the Success of Latino Males in Higher Education Victor B. Sáenz,Luis Ponjuán,Julie L. Figueroa,2023-07-03 Latino males are effectively vanishing from the American higher education pipeline Even as the number of Latinas os attending college has actually increased steadily over the last few decades the proportional representation of Latino males continues to slide relative to their Latina female counterparts The question of why Latino males are losing ground in accessing higher education relative to their peers is an important and complex one and it lies at the heart of this book There are several broad themes highlighted catalogued along with the four dimensions of policy theory research and practice The contributors to this book present new research on factors that inhibit or promote Latino success in both four year institutions and community colleges in order to inform both policy and practice They explore the social cultural factors peer dynamics and labor force demands that may be perpetuating the growing gender gap and consider what lessons can be learned from research on the success of Latinas This book also closely examines key practices that enable first generation Latino male undergraduates to succeed which may seem counterintuitive to institutional expectations and preconceived notions of student behavior Using narrative data the book also explores the role of family in persistence outlines how Latino men conceptualize fulfilling expectations negotiate the emasculation of the educational process and how they confront racialization in the pursuit of a higher education uncovers attitudes to help seeking that are detrimental to their success and analyzes how those who succeed and progress in college apply their social capital whether aspirational navigational social linguistic familial or resistant While uncovering the lack of awareness at all levels of our colleges and universities about the depth and severity of the challenges facing Latino males this book provides the foundation for rethinking policy challenges leaders to institutionalize male focused programs and services and presents data to inform needed changes in practice for outreach and retention African American Students' Career and College Readiness Jennifer R. Curry, M. Ann Shillingford, 2015-10-08

College and career readiness is essential to promoting the success of all students Educational and economic changes in today's society demands well thought out strategies for preparing students to survive academically socially and financially in the future African American students are at a disadvantage in this strategic planning process due to a long history of racism injustice and marginalization African American Students Career and College Readiness The Journey Unraveled explores the historical legal and socio political issues of education affecting African American students and their career and college readiness Each chapter has been written based on the authors experience and passion for the success of students in the African American population Some of the chapters will appear to be written in a more conversational and idiomatic tone whereas others are presented in a more erudite format Each chapter however presents a contextual portrayal of the contemporary and often dysfunctional pattern of society's approach to supporting this population Contributors also present progressive paradigms for future achievements Through the pages of this book readers will understand and hopefully appreciate what can be done to promote positive college bound self efficacy procurement of resources in the high school to college transition exposure and access to college possibilities and implications for practice in school counseling education leadership and higher education Learning Microsoft Office 97 Iris Blanc, Cathy Vento, 1997 Microsoft Office 97
