The Every-day Book William Hone, 1826 NKJV, Apply the Word Study Bible, Large Print, Hardcover, Red Letter Edition Thomas Nelson, 2017-03-07 The Apply the Word Study Bible enables people to practice what the Bible teaches is critical to living a Christ centered life It offers guidance to anyone seeking ways to bring their convictions of faith face to face with life's daily challenges

Print Letters in Seventeenth-Century England Gary Schneider, 2018-02-06 Print Letters in Seventeenth Century England investigates how and why letters were printed in the interrelated spheres of political contestation religious controversy and news culture those published as pamphlets as broadsides and in newsbooks in the interests of ideological disputes and as political and religious propaganda The epistolary texts examined in this book be they fictional satirical collected or authentic were written for or framed to have a specific persuasive purpose typically an ideological or propagandistic one This volume offers a unique exploration into the crucial interface of manuscript culture and print culture where tremendous transformations occur when for instance at its most basic level a handwritten letter composed by a single individual and meant for another individual alone comes either intentionally or not into the purview of hundreds or even thousands of people This essential context a solitary exchange transmuted via print into an interaction consumed by many serves to highlight the manner in which letters were exploited as propaganda and operated as vehicles of cultural narrative

"Women and Things, 1750?950" Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 In contrast to much current scholarship on women and material culture which focuses primarily on women as consumers this essay collection provides case studies of women who produced material objects The essays collected here make an original contribution to material culture studies by focusing on women's social practices in relation to material culture The essays as a whole are concerned with women's complex and active engagement with material culture in the various stages of the material object's life cycle from design and production to consumption use and redeployment Also theorized and described are the ways in which women engaged in meaning making identity formation and commemoration through their manipulation of materials and techniques ranging from taxidermy and shell work to collecting autographs and making scrapbooks This volume takes as its object of investigation the overlooked and often despised categories of women's decorative and craft activities as sites of important cultural and social work This volume is interdisciplinary with essays by art historians social historians literary critics rhetoricians and museum curators The scope of the volume is international with essays on eighteenth century German silhouettes Australian aboriginal ritual practices Brittany mourning rites and Soviet era recipes that provide a comparative framework for the majority of essays which focus on British and North American women who lived and worked in the long nineteenth century This volume will appeal to a broad range of students and scholars in women's history art history cultural studies museum studies anthropology cultural and social history literature rhetoric and material culture studies
