American Authorship and Autobiographical Narrative Jonathan D'Amore, 2012-06-08 This book explores the conflicted relationship writers have with their public image particularly when they have written about their personal lives D Amore analyzes the autobiographical works of Norman Mailer John Edgar Wideman and Dave Eggers in light of theories of authorship autobiography and celebrity Biographical Memoir of Theodore Nicholas Gill, 1837-1914 Alfred Goldsborough Mayer, Cleveland Abbe, Edward Leamington Nichols, Edwin Herbert Hall, Ernest William Brown, George Cary Comstock, National Academy of Sciences (U.S.), Rebecca C. Longstreth, Silas Weir Mitchell, William Healey Dall, William Jackson Humphreys, William Morris Davis, William Wallace Campbell, 1919 List of papers contained in v 1 9 is given in National Academy of Sciences Proceedings Index 1915 24 1926 The Phenomenology of Autobiography Arnaud Schmitt, 2017-05-08 Taking a fresh look at the state of autobiography as a genre The Phenomenology of Autobiography Making it Real takes a deep dive into the experience of the reader Dr Schmitt argues that current trends in the field of life writing have taken the focus away from the text and the initial purpose of autobiography as a means for the author to communicate with a reader and narrate an experience The study puts autobiography back into a communicational context and putting forth the notion that one of the reasons why life writing can so often be aesthetically unsatisfactory or difficult to distinguish from novels is because it should not be considered as a literary genre but as a modality with radically different rules and means of evaluation In other words not only is autobiography radically different from fiction due to its referentiality but first and foremost it should be read differently The Missionary Herald , 1924 Vols for 1828 1934 contain the Proceedings at large of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions Modernity and Autobiography in Nineteenth-Century America James E. Dobson, 2017-09-14 This book examines temporal and formal disruptions found in American autobiographical narratives produced during the end of the nineteenth century It argues that disruptions were primarily the result of encounters with new communication and transportation technologies Through readings of major autobiographical works of the period James E Dobson argues that the range of affective responses to writing communicating and traveling at increasing speed and distance were registered in this literature s formal innovation These autobiographical works Dobson claims complicate our understanding of the lived experience of time temporality and existing accounts of periodization This study first examines the competing views of space and time in the nineteenth century and then moves to examine how high speed train travel altered American literary regionalism the region and history Later chapters examine two narratives of failed homecoming that are deeply ambivalent about modernity and technology Henry James s The American Scene and Theodore Dreiser s A Hoosier Holiday before a reading of the telephone network as a metaphor for historiography and autobiography in Henry Adams's The Education of Henry Adams Postcolonial Francophone Autobiographies Edgard Sankara, 2011-08-03 Bringing a comparative perspective to the study of autobiography Edgard Sankara considers a cross section of postcolonial francophone writing from Africa and the Caribbean in order to examine and compare for the first time their transnational reception Sankara not only compares the ways in which a wide selection of autobiographies were received locally as well as in France but also juxtaposes reception by the colonized and the colonizer to show how different meanings were assigned to the works after publication Sankara's geographical and cultural coverage of Africa and its diaspora is rich with separate chapters devoted to the autobiographies of Hamp t B Valentin Mudimb Kesso Barry Patrick Chamoiseau Rapha l Confiant and Maryse Cond The author combines close reading reception study and postcolonial theory to present an insightful survey of the literary connections among these autobiographers as well as a useful point of departure for further exploration of the genre itself of the role of reception studies in postcolonial criticism and of the stance that postcolonial francophone writers choose to take regarding their communities of origin Modern Language Initiative The Ascending Eagle: A Memoir of Courage and Innovation Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-04 Pasquale De Marco a visionary entrepreneur and pioneer in the field of technology shares his extraordinary journey in The Ascending Eagle A Memoir of Courage and Innovation This captivating memoir chronicles his unwavering passion for innovation the challenges he faced and the resilience that drove him to soar to unprecedented heights From humble beginnings to the pinnacle of success Pasquale De Marco's story is a testament to the power of dreams and the indomitable spirit that resides within us all Through personal anecdotes and insightful reflections he unveils the secrets behind his trailblazing accomplishments and empowers readers to embrace their own innovative potential In an era marked by rapid technological advancements Pasquale De Marco emerged as a pioneer pushing the boundaries of possibility with his groundbreaking ideas Through his unwavering commitment to innovation he transformed industries and left an enduring legacy that continues to shape the world we live in today The Ascending Eagle A Memoir of Courage and Innovation is not merely a biography but a roadmap for innovation providing practical insights and actionable advice for anyone seeking to make a meaningful impact in their field By sharing his experiences and hard earned wisdom Pasquale De Marco empowers readers to embrace their own innovative spirit and soar to new heights Whether you are a seasoned entrepreneur a budding innovator or simply someone with a passion for the transformative power of technology this book will ignite your imagination and inspire you to reach for the stars Join Pasquale De Marco on his extraordinary journey and discover the secrets to unlocking your own potential for greatness In the pages of The Ascending Eagle A Memoir of Courage and Innovation you will encounter the challenges triumphs and lessons learned along the way offering a unique glimpse into the mind of a true visionary Prepare to be inspired motivated and empowered as you embark on your own path of innovation and success If you like this book write a review on google books Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

