Andrew Jakubowicz, Christina Ho, 2014-02-15 Everyday Activists Christina M. Getrich, 2025-04-22 Strategies of resistance by undocumented young adults About 825 000 of the more than two million undocumented young adults in the United States benefited from the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program started by President Obama in 2012 Through DACA these young adults are able to work legally in the United States and have been insulated from deportation However since President Trump s attempted termination of the program in 2017 DACA recipients have endured a rollercoaster of legal battles that have left them in an unimaginable state of prolonged limbo Amid this rapidly shifting political climate many undocumented young adults have joined the large scale high visibility social movement to fight for policy change and immigrant justice Yet often overlooked are the thousands more DACA recipients nationwide who have never participated in immigration related activism As Christina M Getrich argues in less publicly visible ways they are nonetheless fighting for immigrant well being and justice in their everyday adult lives and their more private forms of action should be considered political activism Drawing from five years of rich ethnographic research with a diverse population of thirty DACA recipients living in the Washington D C area Everyday Activists portrays the alternative political engagement strategies they enact in their daily lives as they leverage their unique knowledge bases and skill sets and make a meaningful impact in their communities The volume reveals how these young activists strategies are instructive for thinking creatively about how to show up in our everyday lives for immigrants and others who are systematically subjected to social exclusion Dobu anthropologist Cathy Winkler awoke from a deep sleep to discover a rapist standing by her bed For the rest of that night she lived a woman s worst nightmare as she was repeatedly raped and beaten by the stranger The event changed her life into something resembling a Kafka novel a justice system that bungled the case then blamed the victim a social service system that provided no services or comfort uneasy and awkward friends exploitative media and insensitive university administrators and colleagues The pain of those four hours was dwarfed by the frustration of her decade long fight to find the rapist and bring him to justice ultimately through one of the first successful uses of DNA evidence in a rape case Winkler a brilliant observer and ethnographer chronicles this struggle here including her own growing awareness of her power to stare down district attorneys to use the media to her own ends including segments on 48 Hours and Court TV and ultimately through her persistence to put the rapist behind bars for life As a story of triumph over adversity One Night is an inspirational work And it provides a model of how researchers can turn the lens inward and incisively examine ourselves and our own world

Less than a half century ago China experienced a cataclysmic famine which was particularly devastating in the countryside As a result older people in rural areas have experienced in their lifetimes both extreme deprivation and relative abundance of food Young people on the other hand have a different relationship to food Many young rural Chinese are migrating to rapidly industrializing cities for work leaving behind backbreaking labor but also a connection to food through agriculture Bitter and Sweet examines the role of food in one rural Chinese community as it has shaped everyday lives over the course of several tumultuous decades In her superb ethnographic accounts Ellen Oxfeld compels us to reexamine some of the dominant frameworks that have permeated recent scholarship on contemporary China and that describe increasing dislocation and individualism and a lack of moral centeredness By using food as a lens she shows a more complex picture where connectedness and sense of place continue to play an important role even in the context of rapid change      Handbook of Life-Span Development Karen L.
