

A romantic couple is shown from the chest up, sitting on a bed. The man, on the left, has short brown hair and is wearing a white t-shirt. The woman, on the right, has long, dark, curly hair and is wearing a white top. They are both smiling and looking at each other. In front of them, two small dogs are sitting on the bed. The dog on the left is a tan and white Chihuahua. The dog on the right is a white dog, possibly a Maltese, wearing a black and white striped bow tie. The background is slightly blurred, showing a patterned pillow and a lamp.

Sailors and Sexual Identity Steven Zeeland, 2013-08-21 In Sailors and Sexual Identity author Steven Zeeland talks with young male sailors both gay and straight identified about ways in which their social and sexual lives have been shaped by their Navy careers Despite massive media attention to the issue there remains a gross disparity between the public perception of gays in the military and the sexual realities of military life The conversations in this book reveal how known gay and straight men can and do get along in the sexually tense confines of barracks and shipboard life once they discover that the imagined boundary between them is not in fact a hard line The stories recounted here in vivid detail call into question the imagined boundaries between gay and straight homosexual and homosocial and suggest a secret Pentagon motivation for the gay ban to protect homoerotic military rituals buddy love and covert military homosexuality from the taint of sexual suspicion Zeeland's interviews explore many aspects of contemporary life in the Navy including gay straight friendship networks the sexual charge to the Navy Marine Corps rivalry the reality behind sailors reputations as sexual adventurers in port and at sea men's differing interpretations of homoerotic military rituals and initiations sex and gender stereotypes associated with military job specialties how sailors view being seen as sex objects Everyone interested in the issue of gays in the military along with a general gay readership gay veterans and gay men for whom sailors represent a sexual ideal will find Sailors and Sexual Identity an informative and entertaining read Visit Steven Zeeland at his home page <http://www.stevenzeeland.com>

Forever, That's How Long I'm Going to Love You Zeke Smith, 2012-04-23 A modern day love story about a couple named Zeke and Legs Zeke sprung from a world filled with danger and secrets He was raised by two parents that instilled strong moral values in him Zeke instead began to favor the excitement of the street life Legs on the other hand was a stunning beauty from a loving family that fell victim to the negative trappings of urban life Their paths crossed as they were beginning to live a normal life Legs and Zeke fell madly in love in only a short time Their lust and desire for each became a priority They decided to marry when a child was on the way This began the drama that was their life Keep an open mind as you relive their lives The story is written with truth and detailed accounts of the many events that took place They both found God and sought redemption through Jesus the Christ Don't let the discomfort of their acts deter you from reading their entire story Remember they had to live through it too The real heroes of the story are God and Christ consequently without the resurrecting power of the almighty their lives may have remained lost I suggest you keep a Bible close by just as I did while writing the story
