Eviction Jessica Field,2025-09-16 An alternative history of housing in post war Britain a cautionary tale of rent precarity and working class resistance Grounded in personal experience Eviction uncovers a hidden history of housing injustice and working class resistance in what has become a perennial battleground for social conflict in modern Britain In 2017 Jessica Field s parents and more than a hundred of their neighbours received warning of imminent eviction Their corporate landlord intended to demolish their affordable privately rented homes to replace them with middle class houses for sale Led by the women of the estate tenants launched an anti eviction campaign to save their close knit community from destruction The neighbourhood was the last remnant of a 1950s National Coal Board estate constructed to house local miners When the coal industry declined in the 1970s whole estates were auctioned off to speculators Low income tenants were at the mercy of global investors Houses were left to rot Rents soared Tenants were exploited every step of the way Yet time and again tenant activists especially women fought back Eviction is a history of the British housing crisis in microcosm *Alerta! Forced Evictions-- Towards Solutions? ,2007 At the Edges of Citizenship Kate Hepworth,2016-04-22 Proposing a new dynamic conception of citizenship this book argues against understandings of citizenship as a collection of rights that can be either possessed or endowed and demonstrates it is an emergent condition that has temporal and spatial dimensions Furthermore citizenship is shown to be continually and contingently reconstituted through the struggles between those considered insiders and outsiders Significantly these struggles do not result in a clear division between citizens and non citizens but in a multiplicity of states that are at once included within and excluded from the political community These liminal states of citizenship are elaborated in relation to three specific forms of non citizenship the respectable illegal the intimate foreigner and the abject citizen Each of these modalities of citizenship corresponds to either the figure of the clandestino or the nomad as invoked in the 2008 Italian Security Package and a second set of laws commonly referred to as the Nomad Emergency Decree Exploring how this legislation affected and was negotiated by individuals and groups who were constituted as objects of security author Kate Hepworth focuses on the first hand experience of individuals deemed threats to the nation Situated within the field of human geography the book draws on literature from citizenship studies critical security studies and migration studies to show how processes of securitisation and irregularisation work to delimit between citizens and non citizens as well as between legitimate and illegitimate outsiders

Geographies of Forced Eviction Katherine Brickell, Melissa Fernández Arrigoitia, Alexander Vasudevan, 2017-01-09 This book offers a close look at forced evictions drawing on empirical studies and conceptual frameworks from both the Global North and South It draws attention to arenas where multiple logics of urban dispossession violence and insecurity are manifest and where wider socio economic political and legal struggles converge The authors highlight the need to apply emotional and affective registers of dispossession and insecurity to the socio political and financial economies driving forced evictions across geographic scales The chapters each consider the distinct urban logics of precarious housing or involuntary displacements that stretch across London Barcelona Rio de Janeiro Shanghai and Colombo A timely addition to existing literature on urban studies this collection will be of great interest to policy makers and scholars of human geography development studies and sociology

Resisting Eviction Andrew Crosby, 2023-11-09T00:00:00Z Resisting Eviction centres tenant organizing in its investigation of gentrification eviction and the financialization of rental housing Andrew Crosby argues that racial discrimination property relations and settler colonialism inform contemporary urban re development efforts and impacts affordable housing loss How can the City of Ottawa aspire to become North America's most liveable mid sized city while large scale demolition driven evictions displace hundreds of people and destroy a community Troubling discourses of urban liveability revitalization and improvement Crosby examines the deliberate destruction of home domicile and tenant resistance in the Heron Gate neighbourhood in Ottawa on unceded Algonquin land Heron Gate is a large rental neighbourhood owned by one multi billion dollar real estate investment firm Around 800 people predominantly lower income racialized households have been demovicted and displaced from the neighbourhood since 2016 leading to the emergence of the Herongate Tenant Coalition to fight the evictions and confront the landlord developer This case study is meticulously documented through political activist ethnography making this book a brilliant example of ethical engagement and methodological integrity
