Sadie may seem like any other little girl, but like any other little girl, Sadie is absolutely individual and along with her little puppy Winnie, by her side, her curiosity quite rightly gets the better of her as she explores and experiences the world around her. In her own individual style, she will take you on a journey through 35 of her very own stories. Like every little girl should, Sadie doesn't quite understand the strange idea of becoming a grown-up; she has much better things to enjoy just as you will too when you join Sadie and her never-ending curiosity. Never Broken - My Journey from the Horrors of Iraq to the Birth of My Miracle Baby Hannah Campbell, 2015-08-06 When a bomb blast buried Corporal Hannah Campbell alive while she was serving in Iraq, it was the start of an incredible journey of self-discovery. From the collapse of her marriage to suffering horrific post-traumatic stress disorder, becoming morbidly obese, addicted to prescription drugs and suicidal, she went to hell and back. Hannah, who left her toddler at home to go to war, then made the extraordinary decision to amputate her own badly damaged leg so she could learn to live again and be a mum to her four-year-old daughter, Milly. Within hours of waking up from the amputation, she announced she would fulfil her dream of running the London Marathon, even though at that time she was unable to walk. Just two months later, she put on her first of many prosthetic legs and crossed the finishing line, running into the arms of her beloved young daughter. This spurred her to lose half her body weight before spending her army compensation on a 52,000 cosmetic makeover, which led her to find love again. In an amazing transformation of fortune, she became pregnant with miracle baby Lexi River, astounding her doctors as this was a child she was told she'd never have due to her blast injuries. Hannah's story is one of true heroism and triumph over seemingly insurmountable adversity. But simply, it's also a story about how a mother's love for her children can conquer all. The Reckless Oath We Made Bryn Greenwood, 2019-08-20 A new provocative love story from the New York Times
