Everyones Apocalypse A Reflection Guide:

Everyone's Apocalypse Donal A. McIlraith, 1995 Everyone's Apocalypse Donal A. McIlraith, 2024-04

Everyone's Apocalypse attempts to respond to the request of Dei Verbum 22 that Easy access to Sacred Scripture should be provided for all the faithful In this easy to read introduction for beginners modern scholarship and the Church's tradition meet to help readers understand and pray through this demanding part of God's Word Following Ugo Vanni's proved structure the two parts of the Apocalypse chapters 1-3 and 4-22 are presented in seven chapters The opening two chapters show John's vision of the Risen Jesus as Son of Man and his words to the seven churches of Asia Minor Chapter three presents the vital section full of worship of the throne vision of God as creator and of Jesus slaughtered and risen as redeemer The opening of the seven seals by the Lamb the four horsemen the Risen Jesus the destruction wrought by the seven trumpets the three signs of the Woman the Dragon and the seven angels with the seven bowls of wrath are dealt with in the next three chapters The final chapter outlines the climax of the book Harlot Babylon the evil city is judged and falls and following the intervention of the bridegroom Lamb and the removal of God's enemies the marriage of the Lamb reaches its fulfillment when the prepared wife becomes the possessed bride In the imagery of this text the kingdom has come Uniquely this book reads the entire Apocalypse in a nuptial manner This is a love story Jesus the lover following the pattern of Jewish marriage in the first century helps his espoused wife the seven churches to persevere in their nuptial response of love to him their first love After coming through the tribulation they finally become his beloved possessed Bride filled with glory This eschatological union of love is humankind's destiny

Revelation (Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture) Peter S. Williamson, 2015-03-10 In this addition to the well received Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture CCSS seasoned New Testament scholar and popular speaker Peter Williamson interprets Revelation from within the living tradition of the Church for pastoral ministers lay readers and students alike The seventeen volume CCSS series which will cover the entire New Testament relates Scripture to Christian life today is faithfully Catholic and is supplemented by features designed to help readers understand the Bible more deeply and use it more effectively in teaching preaching evangelization and other forms of ministry Drawn from the best of contemporary scholarship series volumes are keyed to the liturgical year and include an index of pastoral subjects

Woman, Mother, and Bride Felise Tavo, 2007 Over the past fifty years studies pertaining to the reality of the church in the Apocalypse have for the most part tended to be either selective or sketchy in their treatment of the relevant material of the book Yet in all fairness to the seer of Patmos his portrayal of the church as a reality decidedly complex and at once profound can only be attained in a thoroughgoing study of the principal ecclesial narratives of his work so as to allow for that indispensable synoptic overview of such intentionally correlated material Woman Mother and Bride is such a study It re-examines the relevant imagery of the Apocalypse but from the perspective of the seer's ecclesial thought world and on the basis of his overriding pastoral concerns for the seven churches without which his work will continue to puzzle and trouble at

The Challenge of the Apocalypse Laurin Wenig,2002 No book of the Bible evokes as much controversy as the book of Revelation Its images conjure fear and dread for most readers states Laurin Wenig In this thought provoking book he offers readers an informed accurate and pastoral background for understanding the book of Revelation whether one approaches it solo or in a group So often passages and images from the Book of Revelation inspire fear and dread in most readers To counter this the author uses contemporary Catholic exegesis to help us understand the worldview of early believers and places the message of the Book of Revelation in the context in which it was written for the edification of readers not to frighten them Modern readers will discover the Book of Revelation in the context of faith and hope not destruction Points of interest for personal reading and reflection for parish study groups contains charts maps and reflection questions

Apocalypse Now? Professor Duncan B Forrester,2013-05-28 How may people of faith respond wisely constructively and courageously to the challenges of a time of terror How might religious reasons in public debate be a force for reconciliation rather than violence and hatred In a world in which religious arguments and religious motivations play such a huge public role there is an urgent responsibility for interpreting what is happening and engaging with religious views which are commonly regarded as alien threatening or dangerous In Apocalypse Now Duncan Forrester argues that disorders and atrocities which include the Gulag the Holocaust 9 11 the Afghanistan and Iraq wars and the Tsunami disaster have shown us that we stand not at the end of history but in the midst of an apocalyptic age of terror which has striking similarities to the time in which Christianity was born Moving between two times of terror the early Centuries of Christianity and today Forrester asks how religious motivations can play a positive role in the midst of conflicts and disasters Reading the signs of the times to try to understand what is happening in today s age of terror Forrester argues that there are huge resources in the Christian tradition that can be productively deployed for a more constructive and faithful response We are at a turning point this is a book which should be read
