Everything But The Entree:

Everything But the Entree Junior League of Parkersburg (Parkersburg, W. Va.),1999 This book is what you need to complement entr es for your next cocktail party spring picnic or fall tailgating party From accompaniments soups and breads to desserts breakfasts and brunches this is a long overdue addition to your collection Over 200 dishes that are inviting and easy So add pizzazz to your parties with anything and Everything but the Entr e Entry E Richard Frede,2019-11-01 Entry E first published in 1958 is a noir thriller set on a fictional Ivy League campus in the 1950s Set in residence hall Entry E the novel follows Ed Bogard an average student who becomes aware of an unsavory plan A group of men in his hall are preparing to drug a visiting college girl over the weekend with grain alcohol and benzedrine a date rape mix allowing the men to take advantage of the defenseless young woman Bogard agonizes over the best course of action and whether or not to take steps to stop his fellow students The novel is enlivened by the author s attention to detail the dress of the times the campus weather the important football game and the cafeteria conversations Author Richard Frede 1934 2004 a Yale University graduate wrote a number of novels and screenplays Food Robert Palmatier,2000-08-30 Each of the more than seven hundred entries in the dictionary contains a description of the historical background of each of the two types of language literal and nonliteral and provides an explanation for the relationship between them Wherever possible dates of first record in English are provided along with the bibliographical sources of these dates and all of the works that record those terms and expressions are given in coded form as listed in the Key to Works Cited A Guide to Reading the Entries illustrates the typical form of an entry by analyzing an example from the dictionary that introduces five nonliteral expressions cites thirteen bibliographical sources and refers the reader to three other relevant entries by means of cross references Following the dictionary proper is a Classification of Terms According to Source in which nearly three hundred nonliteral terms and expressions are listed under the more than four hundred literal categories from which they derive Gang Entry and Exit in Cape Town Dariusz Dziewanski,2021-10-04 Joint Winner of the 2023 ASSAf Humanities Book Award in the Emerging Researcher Category This book showcases a practical starting point for changing how criminologists think about gangs and street culture offering hope to those trying to exit gang life as well as those trying to help them do so Mothering and Desistance in Re-Entry Venezia Michalsen,2018-11-05 Although there is plentiful research on the impact of marriage employment and the military on desistance from criminal behaviour in the lives of men far less is known about the factors most important to women s desistance Imprisoned women are far more likely than their male counterparts to be the primary caretakers of children before their incarceration and are far more likely to intend to reunify with their children upon their release from incarceration This book focuses on the role of mothering in women s desistance from criminal behaviour Drawing on original research this book explores the nature of mothering during incarceration how mothers maintain a relationship with their children from behind bars and the ways in which mothering makes desistance more or less likely after incarceration It outlines the ways in which race gender class nationality sexuality gender identity and other characteristics affect mothering and desistance and explores the tensions between individual and system level factors in the consideration of desistance This book suggests that any discussion of desistance particularly for women must move beyond the traditional focus on individual characteristics and decision making Such a focus overlooks the role played by context and systems which undermine both women s attempts to be mothers and their attempts to desist By contrast in the tradition of Beth Richie s Compelled to Crime this book explores both the trees and the forests and the quantum in between in a way that aims for lasting societal and individual changes
