Ex Lover A Novel:

The Novel Tim Parks, 2015-07-16 The Literary Agenda is a series of short polemical monographs about the importance of literature and of reading in the wider world and about the state of literary education inside schools and universities The category of the literary has always been contentious What is clear however is how increasingly it is dismissed or is unrecognised as a way of thinking or an arena for thought It is sceptically challenged from within for example by the sometimes rival claims of cultural history contextualized explanation or media studies It is shaken from without by even greater pressures by economic exigency and the severe social attitudes that can follow from it by technological change that may leave the traditional forms of serious human communication looking merely antiquated For just these reasons this is the right time for renewal to start reinvigorated work into the meaning and value of literary reading The Novel A Survival Skill is the fruit of a lifetime's search for a different more immediate but again systematic and serious way of talking about literature Developed over many years it offers a completely new account of the relationship between a writer his or her work and the reader As such it radically undermines traditional literary criticism and the various criteria used for evaluating a work of fiction Drawing on ideas from systemic psychology Tim Parks suggest that both the content and style of a novelist's work the kind of stories told and the way in which they are told form part of a more general strategy or simply habit of communication that the novelist has learned within his or her family of origin The reader reacts to these in very much the same way he or she would react to the same communicative strategy in a real life encounter different readers reacting differently depending on their own backgrounds and habits of communication Looking at the different value structures that can dominate in any family good evil independence dependence success failure belonging exclusion this book looks at how a number of major writers position themselves within these value structures how this positioning is manifest in their writing and how readers have responded to this depending on their own positioning in the same semantics Thomas Hardy for example a man eager to believe himself courageous but terrified of the consequences of any socially unacceptable behaviour constructs stories which are courageous in their willingness to debate difficult issues but which constantly suggest that any attempt to behave courageously is condemned to disaster Hardy as it were imprisons himself in a world where it is folly to take risks He is thus exceedingly conservative in his life while at the same time able to think of himself as courageous in his writing The Novel A Survival Skill looks at the way different readers in different periods respond to this depending on their own position with regard to fear courage social convention and so on Love and the Novel Christina Lupton, 2022-06-02 It is a clever well written book and I often found myself underlining whole paragraphs as I read wonderfully insightful I've never read accounts of any of these texts that manage to be at once so searching and so wondrously concise and Lupton made me want to go back to them all Rachel Cooke Observer Incandescent Lara Feigel Guardian A subversive brilliant and beautifully written book about love play and power in fiction and in the well read life Sarah Moss author of Summerwater A delicious combination of critical thought and passionate personal experience Tanya Shadrack author of The Cure for Sleep Romantic love was born alongside the novel and books have been shaping how we experience and think about our most intimate stories ever since But what do novels give us when our own lives diverge from the usual narrative paths Christina is a professor used to examining stories with a critical eye until one day in middle age she finds herself falling in love and leaving her marriage for a romance with another woman This involves a familiar enough tale but when her new partner suffers a stroke Tina begins to reflect on the sorts of love that novels rarely capture A heady mix of memoir criticism and storytelling that draws on novels ranging from Pride and Prejudice to Price of Salt Anna Karenina to Conversations with Friends to illuminate the ways love and novels work and show how some types of love which don't race to a narrative end point might be the most important of all

Love and the Novel G. Paizis,1998-09-07 The popularity of romance fiction is such that it constitutes nearly one quarter of new paperback fiction printed in the world Its success depends on its ability to reflect and articulate the reader's aspirations for a better life and stands at the same time as a testament to her alienation This fresh look at the romantic fiction seeks to discover the reason for its appeal by combining analysis of the poetics of the genre with a study of the real reader's intervention

Forty Books Peter Michael Cox, 2015-04-30 It all started out in pre adolescence in the mid 1960s Stuck in the house during those lazy hazy summer days I read Illustrated Classics comic books inside the backyard screened porch While slurping on a Popsicle those wondrous images and suspenseful narratives whisked me away to worlds of adventure The Three Musketeers terror Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and glory Camelot And walking back from the general store to our seaside cottage in Green Harbor I used to read the latest baseball news from Sports Illustrated Reading was my way of combating boredom and loneliness
