,2013-04-17 This book contains the complete text of the special Golden Anniversary issue of the flagship journal of the Regional Science Association International RAI Papers in Regional Science Volume 83 Number 1 as well as the full text of Walter Isard s Presidential Address The future near and far of regional science Professor Isard originally delivered the speech in a special plenary session of the fiftieth North American Meetings of the Regional Science Association International The session began with a ceremonial kickoff to the year long celebration of the multidisciplinary field s first 50 years At the ceremony held on the morning of Friday November 21 2004 at the DoubleTree Hotel in Philadelphia we presented Walter Isard the founder of our multidisciplinary field as well as Antoine Bailly the President of the Regional Science Association International and David Boyce the Association's Archivist with commemorative first copies of the anniversary issue This book entitled Fifty Years of Regional Science consists of a compendium of thought papers authored by a representative sampling of some of the field's leading scholars For the special journal issue we originally titled the collection The Brightest of Dawns Urban Mass Transportation Abstracts, 1982

Handbook of Regional and Urban Economics, vol. 5B Gilles Duranton, Vernon Henderson, William Strange, 2015-05-15 Developments in methodologies agglomeration and a range of applied issues have characterized recent advances in regional and urban studies Volume 5 concentrates on these developments while treating traditional subjects such as housing the costs and benefits of cities and policy issues beyond regional inequalities Contributors make a habit of combining theory and empirics in each chapter guiding research amid a trend in applied economics towards structural and quasi experimental approaches Clearly distinguished from the New Economic Geography covered by Volume 4 these articles feature an international approach that positions recent advances within the discipline of economics and society at large Editors are recognized as leaders and can attract an international list of contributors Regional and urban studies interest economists in many subdisciplines such as labor development and public economics Table of contents combines theoretical and applied subjects ensuring broad appeal to readers

Great Minds in Regional Science, Vol. 3 Peter Batey, David Plane, 2025-07-31 This book is the third volume in a series on Great Minds in Regional Science which seeks to present a contemporary view on the scientific relevance of the work done by great thinkers in regional science This volume presents among others Walter Christaller Benjamin H Stevens William Alonso and François Perroux Each chapter combines factual biographical information about the Great Mind a description of their major contributions and a discussion of the broader context of their work as well as an assessment of its current relevance scientific recognition and policy impact The book attempts to fill a gap in our knowledge and to respond to the growing interest in the formation and development of the field of regional science and its key influential figures

Building Cities that Work Edmund P. Fowler, 1993 Since 1945 North Americans have spent hundreds of billions of dollars on urban development literally transforming the landscape of the continent This development has been disastrous Edmund Fowler maintains because it is inordinately expensive destructive of the environment and disruptive of healthy social life and authentic politics Revealing the connections between our basic cultural beliefs and why we build the way we do he stresses that to build cities that work we must become aware of how our personal choices contribute to the form of the built environment
