The Evolutionary Neuroethology of Paul MacLean Gerald A. Cory Jr., Russell Gardner Jr., 2002-12-30 In the mid 20th century integrative efforts began concerning the brain and its social and humanistic functions These efforts were led by Paul D MacLean s integrative research and thought As the century ended however such efforts were lost in the surge of new effort in brain and genome research Nobel Prizes were awarded on biochemical and cellular findings relevant to psychiatry Findings on these levels seemed to provide ultimate answers By contrast Cory Gardner and their contributors provide a more comprehensive view by extending MacLean s findings and integrative theory Supported by new findings and extended by critical analyses of current work the collection provides foundations for more integrative efforts that the editors and contributors believe will prevail increasingly in coming decades Looked at from another vantage point therapeutic social economic and political sciences have proceeded without operating theories congruent with or based on brain functions Across species perspectives have been lacking This collection redresses this problem and leads the way toward more comprehensive 21st century research on the one hand and practical applications on the other Multiple approaches extend from modeling efforts to across species comparisons to the basic science of psychiatry to theoretical explanations of political and economic systems But most important these essays abolish the Berlin wall that currently separates the brain from its social functions A major guide for scholars students and researchers involved in the neurobehavioral sciences for psychologists psychiatrists and others involved with human clinical sciences and for social scientists concerned with the impact of the nervous system and its function

Handbook of Contemporary Behavioral Economics Morris Altman, 2015-01-30 At a time when both scholars and the public demand explanations and answers to key economic problems that conventional approaches have failed to resolve this groundbreaking handbook of original works by leading behavioral economists offers the first comprehensive articulation of behavioral economics theory Borrowing from the findings of psychologists sociologists political scientists legal scholars and biologists among others behavioral economists find that intelligent individuals often tend not to behave as effectively or efficiently in their economic decisions as long held by conventional wisdom The manner in which individuals actually do behave critically depends on psychological institutional cultural and even biological considerations Handbook of Contemporary Behavioral Economics includes coverage of such critical areas as the Economic Agent Context and Modeling Decision Making Experiments and Implications Labor Issues Household and Family Issues Life and Death Taxation Ethical Investment and Tipping and Behavioral Law and Macroeconomics Each contribution includes an extensive bibliography

Cognitive Science Daniel Kolak, William Hirstein, Peter Mandik, Jonathan Waskan, 2006-10-03 A clear collaborative introduction and the first textbook to present a unified approach to the different strands of cognitive science Including illustrations exercises and glossary this will prove invaluable to all students of cognition

Questioning Humanity Thomas Osborne, Nikolas Rose, 2024-06-05 This visionary book questions what it means to be human today and in the future Drawing on the natural human and life sciences Thomas Osborne and Nikolas Rose encourage us to reconsider the human condition and the ways in which humans are affected by their animality technology and the prospect of their annihilation

Understanding Your 7 Emotions Lawrence Howells, 2021-12-20 Understanding Your 7 Emotions explains how emotions help us to respond to the world around us and are fundamental to our existence The book provides a detailed understanding of the main human emotions fear sadness anger disgust guilt shame and happiness showing how to live with them and how to resolve problems with them Each of the seven chapters also includes an emotional trap to highlight what happens when we get stuck responding in unhelpful ways and explains how to get out of the trap Grounded in emotion science and cognitive behavioural therapy the book provides a powerful alternative to mental health diagnosis Examples and exercises are provided throughout to help apply the ideas in everyday life and achieve health and happiness This easy to read guide will help anybody who is interested in emotions or is struggling with common mental health problems to better understand how emotions work and improve their own and others mental health and emotional wellbeing It will also be an invaluable resource to those working in the caring professions

Hierarchies in the Brain, Mind and Behaviour Gerald Wiest, 2025-03-21 The book describes the theoretical foundations and phenomenology of a hierarchical functional and organizational principle that is reflected in various concepts of the brain and mind According to these ideas neural and mental function is understood as the result of hierarchical superpositions that are hallmarks of ontogenetic and phylogenetic development The model implies control of subordinate elements by superior elements so that a disruption in this organization offers new possibilities for interpreting neural mental and psychopathological phenomena Hierarchical principles can be found in concepts of neurology neuroethology and psychoanalysis as well as in the theory of microgenesis By incorporating evolutionary and hierarchical aspects into explanatory models of human mind and behaviour this approach contrasts with the modular concepts of cognitive neuroscience

Renaissance in Behavioral Economics Roger Frantz, 2007-06-14 Economists working on behavioral economics have been awarded the Nobel Prize four times in recent years This book explores this innovative area and in particular focuses on the work of Harvey Leibenstein one of the pioneers of the discipline The topics covered in the book include agency theory dynamic efficiency evolutionary economics X efficiency the effect of emotions specifically affect on decision making market pricing experimental economics human resource management the Carnegie School and intra industry efficiency in less developed countries

