Rewriting Eve Ronna J. Detrick, 2025-07-30 We wouldn't consider letting Isis Medusa Pandora or Persephone slip from our lexicon To somehow forget the legend of Harriet Tubman Anne Frank or Mother Teresa would never cross our minds And yet when it comes to the stories of Eve and other biblical characters they are rarely known barely appreciated and ostensibly lost by most of us not deeply entwined within organized religion Trapped in patriarchy and theological argument dismissed as irrelevant or viewed as unchangeable even as times change these women's voices desires and hearts have too often been silenced through misunderstanding and neglect As result we are as well But when they are reimagined deconstructed disentangled from doctrine and dogma and heard on their own terms these stories become powerful inspiration and a source of discernment that reconnects us to a feminine lineage and a sovereign sense of self we've never known to call on or trust In Rewriting Eve Rescuing Women's Stories from the Bible and Reclaiming Them As Our Own Ronna Detrick invites us into the presence and power of ten sacred women revealing the endlessly relevant ways in which they speak today and showing how they can heal embolden and transform our stories

I only desired what my friends had Pierpaolo Maiorano, 2024-03-30 A novel that deals with an extremely sensitive and topical issue Teen prostitution coercive or voluntary It talks almost exclusively about the coercive form of the phenomenon rightly so since it is the dramatic part and involves very young unwitting victims and must be opposed with all our might However we must not forget that there is also the voluntary aspect A phenomenon that is much more widespread than we think among today's teenagers who in order to get recharges latest generation cell phones rather than a designer dress or money choose to sell their bodies consciously And not always as in the case of the protagonist driven by the family's precarious economic conditions This is also to be countered upstream In the book the two aspects intersect proceeding in parallel developing a dense seamless compelling plot Asha is the third child of an Albanian immigrant family in Italy for 20 years Decent honest hard working people well integrated into the social fabric but barely making ends meet Seeing her friends dress well have beautiful homes and everything they desire while she is forced to wear shabby clothes and live in a dilapidated house makes her feel envious Drawn by a friend blinded by the prospect of having what her parents cannot give her she runs away and decides to sell her body to get them This choice however while allowing her to fulfill all her desires soon makes her regret not being able to have a life as a normal teenager cultivating friendships laughing joking falling in love Sold to a criminal organization segregated and forced to their will she escapes several times but is always found Discovering that she is pregnant unable to find the little boy with whom she conceived him she attempts to make a middle aged man whom she met during one of her escapes believe that he is the child s father Having failed in this attempt as well tired of running away with those criminals who give her no respite she decides to end it all The discovery of her suicide note which she leaves on a coffee shop table kicks off the story
