The Space Transportation Market: Evolution or Revolution? Michael J Rycroft, 2012-12-06 M Rycroft Faculty Member International Space University e mail Rycroft@isu.isunet.edu The Space Transportation Market Evolution or Revolution was the question which was the focus for the papers presented and also the Panel Discussions at the fifth annual Symposium organised by the International Space University Held in Strasbourg France for three lively days at the end of May 2000 the Symposium brought together representatives of the developers providers and operators of space transportation systems of regulatory bodies and of users of the space transportation infrastructure in many fields as well as experts in policy and market analysis From the papers published here it is clear that today s answer to the question tends more towards evolution than to revolution The space launch industry is still not a fully mature one and is still reliant on at least partial funding by governments Better cooperation is essential between governments launch providers satellite builders and satellite operators in order to reduce the problems which the space transportation market faces today
