Everywhere Is Someplace Else A Literary Anthology:

Everywhere is Someplace Else Susan Bright, 1998 This is the product of a publishing colony in which a group of eleven national writers created a book at a week long retreat held on the Texas Gulf Coast It is a gathering of poetry about issues justice environment spirit creativity and community Contributors include Susan Bright Bonnie Buhler Smith Valerie Bridgeman Davis Bradley Earle Hoge Frances Downing Hunter Margo LaGattuta Polly Opsahl Christine Valentine Reising Karen Chorkey Renaud Kalamu ya Salaam and Gail Teachworth Everywhere we go in the world we bring ourselves and our histories We are both exhilarated and cautioned by differences we see in climates customs ideologies and people and we build walls of protection to keep us safe in our hermetic hometowns Yet as writers and readers we can see beyond those walls Through the lenses of metaphor and image focus and association we can see the inner connections between people infrastructures of common experience that go beyond first appearances The world becomes smaller and less intimidating when we name our truths and discover that our neighbors share them Through collaboration we create new pathways of understanding Everywhere is Someplace Else is a powerful collection that examines Spirit Earth Justice The Other Community Work Creatures Time Death Love and Creativity through the eyes of eleven poets and storytellers who gathered to collaborate and create a stunning celebration of life and the creative process The book was assembled in a week of intensive collaboration which influenced everyone's vision In this process of creating we found that community sustains us Our best art comes from healing its pain Our readers are an extended community of people all over the world who work every day to change ideas and institutions that are destroying the planet This anthology is the product of all we know about the soul of the writer how it grows from community and gives back to it how a circle of voices is often the truth of the poem how meaning is created because we need it
