Everyday Evaluation On The Run:

Everyday Evaluation on the Run, Third Edition Yoland Wadsworth, 2011-07-15 This widely used introduction to evaluation is a practical no nonsense guide for busy program staff in human services who are asked to conduct evaluations without any previous training The book offers a practical overview of the main approaches to evaluation strategies for involving stakeholders and the evaluation industry s toolbox of models and techniques Everyday Evaluation on the Run Yoland Wadsworth, 2017 Practical useful counsel emanates throughout Impressively grounded in real world experiences Michael Quinn Patton author of Utilisation Focused Evaluation Effective evaluation can provide valuable insights into the way a program a course or an organisation is being run and direction for improvement This widely used introduction to evaluation is intended for non specialists in the human services who need to do evaluation as part of a busy workload Everyday Evaluation on the Run offers a practical over view of the main approaches to evaluation strategies for involving stakeholders and the evaluation industry s toolbox of models and techniques The author emphasises the core principles and concepts of evaluation and the idea of building a culture of evaluation This third edition of Everyday Evaluation on the Run reflects current thinking on values in organisations and the need to use evaluation to guide future practice rather than just as an auditing process With extensive examples it is a handy reference for professionals and students in health welfare and community work and in government and non profit agencies Everyday Evaluation on the Run Yoland Wadsworth, 2016-06-16 Evaluating programs has become a fixture in the human service sector In many cases program staff are asked to conduct the evaluation without any training on how to properly do it This widely used introduction to evaluation is intended for non specialists who need to do evaluation as part of a busy workload The book offers a practical overview of the main approaches to evaluation strategies for involving stakeholders and the evaluation industry s toolbox of models and techniques The author emphasizes the core principles and concepts of evaluation and provides extensive examples This third edition reflects current thinking on values in organizations and the need to use evaluation to guide future practice It is a handy reference for professionals and students in health welfare and community work and in government and non profit agencies Handbook of Action Research Peter Reason, Hilary Bradbury, 2006-01-17 With the Handbook of Action Research hailed as a turning point in how action research is framed and understood by scholars this student edition has been structured to provide an easy inroad into the field for researchers and students It includes concise chapter summaries and an informative introduction that draws together the different strands of action research and reveals their diverse applications as well as their interrelations Divided into four parts there are important themes of thinking and practice running throughout Internal Evaluation in Non-Profit Organisations Leanne M. Kelly, Alison Rogers, 2022-06-01 Focused on the interpersonal aspects of internal evaluation in non profit organisations this book presents practice based discussions centred on six key topics identified through the authors experience as evaluation practitioners Internal Evaluation in Non Profit Organisations

Practitioner Perspectives on Theory Research and Practice is not a step by step how to guide instead each chapter unpacks an aspect of internal evaluation in non profits that is paid insufficient heed in the existing literature Written by and for internal evaluation practitioners the book contains a plethora of practical strategies and critical analysis of thought provoking topics that are of particular interest and importance to internal evaluators in non profit settings The authors understand the pressures facing practitioners and non profit organisations and share their insights around improving evaluation s ability to be efficient embedded useful and meaningful This book will be of interest to researchers scholars and students focusing on non profit management and will hold specific value for internal evaluators who want to harness their unique and influential position to help organisations achieve their goals Further this book is ideal for individuals wanting to think critically about evaluation and improve evaluation utilisation by developing their professional capability building teamwork skills using informal everyday data incorporating theory and developing fruitful relationships with external evaluators

Australian national bibliography ,1961 Traveling Companions Mary Brydon-Miller,Patricia Maguire,Alice McIntyre,2004-03-30 This book explores the ways in which a diverse group of feminist and participatory action researchers experience create meaning and respond to the challenges of engaging in collaborative processes of reflection action and change While headed in similar directions rarely have feminist researchers and participatory action researchers acknowledged each other as collaborators with mutually important contributions to the journey Through the work presented in this volume the contributors hope to influence feminist scholarship to be more participatory and action oriented and participatory action research to be more grounded in feminist theories and values This book has two distinct yet interrelated and intertwining aims First it creates a space for a diverse group of educators researchers and scholars to grapple with the multiple and complex issues that are threaded throughout feminist and action research Second it seeks to examine how action research and feminist research can complement each other in developing strategies for engaging in collaborative research that is rooted in activism and productive change
