Essays, Philosophical and Moral, Historical and Literary William Belsham, 1799

Once Upon a Time Peter

Kivy, Aaron Meskin, 2019-08-07 Once Upon a Time is a collection of essays in the philosophy of literature with two central themes the significance of story telling for us and the question of whether the novel perhaps the art form most closely associated with story telling is a legitimate source of human knowledge Leading philosopher of art Peter Kivy explores why human beings are so enthralled by being told stories and whether story telling is a significant source of knowledge Starting with a study of Aristotle s Poetics Kivy then undertakes a critical discussion of Noel Carroll s suggestion that our interaction with the artists of the past is a kind of conversation He goes on to defend the thesis that one of the legitimate artistic pleasures we take in novel reading is the acquiring of knowledge and furthermore that the silent reading of a novel is a kind of performance making the novel one of the performing arts The volume concludes with a chapter about jokes and in particular whether it is immoral to tell or be amused by an immoral joke This volume of essays is a must read for anyone seriously interested in literature and the conceptual problems it may raise for philosophers An Essay Contributing to a Philosophy of Literature Brother Azarias,1890 In the Age of Prose Erich Heller,1984-01-19 The guiding theme of these essays is the fate of the imagination and the condition of art in the modern world where both appear to be enfeebled by scientific hubris undermined by psychological self questioning and compromised by political disaster Erich Heller traces this predicament with subtlety and profundity from Hegel s and Nietzsche s diagnoses to the various truces and manoeuvres through which remarkable victories have nonetheless been achieved such as the comic triumphs of Wilhelm Busch As elsewhere in Professor Heller s work Thomas Mann s attempt to outwit and redeem his circumstances through art despite them as he said himself occupies a central place Three of the present essays are devoted to him Others consider Kleist Fontane Hamsun Karl Kraus and the crucial figures of Hlderlin who plays such a central role in Heidegger s later philosophical writings and Rilke Written with feeling and the distinctive elegance and wit that have characterized all of Professor Heller s work the essays here reaffirm the vital interdependence of literature and human values New Essays, Literary and Philosophical James Lindsay,1912 Philosophy and Literature M.W. Rowe,2017 Bringing together eight previously published essays by M W Rowe and a substantial new study of Larkin this book emphasizes the profound affinities between philosophy and literature Ranging over Plato Shakespeare Goethe Arnold and Wittgenstein the first five essays explore an anti theoretical conception of philosophy This sees the subject as less concerned with abstract arguments that result in theories than with prompts intended to induce clarity of vision and psychical harmony On this understanding philosophy looks more like literature than logic Conversely the last four essays argue that literature is centrally concerned with truth and abstract thought and that literature is therefore a more cognitive and philosophical enterprise than is commonly supposed Provided by publisher Essays, Philosophical, Historical, and Literary William Belsham,1790

Essays Moral, Political, and Literary David Hume,1898 The ^AOxford Handbook of Philosophy and Literature Richard Eldridge,2009-03-27 This volume contains twenty three newly commissioned essays by major philosophers and literary scholars that investigate literature as a form of attention to human life Various forms of attention are considered under the headings of Genres Periods Devices and Powers and Contexts and Uses Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum,1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum s published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Literary and Philosophical Essays Michel de Montaigne, Charles Augustin Sainte-Beuve, 2010-01-01 Translator names not noted above John Florio and Thomas Kingsmill Abbott Originally published between 1909 and 1917 under the name Harvard Classics this stupendous 51 volume set a collection of the greatest writings from literature philosophy history and mythology was assembled by American academic CHARLES WILLIAM ELIOT 1834 1926 Harvard University s longest serving president Also known as Dr Eliot s Five Foot Shelf it represented Eliot s belief that a basic liberal education could be gleaned by reading from an anthology of works that could fit on five feet of bookshelf Volume XXXII features works of French German and Italian philosophy and literary criticism from the 16th 17th and 18th centuries That We Should Not Judge of Our Happiness Until After Our Death That to Philosophize Is to Learn How to Die Of the Institution and Education of Children Of Friendship and Of Books by Montaigne Montaigne and What is a Classic by Charles Augustin Sainte Beuve The Poetry of the Celtic Races by Ernest Renan The Education of the Human Race by Gotthold Ephraim Lessing Letters Upon the Aesthetic Education of Man by J C Friedrich Von Schiller Fundamental Principles of the Metaphysic of Morals and Transition From Popular Moral Philosophy to the Metaphysic of Morals by Immanuel Kant Byron and Goethe by Giuseppe Mazzini Essays Philosophical and Literary Adam Smith, 2014-02-03 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book Literary and Philosophical Essays , 1910 Premises Werner Hamacher, 1996 Poetry does not impose it exposes itself wrote Paul Celan Werner Hamacher s investigations into crucial texts of philosophical and literary modernity show that Celan s apothegm is also valid for the structure of understanding and for language in general Subject position is widely invoked today yet Hamacher is the first to thoroughly investigate the premises for this invocation He demonstrates that the promise of a subject position is not only unavoidable and thus produces more and more fundamentalisms but is also unattainable and therefore always open to innovation revision and unexpected transformation In a book that is both philosophical and literary Hamacher gives us the fullest account of the vast disruption in the very nature of our understanding that was first unleashed by Kant s critique of human subjectivity In light of the double nature of every premise that it is promised but never attainable Hamacher gives us nine decisive themes topics and texts of modernity the hermeneutic circle in Schleiermacher and

Heidegger the structure of ethical commands in Kant Nietzsche's genealogy of moral terms and his exploration of the aporias of singularity the irony of reading in de Man the parabasis of language in Schlegel Kleist's disruption of narrative representation the gesture of naming in Benjamin and Kafka and the incisive caesura that Paul Celan inserts into temporal and linguistic reversals There is no book that so fully brings the issues of both critical philosophy and critical literature into reach
