Essays On Quebec Cinema:

Essays on Quebec Cinema Joseph I. Donohoe, 1991 Essays on Quebec Cinema weaves together the reflections of filmmakers and scholars from Canada the United States and Great Britain as they move to a fresh assessment of one of the most dynamic film industries in the Western Hemisphere

The Cinema of Québec Janis L. Pallister, 1995 Quebecois cinema too long neglected and too long unknown by American viewers and often not appreciated on its own terrain receives its well deserved defense in Janis L Pallister s The Cinema of Quebec Masters in Their Own House Quebec Cinema in the 21st Century Michael Gott, Thibaut Schilt, 2024-02-06 This collection of ten chapters and three original interviews with Quebecois filmmakers focuses on the past two decades of Quebec cinema and takes an in depth look at a primarily Montreal based filmmaking industry whose increasingly diverse productions continue to resist the hegemony of Hollywood and to exist as a visible and successful hub of French language and ever more multilingual cinema in North America This volume picks up where Bill Marshall s 2001 Quebec National Cinema ends to investigate the inherently global nature of Quebec s film industry and cinematic output since the beginning of the new millennium Through their analyses of contemporary films Une colonie Avant les rues Bon cop bad cop Les Affamés Tom la ferme Uvanga among others directors including Xavier Dolan Denis Côté Sophie Desrues Chloé Robichaud Jean Marc Vallée and Monia Chokri and genres such as the buddy comedy and the zombie film our authors examine the growing tension between Quebec cinema as a national cinema and as an art form that reflects the transnationalism of today s world a new form of fluidity of individual experiences and an increasing on screen presence of Indigenous subjects both within and outside the borders of the province The book concludes with specially conducted interviews with filmmakers Denis Chouinard Bachir Bensaddek and Marie-Hélène Cousineau who provide their views and insights on contemporary Quebec filmmaking

The Cinema of Canada Jerry White, 2006 Containing 24 essays each on a different film this work provides a fascinating historical account of the development of film and documentary traditions across the diverse national and regional communities in Canada

The Cinema of Robert Lepage Aleksandar Dundjerovich, 2003 The Cinema of Robert Lepage is the first critical study of one of the most striking artists of Quebecois and Canadian independent filmmaking The book examines Lepage s creative methods of filmmaking in their cultural and social context and argues that his work cannot be seen separately from his oeuvre as a multidisciplinary artist and challenges the notions that Lepage should be considered only in the terms of Quebecois film tradition The author explores such themes with Lepage in a new exclusive and detailed interview

Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around

Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena One Hundred Years of Canadian Cinema George Melnyk, 2004-01-01 Melnyk argues passionately that Canadian cinema has never been a singular entity but has continued to speak in the languages and in the voices of Canada's diverse population The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema Janine Marchessault, Will Straw, 2019-03-20 The chapters in The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema present a rich diverse overview of Canadian cinema Responding to the latest developments in Canadian film studies this volume takes into account the variety of artistic voices media technologies and places which have marked cinema in Canada throughout its history Drawing on a range of established and emerging scholars from a range of disciplines this volume will be useful to teachers scholars and to a general readership interested in cinema in Canada Moving beyond the director focused approach of much previous scholarship this book is concerned with communities institutions and audiences for Canadian cinema at both national and international levels The choice of subjects covered ranges from popular genre cinema to the most experimental of artistic interventions Canadian cinema is seen in its interaction with other forms of art making and media production in Canada and at the international level Particular attention has been paid to the work of Indigenous filmmakers members of diasporic communities and feminist and LGBTQ artists The result is a book attentive to the complex social and institutional contexts in which Canadian cinema is made and consumed Self Portrait Pierre Véronneau, Piers Handling, 1980 Canada's Best Features Eugene P. Walz, 2002 Long recognized for outstanding National Film Board documentaries and innovative animated movies Canada has recently emerged from the considerable shadow of the Hollywood elephant with a series of feature films that have captured the attention of audiences around the world This is the first anthology to focus on Canada's feature films those acknowledged as its very best With essays by senior academics and leading scholars from across the country as well as some fresh new voices Canada's Best Features offers penetrating analyses of fifteen award winning films Internationally acclaimed directors David Cronenberg Atom Egoyan Denys Arcand and Claude Jutra are represented here Noteworthy films include Mon oncle Antoine often cited as Canada's number one film of all time such Cannes Festival favourites as Le dclin de l empire am ricain and Exotica and cult films Careful by Guy Maddin and Masala by Srinivas Krishna The essays offer the latest word on these films and filmmakers done from a variety of perspectives Some of the films have never been examined in depth before Complete filmographies and bibliographies accompany each essay A contextualizing introduction by Professor Gene Walz provides the necessary overview An annotated bibliography of books on the Canadian film industry completes this impressive package Québec Studies, 1998 Cinema of Exploration James Leo Cahill, Luca Caminati, 2020-12-29 Drawing together 18 contributions from leading international scholars this book conceptualizes the history and theory of cinema's century long relationship to modes of exploration in its many forms from colonialist expeditions to decolonial radical cinemas to the perceptual voyage of the senses made possible by the cinematic apparatus This is the first anthology dedicated to analysing cinema's relationship to exploration from a global decolonial and ecological perspective Featuring leading scholars working with pathbreaking interdisciplinary methodologies drawing on insights from science and technology studies postcolonial theory indigenous ways of knowing and film theory and history it theorizes not only cinema's implication in imperial conquest but also its cutting edge role in empirical expansion and experiments in sensual and critical perception The collected essays consider filmmaking in cross cultural contexts and films made in or about peoples in South America Asia Africa Indigenous North America as well as polar outer space and underwater exploration with famous figures such as Jacques Yves Cousteau alongside amateur and scientific filmmakers The essays in this collection are ideal for a broad range of scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in cinema and media studies cultural studies and cognate fields

