Urban, Edward M. Schortman, 2014-04-21 Archaeologists are continually faced with a pervasive problem How can cultures and the interactions among cultures be differentiated in the archaeological record This issue is especially difficult in peripheral areas such as El Salvador Honduras and southern Guatemala in the New World Encompassing zones that are clearly Mayan in language and culture especially during the Classic period this area also includes zones that seem to be non Mayan The Southeast Maya Periphery examines both aspects of this territory For the Maya emphasis is on two sites Quirigua Guatemala and Copan Honduras For the non Maya zone information is presented on a variety of sites and subregions the Lower Motagua Valley in Guatemala the Naco Sula and Comayagua valleys and the site of Playa de los Muertos in Honduras and the Zapotitan Valley and the sites of Cihuatlan and Santa Leticia in El Salvador Spanning over two thousand years of prehistory from the Middle Preclassic through the Classic and the poorly understood Postclassic the essays in this volume address such topics as epigraphy and iconography architecture site planning settlement patterns and ceramics and include basic information on chronology Copan and Quirigua are treated both individually and in comparative perspective This significant study was the first to attempt to deal with the Periphery as a coherent unit Unique in its comparative presentation of Copan and Quirigua and in the breadth of information on non Maya sites in the area The Southeast Maya Periphery consists largely of previously unpublished data Offering a variety of approaches to both old and new problems this volume attempts among other things to reassess the relationships between Copan and Quirigua and between Highland and Lowland ceramic traditions to analyze ceramics by neutron activation and to define the nature of the apparently non Mayan cultures in the region This book will be of major interest not only to Mayanists and Mesoamerican archaeologists but also to others interested in the processes of ethnic group boundary formation and maintenance Oaxaca Nelly M. Douglass, 2020-04-21 The Spanish Empire was a complex web of places and peoples Through an expansive range of essays that look at Africa the Americas Asia the Caribbean and the Pacific this volume brings a broad range of regions into conversation The contributors focus on nuanced comparative exploration of the processes and practices of creating maintaining and transforming cultural place making within pluralistic Spanish colonial communities The Global Spanish Empire argues that patterned variability is necessary in reconstructing Indigenous cultural persistence in colonial settings The volume s eleven case studies include regions often neglected in the archaeology of Spanish colonialism The time span under investigation is extensive as well transcending the entirety of the Spanish Empire from early impacts in West Africa to Texas during the 1800s The contributors examine the making of a social place within a social or physical landscape They discuss the appearance of hybrid material culture the incorporation of foreign goods into local material traditions the continuation of local traditions and archaeological evidence of opportunistic social climbing In some cases these changes in material culture are ways to maintain aspects of traditional culture rather than signifiers of new cultural practices The Global Spanish Empire tackles broad questions about Indigenous cultural persistence pluralism and place making using a global comparative perspective grounded in the shared experience of Spanish colonialism Contributors Stephen Acabado Grace Barretto Tesoro James M Bayman Christine D Beaulieu Christopher R DeCorse Boyd M Dixon John G Douglass William R Fowler Martin Gibbs Corinne L Hofman Hannah G Hoover Stacie M King Kevin Lane Laura Matthew Sandra Mont n Sub as Natalia Moragas Segura Michelle M Pigott Christopher B Rodning David Roe Roberto Valc rcel Rojas Steve A Tomka Jorge Ulloa Hung Juliet Wiersema
