Changing Social Norms to Universalize Girls' Education in East Africa Auma Okwany ,Rekha Wazir,2016-12-20

The educational experience reproduces gender ideologies and social norms which interact with schooling for girls in very particular ways and are implicated in their persistent gendered exclusion and marginalization The authors in this volume focus on this link by taking a social norms approach to profile the processes strategies of and research on community led interventions The chapters are paced around a pilot project that critically adapted a successful model in India to develop context appropriate integrated approaches to universalizing secondary education for girls in purposively selected rural and urban poor contexts in Kenya and Uganda The analyses provide reflexive documentation of the successes and challenges of project implementation activities that have successfully contested girls exclusion and marginalization in education This requires a sustained focus on the link between social and educational institutions and policies and working in an integrated manner with a range of policy actors including young people and targeted communities to bring about significant and sustainable change

Development Policies and Policy Processes in Africa Christian Henning,Ousmane Badiane,Eva Krampe,2017-10-05 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license The book examines the methodological challenges in analyzing the effectiveness of development policies It presents a selection of tools and methodologies that can help tackle the complexities of which policies work best and why and how they can be implemented effectively given the political and economic framework conditions of a country The contributions in this book offer a continuation of the ongoing evidence based debate on the role of agriculture and participatory policy processes in reducing poverty They develop and apply quantitative political economy approaches by integrating quantitative models of political decision making into existing economic modeling tools allowing a more comprehensive growth poverty analysis The book addresses not only scholars who use quantitative policy modeling and evaluation techniques in their empirical or theoretical research but also technical experts including policy makers and analysts from stakeholder organizations involved in formulating and implementing policies to reduce poverty and to increase economic and social well being in African countries

Improving data quality for the CAADP biennial review: A partnership initiative piloted in five countries Benin, Samuel,Karugia,

Joseph,Matchaya, Greenwell,Yade, Mbaye,2020-05-07 This paper presents results of a data partnership framework for strengthening evidence based planning and implementation that was initiated in 2019 in five selected African countries Kenya Malawi Mozambique Senegal and Togo during the second round of the CAADP biennial review BR process It analyzes the effect of the activities conducted on the data reporting rate and the quality of data reported in the five pilot countries compared with what was achieved in like pilot countries The like pilot countries are non pilot countries that have characteristics like the pilot countries at the baseline which affect selection into the pilot or the data reporting and quality outcomes Different methods standard deviations propensity score matching and two stage weighted regression are used to identify the like pilot countries and a difference in difference method is used to estimate the effect of the pilot activities on the outcomes The capacity strengthening activities focused on working with the country Biennial Review BR team to assess the inaugural or 2018 BR process and identify the data gaps constitute and train members of data clusters to compile and check the data for the 2020 BR and then validate and submit the data The findings show that the activities helped the pilot countries to improve their performance in the data reporting rate and the quality of data reported in the 2020 BR The largest improvement is observed in Togo and Senegal followed by Kenya and Malawi and then Mozambique The average increase in the data reporting rate between 2018 and 2020 BRs for the pilot countries is greater than the average progress made in the like pilot countries by about 6 to 9 % pts This derives mostly from improvements in the data reporting rate for the indicators under theme 3 on ending hunger Regarding the quality of data reported measured as the percent of the data reported that have issues too the pilot countries on average performed better than the like pilot countries especially with respect to the data reported under themes 2 on investment in agriculture and 3 on ending hunger But most of the estimated differences have low or no statistical significance Implications for sustaining the progress made in the pilot countries as well as for extending the activities to other countries for the next rounds of the BR are discussed The Change Book Attc Network,2010-06 Since it was first published in 2000 The Change Book has proven to be a landmark document for the addictions treatment and recovery services field It is the first publication of its kind to outline the multidimensional aspects of instituting change specifically for addiction related agencies Within The Change Book are practical steps towards bringing about and maintaining change However change is not easy Effective technology transfer efforts involve change at a variety of levels within the overall system The Change Book offers a comprehensive blueprint for change which will help direct each aspect of the design development implementation evaluation and revision of a technology transfer plan Factors influencing the success of a technology transfer initiative effective change strategies and Principles for successful adoption to occur are addressed Today The Change Book is effectively guiding professionals across the country to create sustained change Its design helps frontline treatment practitioners to implement new treatment modalities within their agencies as well as government officials in state departments work toward system wide changes Although targeted for the addictions treatment and recovery services field The Change Book has been successful in guiding change within other industries and fields of study Demand for this publication continues to outnumber supply as requests for The Change Book are made daily For this reason the Addiction Tecnology Transfer Center ATTC Network www.ATTCnetwork.org will now offer the second edition of The Change Book through an innovative distribution method made in partnership with AuthorHouse R The Change Book is now readily available through AuthorHouse R as well as a broad array of online venues Health Behavior Change in Populations Scott Kahan,Andrea Carlson Gielen,Peter J. Fagan,Lawrence W. Green,2014-11-26 Focuses on today s major public health concerns to teach students the principles of population health behavior and behavior change The single greatest way to improve health and quality of life is not by developing new medical approaches but by addressing harmful personal behaviors. These behaviors, which include tobacco, alcohol, and drug use, diet, and physical activity, play a significant role in the risk for and development, treatment, and management of the most common causes of disease, disability, and death in the modern world. Health Behavior Change in Populations is designed to teach students and practitioners strategic principles for creating positive behavioral change on a population level. With an emphasis on the application of theory and research to practice, this textbook presents current and future public health professionals with a range of methods geared towards helping people make healthy choices from informing the individual to modifying the surroundings and circumstances that drive decision making. Written and edited by experts in the health professions, the book is arranged into three sections: State of the Field, State of the Science, and Cross Cutting Issues. The chapters within these sections include learning objectives with boldfaced keywords and a glossary of terms. Each chapter addresses the magnitude of the public health burden, key determinants, and conceptual framework for behaviors and behavior change, including individual, familial, interpersonal, community, sociocultural, structural, and political perspectives. Current evidence-based interventions and best practices, roles for key stakeholders including health plans, employers, workplace health departments, agencies, sectors such as recreational and agricultural policymakers, community groups, advocates, clinics, clinicians, researchers, and funding institutions, considerations for implementation, evaluation, and translation.

Basic Methods Handbook for Clinical Orthopaedic

Research Volker Musahl, Jón Karlsson, Michael T. Hirschmann, Olufemi R. Ayeni, Robert G. Marx, Jason L. Koh, Norimasa Nakamura, 2019-02-01. This book is designed to meet the needs of both novice and senior researchers in Orthopaedics by providing the essential clinically relevant knowledge on research methodology that is sometimes overlooked during training. Readers will find a wealth of easy-to-understand information on all relevant aspects from protocol design, the fundamentals of statistics, and the use of computer-based tools through to the performance of clinical studies with different levels of evidence: multicenter studies, systematic reviews, meta-analyses, and economic health care studies. A key feature is a series of typical case examples that will facilitate use of the volume as a handbook for most common research approaches and study types. Younger researchers will also appreciate the guidance on preparation of abstracts, poster and paper presentations, grant applications, and publications. The authors are internationally renowned orthopaedic surgeons with extensive research experience, and the book is published in collaboration with ISAKOS.
