Experimental Spiritism. The Mediums' Book; Or, Guide for Mediums and for Evocations ... Translated ... by Anna Blackwell, 1876 Multimodal Pedagogies in Diverse Classrooms Pippa Stein, 2007-11-07 This book examines how the classroom can become a democratic space and is essential reading for anyone interested in multimodality pedagogy social justice Archaeology and Women Sue Hamilton, Ruth D Whitehouse, Katherine I Wright, 2016-09-16 Archaeology and Women draws together from a variety of angles work currently being done within a contemporary framework on women in archaeology One section of this collection of original articles addresses the historical and contemporary roles of women in the discipline Another attempts to link contemporary archaeological theory and practice to work on women and gender in other fields Finally this volume presents a wide diversity of theoretical approaches and methods of study of women in the ancient world representing a cross section of work being carried out today under the broad banner of gender archaeology The geographical and chronological range of the contributions is also wide from Southeast Asia and South America to Western Asia Egypt and Europe from Great Britain to Greece and from 10 000 years ago to the recent past An ideal sampler for courses dealing with women and archaeology Canon Constitution and Canon Change in Children's Literature Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, Anja Muller, 2016-12-01 This volume focuses on the de canonization processes in children's literature considering the construction and cultural historical changes of canons in different children's literatures Chapters by international experts in the field explore a wide range of different children's literatures from Great Britain Germany Scandinavia the Low Countries Eastern and Central Europe as well as from Non European countries such as Australia Israel and the United States Situating the inquiry within larger literary and cultural studies conversations about canonicity the contributors assess representative authors and works that have encountered changing fates in the course of canon history Particular emphasis is given to sociological canon theories which have so far been under represented in canon research in children's literature The volume therefore relates historical changes in the canon of children's literature not only to historical changes in concepts of childhood but to more encompassing political social economic cultural and ideological shifts This volume's comparative approach takes cognizance of the fact that if canon formation is an important cultural factor in nation building processes a comparative study is essential to assessing transnational processes in canon formation This book thus renders evident the structural similarities between patterns and strategies of canon formation emerging in different children

s literatures      The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines Timothy Insoll, 2017-04-13 Figurines dating from prehistory have been found across the world but have never before been considered globally The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines is the first book to offer a comparative survey of this kind bringing together approaches from across the landscape of contemporary research into a definitive resource in the field The volume is comprehensive authoritative and accessible with dedicated and fully illustrated chapters covering figurines from the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australasia and the Pacific laid out by geographical location and written by the foremost scholars in figurine studies wherever prehistoric figurines are found they have been expertly described and examined in relation to their subject matter form function context chronology meaning and interpretation Specific themes that are discussed by contributors include for example theories of figurine interpretation meaning in processes and contexts of figurine production use destruction and disposal and the cognitive and social implications of representation Chronologically the coverage ranges from the Middle Palaeolithic through to areas and periods where an absence of historical sources renders figurines prehistoric even though they might have been produced in the mid 2nd millennium AD as in parts of sub Saharan Africa The result is a synthesis of invaluable insights into past thinking on the human body gender identity and how the figurines might have been used either practically ritually or even playfully      The Oxford Handbook of Light in Archaeology Costas Papadopoulos, Holley Moyes, 2021-12-09 Light has a fundamental role to play in our perception of the world Natural or artificial lightscapes orchestrate uses and experiences of space and in turn influence how people construct and negotiate their identities form social relationships and attribute meaning to im material practices Archaeological practice seeks to analyse the material culture of past societies by examining the interaction between people things and spaces As light is a crucial factor that mediates these relationships understanding its principles and addressing illumination s impact on sensory experience and perception should be a fundamental pursuit in archaeology However in archaeological reasoning studies of lightscapes have remained largely neglected and understudied This volume provides a comprehensive and accessible consideration of light in archaeology and beyond by including dedicated and fully illustrated chapters covering diverse aspects of illumination in different spatial and temporal contexts from prehistory to the present Written by leading international scholars it interrogates the qualities and affordances of light in different contexts and im material environments explores its manipulation and problematises its elusive properties The result is a synthesis of invaluable insights into sensory experience and perception demonstrating illumination s vital impact on social cultural and artistic contexts      Africa in the American Imagination Carol Magee, 2012-04-26 In the American world the presence of African culture is sometimes fully embodied and sometimes leaves only a trace Africa in the American Imagination Popular Culture Racialized Identities and African Visual Culture explores this presence examining Mattel s world of Barbie the 1996 Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue and Disney World each of which repackages African visual culture for consumers Because these cultural icons permeate American life they represent the broader U S culture and its relationship to African culture This study integrates approaches from art history and visual culture studies with those from culture race and popular culture studies to analyze this interchange Two major threads weave throughout One analyzes how the presentation of African visual culture in these popular culture forms conceptualizes Africa for the American public The other investigates the way the uses of African visual culture focuses America s own self awareness particularly around black and white racialized identities In exploring the multiple meanings that Africa has in American popular culture Africa in the American Imagination argues that these cultural products embody multiple perspectives and speak to various sociopolitical contexts the Cold War civil rights and contemporary eras of the United States the apartheid and post apartheid eras of South Africa the colonial and postcolonial eras of Ghana and the European era of African colonization      Asking for Eyes Teri L. Sowell,2004      Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Gabriela C. Zapata,Mary Kalantzis,Bill Cope,2023-12-22 Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Towards Education Justice examines how multiliteracies and Learning by Design have been taken up across international second language instructional contexts with a focus on inclusive practices and social justice This edited collection brings together a team of international contributors to offer a global perspective on the application of multiliteracies in L2 education Through the analysis of classroom based qualitative and quantitative data on different aspects of the multiliteracies pedagogy the book shows how the multiliteracies pedagogy can facilitate more inclusive practices while providing suggestions for pedagogical interventions and future research This book will be a key resource for language educators researchers and practitioners interested in the multiliteracies pedagogy as well as those interested in critical and social justice approaches to language teaching      Children and Everyday Life in the Roman and Late Antique World Christian Laes,Ville Vuolanto,2016-11-10 Children and Everyday Life in the Roman and Late Antique World explores what it meant to be a child in the Roman world what were children s concerns interests and beliefs and whether we can find traces of children s own cultures By combining different theoretical approaches and source materials the contributors explore the environments in which children lived their experience of everyday life and what the limits were for their agency The volume brings together scholars of archaeology and material culture classicists ancient historians theologians and scholars of early Christianity and Judaism all of whom have long been involved in the study of the social and cultural history of children The topics discussed include children s living environments clothing childhood care social relations leisure and play health and disability upbringing and schooling and children s experiences of death While the main focus of the volume is on Late Antiquity its coverage begins with the early Roman Empire and extends to the early ninth century CE The result is the first book length scrutiny of the agency and experience of pre modern children      Early Child Development in the French Tradition Andre Vyt,Henriette Bloch,Marc H. Bornstein,2013-05-13 This volume shares significant contemporary Francophone contributions to developmental psychology outside geographic and intellectual borders of French speaking countries Except for the spread of Piagetian theory after World War II into Anglophone psychology these new publications have not become so well known worldwide as progress in Francophone developmental psychology warrants However the work of a new generation of developmental theorists and experimentalists continues to shape important and original lines of thinking and research in France Canada and in other French speaking countries This work also contributes uniquely to issues such as sensori motor development perception language acquisition social interaction and the growth and induction of cognitive mechanisms Scientific concepts are not only embedded in a paradigm but also in a culture and a language Instead of writing about Francophone developmental psychology from outside this volume brings together original English language contributions written by researchers working in different Francophone countries Chapters summarize and interpret research on a given topic making explicit the context of philosophical and theoretical traditions in which the empirical advances are embedded Original essays are accompanied by editorial commentaries from eminent scientists working on the same topics in other parts of the world topics that are closely related to Francophone streams of thought and themes of study Together these essays fully and faithfully represent modern scientific perspectives toward understanding many facets of mental growth and development of the young child

