Indy s cultural landscape Elegance in an Age of Crisis Patricia Mears,G. Bruce Boyer,2014 A brilliant look at how modernizing technical and stylistic changes of the 1930s gave rise to international trends in fashion Despite the dire financial environment of the 1930s this decade gave rise to great technical and aesthetic innovations in fashion This handsomely illustrated book is the first to analyze important developments in both men s and women s fashions of that time Select experts contribute texts that delve into the economic political and cultural influences that shaped these emergent styles They also explore how industrial capabilities such as the production of new textiles allowed couturiers to drape fabric in ways not previously possible and how revolutionary dressmaking and tailoring techniques gave form to truly modern clothing Advancements in menswear tailoring in London and Naples paralleled breakthroughs in couture draping in Paris New York and even Shanghai Hollywood also played a role in defining and popularizing this glamorous style The international trend toward softer minimally ornamented and elegantly proportioned clothing differed markedly from the more restrictive attire of the preceding Edwardian era By contrast the fashions of the 1930s were made for movement highlighting the natural and classically idealized body The revival of classicism and other artistic influences were crucial to the creation of this clean minimal and modern new look Published in association with The Fashion Institute of Technology New York Exhibition in the fields of architecture design and fashion characterized the years between the two World Wars Shaping new styles of buildings and furnishings redefining contemporary dress and giving visual form to avant garde performing arts architects and designers forged a still influential modern aesthetic The era s most creative figures rarely worked in isolation preferring instead to participate in international dialogues that crossed national boundaries and linked capital cities in collaborative artistic enterprise No two cities engaged in a more fertile conversation than Paris and New York The interchange between them was never simple however comprising in equal measure admiration and envy respect and rivalry as artists and designers in each city interpreted and incorporated principles of Art Deco Cubism the International Style Neo Romanticism and Surrealism into their own practices A History of Design from the Victorian Era to the Present Ann Ferebee, 1970
