Contemporary Chinese Print Media Zheng Yi,2013-10-01 This book examines the transformations in form genre and content of contemporary Chinese print media It describes and analyses the role of post reform social stratification in the media focusing particularly on how the changing practices and institutions of the industry correspond to and accelerate the emergence of a relatively affluent urban leisure reading market It argues that this reinvention of Chinese print media vis vis the creation of a post socialist taste class culture is an essential part of the cultural and affective transformations in contemporary Chinese society and demonstrates how the reinvention of such taste culture effectively creates through new kinds of reading materials and carefully demarcated target audiences a middle class civility that serves as the locus of the new niche media market Once Iron Girls Hui Wu,2009-12-28 Available in English for the first time Once Iron Girls Essays on Gender by Post Mao Chinese Literary Women brings together twenty five essays by seven critically acclaimed writers whose fiction and poetry have become classics in modern Chinese literature Poetic metaphoric and sometimes playful and satiric the essays discuss the material reality wherein Chinese women live and function Reflecting on their experiences under Mao and in post Maoist China these essays vividly demonstrate that despite equality of the sexes being the official position and women working equally demanding jobs as men women are still considered servile to their male counterparts Taken together the collection shows Chinese women struggling for identity by discussing the issues that are important in their lives Unlike Western feminists they do not want to be seen as different from their male counterparts Nor do they want to fall into Chinese terminology of being the same as men Rather these essays show that women want to be seen first and foremost as human and then as female By showcasing the politics and poetics of Chinese women s essays to an English audience Hui Wu s translations uncover the philosophy and purpose behind the literature of a unique generation of Chinese women whose life experience finds no parallel in China and certainly not in the West The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature Li-Hua Ying,2010 The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature The Columbia Sourcebook of Literary Taiwan Sung-sheng Yvonne Chang,Michelle Yeh,Ming-ju Fan,2014-08-26 This sourcebook contains more than 160 documents and writings that reflect the development of Taiwanese literature from the early modern period to the twenty first century Selections include seminal essays in literary debates polemics and other landmark events interviews diaries and letters by major authors critical and retrospective essays by influential writers editors and scholars transcripts of historical speeches and conferences literary society manifestos and inaugural journal prefaces and governmental policy pronouncements that have significantly influenced Taiwanese literature These texts illuminate Asia s experience with modernization colonialism and postcolonialism the character of Taiwan s Cold War and post Cold War cultural production gender and environmental issues indigenous movements and the changes and challenges of the digital revolution Taiwan s complex history with Dutch Spanish and Japanese colonization strategic geopolitical position vis vis China Japan and the United States and status as a hub for the East bound circulation of technological and popular culture trends make the nation an excellent case study for a richer understanding of East Asian and modern global relations