Evocations for Beginners Harry Eilenstein,2021-04-29 Summoning spirits evocation does not have the best reputation as long as they are not called apparitions of Mary cult of the dead invocations of gods spiritualism or family constellations What is so scary about contact with spirits In dream journeys one also meets all kinds of spirits and poltergeists always come quite unasked The problem is mainly the fear of death of the spirits of the dead This has not always been the case close contact with the dead was first demonized by the Christian missionaries They put the one God Father in place of the deceased physical father of every human being and formed the devil from the archetype of the ancestor spirit There is hardly an early culture in which spirits were not conjured up Examples of this can be found in the Neolithic Age in Egypt Sumer among the Hittites the Romans in Africa in the Old and New Testaments among the Germanic peoples the Celts in Islam and so on There is a great variety in the methods of evocation in the reasons for them in their procedure and in their place in the culture but the basic principle is very simple

The Poetics of Slumberland Scott Bukatman,2012-03-26 In The Poetics of Slumberland Scott Bukatman celebrates play plasmatic possibility and the life of images in cartoons comics and cinema Bukatman begins with Winsor McCay's Little Nemo in Slumberland to explore how and why the emerging media of comics and cartoons brilliantly captured a playful rebellious energy characterized by hyperbolic emotion physicality and imagination The book broadens to consider similar animated behaviors in seemingly disparate media films about Jackson Pollock Pablo Picasso and Vincent van Gogh the musical My Fair Lady and the story of Frankenstein the slapstick comedies of Jerry Lewis and contemporary comic superheroes drawing them all together as the purveyors of embodied utopias of disorder

Bulletin University of Michigan. Museum of Art,2005 Laboring to Play Melanie Dawson,2013-09-05 A compelling analysis of how middling Americans entertained themselves and how these entertainments changed over time The changing styles of middle class home entertainments Melanie Dawson argues point to evolving ideas of class identity in U S culture Drawing from 19th and early 20th century fiction guidebooks on leisure newspaper columns and a polemical examination of class structures Laboring to Play interrogates the ways that leisure performances such as parlor games charades home dramas and tableaux vivants encouraged participants to test out the boundaries that were beginning to define middle class lifestyles From 19th century parlor games involving grotesque physical contortions to early 20th century recitations of an idealized past leisure employments mediated between domestic and public spheres individuals and class based affiliations and ideals of egalitarian social life and visible hierarchies based on privilege Negotiating these paradigms home entertainments provided their participants with unique ways of performing displays of individual ambitions within a world of polite social interaction Laboring to Play deals with subjects as wide ranging as social performances social history etiquette and gentility literary history representations of childhood and the history of the book