Emotion Ross Buck, 2014-10-09 Emotions suffuse our lives a symphony of feeling usually whispering and murmuring in pianissimo but occasionally screaming and shouting in fortissimo crescendo filling every waking moment and even invading our dreams We can always be conscious of how happy sad annoyed or anxious we feel and also of the feelings we have relative to other persons pride envy guilt jealousy trust respect or resentment Developments in brain imaging and in capturing nuances of nonverbal display now enable the objective study of emotion and how biologically based primary emotions relate to higher level social cognitive and moral emotions This book presents an integrated developmental interactionist theory of emotion viewing subjective feelings as voices of the genes an affective symphony composed of dissociable albeit interactive neurochemical modules These primordial voices do not control but rather cajole our behavior with built in flexibility enabling the mindful application of learning reason and language

Alienation and Affect Warren TenHouten,2016-12-01 Alienation has objective social structural determinants yet is experienced subjectively as a psychological state involving both emotion and cognition Part I considers conceptualizations of alienation and affect in historical context emphasizing Rousseau Hegel Marx Simmel and Weber Part II develops a theory of the affective bases of Seeman s original five varieties of alienation normlessness meaninglessness self estrangement cultural estrangement and powerlessness The book argues that both normlessness and cultural estrangement manifest in two distinct forms and involve distinct emotions Thus it develops the affective bases of seven distinct varieties of alienation This work synthesizes classical and contemporary alienation theory and the sociology of emotions It contributes to political sociology and finds application in social psychiatry and related health and social service fields that treat traumatized and highly alienated individuals

Clearing a Way Trevor Griffiths,2024-01-26 How to make better life enhancing choices when environments crumble and population shifts disrupt our ways of living Dr Griffiths takes a deep look at how our brains trick us into seeing the surface of things so that we lose sight of the deep relatedness on which our survival as groups will increasingly depend Many astonishing insights follow Body mind dualism dissolves as the ecological person moves with others in a renewed group approach to thriving Dilemmas in the standard quantum view of matter and spirituality resolve so that groups of people are empowered by the same fusion energy burning in stars to renew their power of creative choice Human inner heart is restored over mind to its central place as personal values reshape the future

TenHouten,2006-11-22 Founded upon the psychoevolutionary theories of Darwin Plutchik and Izard a general socioevolutionary theory of the emotions affect spectrum theory classifies a wide spectrum of the emotions and analyzes them on the sociological psychological and neurobiological levels This neurocognitive sociology of the emotions supersedes the major theoretical perspectives developed in the sociology of emotions by showing primary emotions to be adaptive reactions to fundamental problems of life which have evolved into elementary social relationships and which can predict occurrences of the entire spectrum of primary complex secondary and tertiary emotions Written by leading social theorist Warren D TenHouten this book presents an encyclopaedic classification of the emotions describing forty six emotions in detail and presenting a general multilevel theory of emotions and social life The scope of coverage of this key work is highly topical and comprehensive and includes the development of emotions in childhood symbolic elaboration of complex emotions emotions management violence and cultural and gender differences While primary emotions have clearly defined valences this theory shows that complex emotions obey no algebraic law and that all emotions have both creative and destructive potentialities Economic Biology and Behavioral Economics Gerald A. Cory Jr.,2022-12-30

Economic Biology and Behavioral Economics The Prophecy of Alfred Marshall explores the prophecy of Alfred Marshall the grand synthesizer of neoclassical economics that the Mecca of the economist lies in economic biology The book presents the proof of that prophecy through examination and establishment of the fundamental biological science necessary and then applying that science to the examination of current economic theory In doing so the book focuses primarily on the fundamentals of neoclassical economic theory which is the reigning theory and the general framework of which is taught as science in first courses in college economics These courses are at best an idealization if not an ideology of the discipline presented to fresh minds misleadingly as confirmed science The book examines the bases and the history of these idealizations points to the sources of their error from the biological perspective and suggests a path forward for the discipline Through this process the book demonstrates the power of the biological perspective anticipated by Marshall This book provides invaluable reading for anyone interested in the future of economics and economic theory and particularly those interested in behavioral economics and neuroeconomics The Interface Between Psychoanalysis and Neuroscience:

, The Consilient Brain Gerald A. Cory Jr.,2012-12-06 The present work is the third in a series constituting an extension of my doctoral thesis done at Stanford in the early 1970s Like the earlier works The Reciprocal Modular Brain in Economics and Politics Shaping the Rational and Moral Basis of Organization Exchange and Choice Kluwer Academic/Plenum Publishing 1999 and Toward Consilience The Bioneurological Basis of Behavior Thought Experience and Language Kluwer Academic/Plenum Publishing 2000 it may also be considered to respond to the call for consilience by Edward O Wilson I agree with Wilson that there is a pressing need in the sciences today for the unification of the social with the natural sciences I consider the present work to proceed from the perspective of behavioral ecology specifically a subfield which I choose to call interpersonal behavioral ecology Ecology as a general field has emerged in the last quarter of the 20th century as a major theme of concern as we have become increasingly aware that we must preserve the planet whose limited resources we share with all other earthly creatures Interpersonal behavioral ecology however focuses not on the physical environment but upon our social environment It concerns our interpersonal behavioral interactions at all levels from simple dyadic one to one personal interactions to our larger even global social economic and political interactions