Robert Lepage Aleksandar Saša Dundjerović, 2019-05-16 Robert Lepage is one of Canada's foremost theatre authors and directors His company Ex Machina has toured to international acclaim and he has lent his talents to areas as diverse as opera film solo performance and installation art His most celebrated work blends acute personal narratives with bold global themes through collaborative and multimedia theatricality This book is the first to combine An overview of the key phases in Lepage's life and career An examination of the issues and questions pertinent to his work A discussion of The Dragons Trilogy as a paradigm of his working methods A variety of practical exercises designed to give an insight into Lepage's creative process As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research Routledge Performance Practitioners are of unbeatable value for today's student

Claude Jutra Jim Leach, 1999 Claude Jutra best known as the director of Mon oncle Antoine has been widely acclaimed as one of Canada's premier filmmakers Despite this there has been surprisingly little critical writing about his work and the context in which it was created and viewed Jutra was a Quebec nationalist and both he and his films were shaped by the changes in Quebec society during the Quiet Revolution and by the political tensions of the sixties and seventies Though he died in 1986 his films still have much to tell us about Canadian cinema and the ongoing debates on Canadian and Quebec nationhood Book jacket

Quebec Since 1930 Paul-André Linteau, René Durocher, Jean-Claude Robert, François Ricard, 1991-01-01 List of Tables List of Maps List of Figures Preface PART 1 THE DEPRESSION AND THE WAR 1930 1945 Introduction Quebec in 1929 The Depression A Troubled Period The Second World War

Great Canadian Film Directors George Melnyk, 2007-06-15 Great Canadian Film Directors is the first major study that reflects the cultural and linguistic diversity of Canada's most dynamic film directors The 19 essays in this collection focus on each filmmaker's ability to create a vision that both reveals and redefines our national cultures Together these essays by established and emerging scholars highlight the diversity imaginative power and

talent of Canadian filmmakers This collection's value is in its contemporary analysis of major figures as well as critical discussions of the work of women directors and young filmmakers Filmographies and selected bibliographies for each director provide film students and the movie-going public with an unrivalled study of a cinema that now garners world attention Filming Politics Malek Khouri, 2007 The National Film Board of Canada NFB was created in 1939 to produce, distribute and promote Canadian cinema both domestically and abroad In Filming Politics author Malek Khouri explores the work of the NFB during this period and argues that the political discourse of the films produced by this institution offered a counter-hegemonic portrayal of working class people and presented them as agents of social change Filming Politics brings to light a number of films from the early years of the NFB most of which have long been forgotten Cinema of Pain Liz Czach, André Loiselle, 2020-07-29 Since the defeat of the pro-sovereignists in the 1995 Quebec referendum the loss of a cohesive nationalistic vision in the province has led many Québécois to use their ancestral origins to inject meaning into their everyday lives A Cinema of Pain argues that this phenomenon is observable in a pervasive sense of nostalgia in Quebec culture and is especially present in the province's vibrant but deeply wistful cinema In Québécois cinema nostalgia not only denotes a sentimental longing for the bucolic pleasures of bygone French Canadian traditions but as this edited collection suggests it evokes the etymological sense of the term which underscores the element of pain algos associated with the longing for a return home nostos Whether it is in grandiloquent historical melodramas such as Saphin un homme et son pch Binam 2002 intimate realist dramas like Tout ce que tu possèdes Mond 2012 charming art films like C.R.A.Z.Y. Vallée 2005 or even gory horror movies like Sur le seuil Tessier 2003 the contemporary Québécois screen projects an image of shared suffering that unites the nation through a melancholy search for home So Close to the State/s Michael Dorland, 1998-01-01 Examines the formation of feature film policy in the Canadian context of the 1950s through to the present paying special attention to the role played by producers filmmakers and government agencies The Routledge Companion to Studio Performance Practice Franc Chamberlain, Bernadette Sweeney, 2021-11-29 The Routledge Companion to Studio Performance Practice is a unique indispensable guide to the training methods of the world's key theatre practitioners Compiling the practical work outlined in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks each set of exercises has been edited and contextualised by an expert in that particular approach Each chapter provides a taster of one practitioner's work answering the same key questions How did this artist work How can I begin to put my understanding of this to practical use Newly written chapter introductions put the exercises in context explaining how they fit into the wider methods and philosophy of the practitioner in question All 21 volumes in the original series are represented in this volume
