Writing on the Wall Patricia Duncker,2002 In a varied selection of essays Duncker takes on the classics of European literature from the sexual politics of Milton to an illuminating reading of Tolstoy's War and Peace as historical fiction she also discusses contemporary women's writing including Angela Carter's queer gothic nationalism and Caribbean women's writing and the politics of heterosexuality in the work of Margaret Atwood and Jenny Diski On a more personal note the collection closes with examinations of the role of narrative the problems of writing and the influences that have shaped Patricia Duncker's own work

The Experience of Expatriate English Language Teaching David B. Wilson,2025-05-24 This is a unique applied linguistic study which demonstrates that the history of TEFLers is very different from the history of TEFL Instead of studying theories of language learning and teaching it explores the experience of being a TEFLer through the ages using a wide range of fictional and fictive sources novels plays biographies memoirs essays and poems Part One considers the present and recent past through an analysis of 15 fictional works and five memoirs Part Two is concerned with the experiences of some historical iconic figures from the world of TEFL beginning with the sixteenth century and ending with figures associated with the British Council and International House Along the way one meets Victorian governesses Berlitz teachers and literary figures from the inter War Golden Age of travel Interposed are some of the experiences of the author garnered during his long and varied career as an expatriate TEFLer

Victorian Conversion Narratives and Reading Communities Emily Walker Hady,2016-03-03 Because Victorian authors rarely discuss conversion experiences separately from the modes in which they are narrated Emily Walker Hady argues that the conversion narrative became in effect a form of literary criticism Literary conventions in turn served the reciprocal function as a means of discussing the nature of what Hady calls the heart change Hady reads canonical authors such as John Henry Newman Charles Dickens Charlotte Bront George Eliot and Oscar Wilde through a dual lens of literary history and post liberal theology As Hady shows these authors question the ability of realism to contain the emotionally freighted and often jarring plot lines that characterize conversion In so doing they explore the limits of narrative form while also shedding light on the ways in which conversion narratives address and often disrupt the reading communities in which they occur

A valuable survey and reference resource. It is hard to imagine a more needed and more useful literary reference work than this one which gives students and readers quick access to the lives and work of a wide range of notable female writers from England and the Continent from Aphra Behn to Emily Brontë from Simone de Beauvoir to Isak Dinesen from Bridget of Sweden to Hannah Arendt. Writers in more than 30 languages are included: French, Czech, Greek, Italian, Swedish, Spanish, German, Russian, Portuguese, Serbian, Catalan, Arabic, Hebrew, Dutch, Bulgarian, Croatian, Slovak, and more. Covers 1,500 years and all major genres. Going back 15 centuries, the Encyclopedia covers the authors of novels, short stories, poetry, plays, criticism, social commentary, feminist manifestos, romances, mysteries, memoirs, children's literature, biography, and other genres. In signed entries, some of which are mini-essays, experts in the field examine writers' lives and achievements, comment on individual works, place artistic efforts in historical context, provide insights and analyses, and present more information than can be easily found elsewhere without undertaking more exhaustive research. Each entry is followed by a bibliography of primary works. Indexed by language, nationality, genre, and century. Spotlights the interesting lives of notable writers. In these pages, students and readers will meet hundreds of interesting women writers who made lasting contributions to the intellectual and popular culture of their countries while often leading fascinating lives. Among them: AGATHA CHRISTIE, who wrote her first book in response to her sister's demand for a detective story that was harder to solve than the popular fiction of her day and whose work has been translated in more languages than Shakespeare's; HILDEGARD VON BINGEN, the 12th-century German mystic who wrote profusely as a prophet, a poet, a dramatist, a physician, and a political moralist, often communicated with popes and princes, and exerted a tremendous influence on the Western Europe of her time; MARY WOLLSTONECRAFT SHELLEY, whose 1818 masterpiece Frankenstein, or The Modern Prometheus became a literary sensation around the world; ILSE BLUMENTHAL WEISS, one of the few concentration camp survivors to memorialize the victims of the Holocaust in German verse; LINA WERTMULLER, who in addition to her work in films has written plays for the stage and a novel and who once was a member of a short-lived puppet theater that staged the works of Kafka. Special features: Ideal for quick reference and student research. Multicultural covers over 30 languages and 15 centuries. Includes many contemporary writers. Provides essential biographic data on each writer. Each entry is followed by a chronological listing of the writer's published book-length works. Offers critical evaluations of major works. Indexes help find writers by country, research by time period, survey genres, focus on languages.