American Identity in the Age of Obama Amílcar Antonio Barreto, Richard L. O'Bryant, 2013-11-12 The election of Barack Obama as the 44th president of the United States has opened a new chapter in the country s long and often tortured history of inter racial and inter ethnic relations Many relished in the inauguration of the country s first African American president an event foreseen by another White House aspirant Senator Robert Kennedy four decades earlier What could have only been categorized as a dream in the wake of Brown vs Board of Education was now a reality Some dared to contemplate a post racial America Still soon after Obama s election a small but persistent faction questioned his eligibility to hold office they insisted that Obama was foreign born Following the Civil Rights battles of the 20th century hate speech at least in public is no longer as free flowing as it had been Perhaps xenophobia in a land of immigrants is the new rhetorical device to assail what which is non white and hence un American Furthermore recent debates about immigration and racial profiling in Arizona along with the battle over rewriting of history and civics textbooks in Texas suggest that a post racial America is a long way off What roles do race ethnicity ancestry immigration status locus of birth play in the public and private conversations that defy and reinforce existing conceptions of what it means to be American This book exposes the changing and persistent notions of American identity in the age of Obama Am lcar Antonio Barreto Richard L O Bryant and an outstanding line up of contributors examine Obama s election and reelection as watershed phenomena that will be exploited by the president s supporters and detractors to engage in different forms of narrating the American national saga Despite the potential for major changes in rhetorical mythmaking they question whether American society has changed substantively The Evolution of Paleontological Art Renee M. Clary,Gary D. Rosenberg,Dallas C. Evans,2022-01-28 This volume samples the history of art about fossils and the visual conceptualization of their significance starting with biblical and mythological depictions extending to renditions of ancient life in long vanished habitats and on to a modern understanding that paleoart conveys lessons for the betterment of the human condition Twenty nine chapters illustrate how art about fossils has come to be a significant teaching tool not only about evolution of past life but also about conservation of our planet for the benefit of future generations Charles Darwin: His life told in an autobiographical chapter, and in a selected series of his

Patrick Riley,2004 Thinking of conversion as a radical turning point or fulcrum on which incompatible configurations of character are precariously balanced Riley examines both historically and tropologically the paradoxes of identity and life writing that conversion raises Autobiographical Chapter and Letters Charles Darwin,2016-08-26 Charles Robert Darwin was an English naturalist and geologist best known for his contributions to the science of evolution He established that all species of life have descended over time from common ancestors and in a joint publication with Alfred Russel Wallace introduced his scientific theory that this branching pattern of evolution resulted from a process that he called natural selection in which the struggle for existence has a similar effect to the artificial selection involved in selective breeding Darwin published his theory of evolution with compelling evidence in his 1859 book On the Origin of Species overcoming scientific rejection of earlier concepts of transmutation of species By the 1870s the scientific community and much of the general public had accepted evolution as a fact However many favoured competing explanations and it was not until the emergence of the modern evolutionary synthesis from the 1930s to the 1950s that a broad consensus developed in which natural selection was the basic mechanism of evolution In modified form Darwin s scientific discovery is the unifying theory of the life sciences explaining the diversity of life Darwin's early interest in nature led him to neglect his medical education at the University of Edinburgh instead he helped to investigate marine invertebrates Studies at the University of Cambridge Christ's College encouraged his passion for natural science His five year voyage on HMS Beagle established him as an eminent geologist whose observations and theories supported Charles Lyell's uniformitarian ideas and publication of his journal of the voyage made him famous as a popular author Race and U.S. Foreign Policy from 1900 Through World War II Michael L. Adventuring for Christ in Changing Times James DeForest Murch, 1973 A Big History of North America Kevin Jon Fernlund, 2022-12-16 The special relationship between the United Kingdom an established and secure power and the United States a rising one began after the War of 1812 as the former enemies sought accommodation with rather than the annihilation of one another At the same time Mexico also a rising power was not so fortunate Its relationship with Spain an established but declining power turned hostile with Spain's final exit from North America after Mexico's War of Independence leaving its former colony isolated internally unstable and vulnerable to external attack Significantly Mexico posed little threat to its northern neighbor By the third decade of the eighteenth century then the fate of North America was largely discernable Nevertheless the three century journey to get to this point had been anything but predictable The United States rise as a regional power was very much conditioned by constantly shifting transcontinental transpacific and above all transatlantic factors all of which influenced North America's three interactive cultural spheres the Indigenous the Hispano and the Anglo And while the United States profoundly shaped the history of Canada and Mexico so too did these two transcontinental countries likewise shape the course of U S history In this ground breaking work Kevin Fernlund shows us that any society's social development is directly related to its own social power and just as crucially to the protective extension or destructive intrusion of the social power of other societies
